Religious Notice.

The Rev. Bishop Upfield, of Lafayette, (Episcopal) will preach at the Presbyterian Church, in this village, on Friday evening, April 23d; Rev. Mr. Gregory, of LaPorte, will also be present. The public are generally invited.

It is a surprising thing that our Mail Agents cannot bring us our mails promptly, and regularly. For a short time we received them so—getting our morning's Chicago mail on the 10:30 a. m. train from the west. This is as it should be; but something is "out of sorts" now, for, instead of receiving our Chicago Dailies the day they are published, we receive them two or three days after, from the east. I see that they are carried by their destination, and we have to patiently wait until they are put on the return track. This state of things certainly can, and ought to be remedied, and our citizens no longer be subjected to such an unpleasant conveyance.

Common Pleas Court is in session this week—Judge E. Bent on the Bench—A moderately well filled docket.

The weather is fine for the farming interests, and they are busily improving it. Everything is lively just now—but busi ness and money.

A Commercial College in Northern Indiana is certainly a desideratum; and, though surprising as it may appear, we are indeed to have one. LaPorte is to be the favored locality of this institution, and it is to be under the direction of Profs. Packard & Evans. The system of instruction to be pursued is such as to give a thorough preparation for all kinds of business. The languages and all the liberal branches will be taught so far as may be practicable in an institution of that kind; and the most thorough attention will be given to book-keeping, and commercial transactions generally, as taught in the best Commercial Institutes.

The educational department is to be under the supervision of Jasper Packard, well known to the citizens of this vicinity, and the Commercial under the special direction of Prof. Evans, who comes highly recommended from an eastern Institute.

We trust this enterprise will receive a liberal patronage from the whole of Northern Indiana; since it is bringing in the reach of all, and at an expense, at once trifling, compared with what one must pay to receive the same instruction in a similar institution, in any of our large cities.

The Institution is open to persons of both sexes. See advertisement.

REMOVED.—H. B. Dickson & Co. have removed their store to a better room, one door east of Palmer's. They have a heavy and well selected stock of Hardware, and the Colonel is ever ready to sell the same—at bargain.

They are talking of having a University at South Bend, to be under the supervision of the German Reformed Society. Some definite action has already been taken in the matter. We need a High School of learning in Northern Indiana, and South Bend would be a very good location. God speed the enterprise.

Rice Smith & Co. are receiving their Spring stock.

Death of Young Willard.

ERASTRU WILLARD, brother of Gov. Willard, died in New Orleans, on the 3d inst. His remains, as we learn from the New Albany Ledger, are expected to arrive at this city to-day, where they were brought for interment.

Mr. W. was a young man of bright promise, and possessed personal qualities which endeared him to all who were so fortunate as to make his acquaintance. His stirring eloquence during the Presidential campaign of 1856, will be remembered by hundreds of Democrats, young and old, of this city.—National Democrat (Indianapolis).

Bied.—On the 21st, inst., Harriet May, aged six months—daughter of Asa P. and Prude Elliott.

Married:—On the 11th inst., by Rev. R. McFarlin, Mr. Ezra L. Finny, to Miss Sarah E. Harris, all of this county.

On the same day, by the same, Mr. Jos Fry, to Miss Katy Ann Warren.

NOTICE

Is hereby given to the members of the Christ Church on Yellow River, Marion County, Indiana, that an election will be held at "Mt. Pisgah," in said county, on Saturday the 15th day of May next, at one o'clock P. M. for the purpose of electing three trustees.

By order of the church.

Fair Warning! Last Call!

W. C. Shirley now informs those indebted to us with him before the 25th of April, 1858, that unless they will be compelled to settle the same with the officers of the different townships, as he intends at that time to place all unsettled claims in process of collection.

This is positively the last call. He is going away and must have his business settled. The Sheriff having closed out his stock of goods, he needs all that is due him to pay his own debts.

He is chargeable as follows:

Amount assessed on Duplicate for 1857, and delinquent for 1858, $1755.45

do on hand last settlement, 143.55

do rec'd common school fund, 249.00

do do for corporation licences, 67.00

Total, am't with which he is chargeable, $2,125.03

He is entitled to the following credits:

By tax returned delinquent by Collector, $1,193.74

By corporation orders fully redeemed, 949.17

By cash paid on orders not fully redeemed, 18.00

Total credits, $2,151.91

Of the $2,151.91 paid out during the current year, there was paid for making and repairing sidewalks, crossings, work on streets, and general corporation expenses, $47.39

For school purposes, $49.50

For repairs on school houses and grounds, .50

There are yet unpaid orders outstanding against the corporation to the amount of $166.33

The Marshal reports the collection of $465 of personal road tax, all of which he reports as having been expended on the streets.

All of which is duly approved by the Board.

J. B. N. KLINGER, President.
