

Purdue Hen Lays 290 Eggs in Year
A Single Comb White Leghorn pullet officially known as No. 4011 but who has been named Princess Purdue, has broken the egg record on the Purdue University Agricultural Experiment Station Poultry Farm for year's production. In her past fiscal year she produced 290 eggs.

She was hatched in April 1924 reared along with other chickens on the Purdue farm and began laying October 21 1924. Between that date and the end of the month she laid 9 eggs; the following November she laid 23 eggs; December 23, January 22

February 24, March 24, April 26, May 26, June 27, July 25 August 27, September 21 and the first 13 days of October 1925 she produced 13 eggs making a total of 290 eggs. Here to fore the highest egg record on the Purdue farm was 281 eggs held by a Barred Rock pullet.

Welfare Council Fund.

Up to 9 o'clock Friday night a total of 461 pledges had been made to the Welfare Council fund at Kendalville the amounts aggregating $12,750.35.
All the workers were enthusiastic and of the opinion that the goal of $200,000 would have been safely reached when the drive ended Saturday night.

Injured Man Improves.

Emil Bloomfield of Kendallville who was seriously injured when hit by an automobile near Huntertown Saturday evening is now reported improving nicely at Lakeside hospital.

League Stops War.

The battle for peace in the Balkans has been won in the view of League of Nations officials who are enthusiastic following receipt of messages from league representatives on the Balkan scene. They report that Greece completed evacuation of Bulgarian territory head of schedule and that troops of both nations are behind their respective frontiers. The league council will meet Friday to wind up the special session which began Monday.
Believing that the league has proved its ability to stop a war, its principal agents now are to put it to the test of preventing war in the future.

Many Saving Accounts.

Savings accounts in Indiana banks represent an approximate average of $3 for every man, woman and child in the state. The Christmas saving accounts will be distributed in December.

Injured in Roadhouse.

A girl giving the name of May Mack was taken to the Methodist hospital at Fort Wayne early Friday morning by a taxi driver who said he found her at the Tavern four miles south on the Decatur road. She has a fractured rib and one eye is so severely injured that hospital physicians say she will probably lose the sight. While nothing definite had been learned it was said that the injuries were received in a fight at the roadhouse.

County Ministers to Meet.

A meeting of the county ministerial association is being held at the Church of Christ at Kendallville this evening. A business session will convene at 5 o'clock followed by a banquet at 6 p. m. A special program beginning at 7:30 o'clock will be furnished by the ministerial association of Ligonier. The public is invited to attend the evening program.
