SATURDAY, October 9th, 1857.

BETTER KNOWN AS
"POP-GUN SMITH"
One of Indiana's best orators, and
C. H. REEVE!

Will address the meeting. Turn out, every body, and hear the truth.

The Republicans say they WILL carry the election in Marshall County this fall. Democrats be on your guard. Grave charges are to be made by the Republicans on the eve of the election.

Look out for SCHILLER impostors. He has been employed by the Republicans to import votes, and will probably be again, after which he will receive the "ENCLOSURE"—not as pay for ELECTIONEERING, but as a little relief to a friend in DISTRESS!

FIVE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR COUNTY OFFICE. FIVE WERE RETURNED. DELINQUENT FOR NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES!!!

EVERY VOTE CAST FOR J. O. PARKS IS A VOTE FOR PUBLISHING THE ITEMS OF COUNTY EXPENSES IN THE M. C. REPUBLICAN AT A COST OF $7,000.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

THE FIVE of the REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES were returned DELINQUENT for NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES, for last year!

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE!

THE FIVE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES, for County Office, in Marshall County, (with but ONE exception) has been returned DELINQUENT for the NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES for last year.

We mention this as "A little relief to [friends] in distress."

"And Still they Come!"

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE! JAMES KEYSER, Republican Candidate for Commissioner, was returned DELINQUENT for the non-payment of his Taxes for 1857.

And yet Another!

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE! JAMES PLANT, the Republican Candidate for Assessor of Union Township, was returned DELINQUENT for the non-payment of Taxes for the years, 1855, 1856 and 1857.

We shall make additions to the above list of Candidates, from week to week, until it is completed.

Are men who manage their own private affairs so loosely, to be trusted with the affairs of the Public?

GERMAN VOTERS TAKE NOTICE! that a leading Republican stated last Thursday at Bourbon, that "he knew the Democrats had a majority in German township, but the Republicans had raised money to buy up enough Dutch votes to turn the Election in that township."

Our Irish and German friends will remember, that the Republican party are in favor of making them stay in this country twenty-one years before they can Vote, and after calling them the "Dirty Irish" and "Ignorant Dutch," are now round, begging those same Foreigners for their Votes.

"POP-GUN" SMITH.

(Of Fort Wayne,) the eloquent Champion of Democracy, will address his political friends, and others, at the Mass Meeting, in Plymouth, on SATURDAY, October 9th.

Gov. Willard has promised to be here at the Mass Meeting on Saturday, Oct. 9th.

Democrats, Abolitionists, Black Republicans, and persons of all parties are invited to attend.

The Election.

As this is the last opportunity of addressing the Democrats through our Paper previous to the annual Election, we desire to impress upon their minds the necessity of their attending the Election—of going EARLY to the polls—and seeing that their friends and neighbors do the same. Our candidates and speakers have done nobly; they have canvassed the different districts thoroughly—have stated their principles fairly, without fear or favor. The reputation of each of our candidates for honesty, capability, and strict integrity, is beyond reproach. Our Ticket presents the singular feature—that every man on it is worthy the suffrage of the whole people. They have done their duty—it now remains for the people to do theirs.

GILSON S. CLEVELAND, candidate for Senator, is a man of the most unwavering integrity—and, in every respect qualified for the office; if elected, he will discharge his duty to the satisfaction of his constituents. There are but few men who have been in Marshall County longer than Mr. Cleveland, and none who have conducted themselves in a more creditable manner. He has held a public office in this County, and the people know him to be honest and capable. Their answer at the polls will prove that belief.

C. H. REEVE, our candidate for Representative for Marshall and Stark Counties, is so well known as a prominent lawyer and sound politician, that it is unnecessary for us to say anything further, than that his election would be an honor to the County. His qualifications—his stern integrity, and his intimate knowledge of the business to be transacted for our people in the Legislature, are convincing proofs that he is the man for the place. He will be elected by a large majority.

W. C. EDWARDS, candidate for Treasurer, has served the people in the office of Sheriff, has resided in the county about eighteen years, during which time he has maintained the character of one of our best citizens, and is well qualified for the office to which he has been nominated. He pays his taxes promptly, and from his general knowledge of business, will make a first rate officer.

THOMAS McDONALD, the present Auditor, and candidate for re-election, has been a resident of this county for twenty-one years—has served in the capacity of Justice of the Peace, County Commissioner and Auditor. In each of these offices he has ever been true to the confidence reposed in him. For competency, prompt attention to the duties of his office, and an unimpeachable private character, we refer the reader to four or five hundred of the oldest and most respectable citizens of the county. If elected, his past acts will be a guaranty for the future.

J. F. VANVALKENBURGH, candidate for Sheriff, and present incumbent, has discharged the duties of his office even to the satisfaction of his political opponents. He has held the office—but one term (two years,) and it is no more than right and proper that he should be re-elected, as his knowledge of the business will enable him to transact it more satisfactorily than a person of inferior qualifications, and no experience.

JACOB KNOBLOCK, candidate for Commissioner, is an intelligent citizen of German Township, and an honest, hard working Farmer. If elected, he would undoubtedly discharge his duties to the best of his ability, which is far superior to that of his opponent.

A. BOYD, candidate for Coroner, has resided in this county three or four years, is one of our best citizens, and a firm Democrat.

ELIAS JACOBY, candidate for Township Assessor, is an intelligent Farmer, of unblemished private character. He has already held public office in this County, and has always proven himself to be "honest, faithful and capable."

We have now given a general review of our Ticket, and we are sure no good Democrat will be dissatisfied with it. Those who are acquainted with our candidates (and they are all old citizens) will testify that they see all we have represented them to be.

It is the imperative DUTY of every Democrat to go EARLY to the Polls, and remain there until the LAST VOTE is polled. Do not permit your Democratic neighbor to stay at home, supposing there will be enough without him. Remember yourself, and impress on his mind, that "eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." Remember, the 12th of October!

BOGUS Tickets are out, with the words: "Democratic ticket" at the head, but have the names of Republican candidates on them.

READ YOUR TICKET closely, Democrats; the Black Republicans have laid their plans to Defraud you, if possible.

Reception of Col. John C. Walker, in Plymouth.

The intelligence having been generally announced that our gallant standard-bearer, the Democratic candidate for Congress, Col. JOHN C. WALKER, would address the people here on the 30th ult., at an early hour on that day crowds were seen wending their way towards town, in bugles, wagons, on horse-back, and on foot, eagerly pressing forward to hear the great Truths of Democracy advocated by this eloquent champion of "DEMOCRACY—AND THE PEOPLE'S RIGHTS."

By eleven o'clock the different Delegations, as they came pouring into town with Music and streaming Banners, swelled the crowd to a degree but seldom witnessed in Plymouth, and far exceeded in numbers and enthusiasm, the meeting held here on the 25th ult. when Mr. Colfax made his Speech.

Col. WALKER was received about a mile from town, by a long procession of mounted horsemen, besides hundreds of persons in carriages, wagons and on foot, and escorted to the "Edwards House," amid waving of banners, the loud, heart-felt cheering of the Democracy, and the waving of ladies' handkerchiefs, all enlivened by the soul-stirring notes of two Bands of Music.

Here the enthusiastic shouts were, for a few moments, restrained, as Col. Walker appeared upon the balcony of the hotel and made a few brief remarks, at the conclusion of which three loud cheers were given.

At two o'clock the vast throng proceeded to the Seminary Grove to hear Col. Walker's Speech—no building in the town being large enough to contain one-tenth of the crowd. The Speech was a masterly effort—plain in words, but pointed—and convincing to any man not blinded by Party prejudice. Even some Republicans acknowledged the ability of Col. Walker's speech, while others of their party conceded, that as a speaker he is far superior to Mr. Colfax.

His withering denunciation of Black Republicanism was most keenly felt by the few of its adherents who were present, but no improper personal reflections were made on his competitor, Mr. Colfax.

Col. Walker dwelt on the political issues of the day, and was listened to with marked attention for nearly two hours and a half. Among the enthusiastic applause that the Speech brought forth, the only regret that we heard expressed was—that it could not have been continued longer.

It was a proud day, that, for John C. Walker, when he stood forth battling so successfully for the TRUTH, against the knavish designs of corrupt Republican leaders—men who battle only for office without principle—and seek to deceive the People by promises which they never intend to fulfill.

It was a glorious day for the Democrats, as they came out in masses to hear the great Truths of Democracy advocated by one who has been tried and found true; by one who has been tried and found true; by one who has been tried and found true; by one who has been tried and found true.

There is not one redeeming quality in the leaders of the Republican Party. Deception is stamped upon their every act. They promised to restore the Compromise Line. Did they even try to do so? They promised to repeal the Fugitive Slave Law. Have they done it? No, they never as much as tried.

"Freedom to the Slave." That's another of their hobbies—like "bleeding Kansas" it broke down, but until they had ridden it into Congress. Now all these hobbies are precisely what carried Colfax into Congress. What's his chief hope now of success. Why, next to misrepresenting the expenses of the Government, he tries to fuddle the Foreigners and get their votes, after raising his right hand in a Know Nothing Lodge, and swearing before Almighty God, eternal hostility to our foreign-born citizens.

He offers them now protection in their Rights. Yes, "such protection as [wolves] do give to lambs."

The Foreign vote has become a forlorn hope to Black Republicanism. Foreigners remember the infamous treatment they have received at its hands, and from its ally, the Know Nothings. They know that Mr. Colfax upholds them both, and will act accordingly.

The Auditor's Exhibit.

The editor of the Republican frequently makes himself appear very ridiculous by his criticisms on the acts of our county officers. He has frequently stated in his paper that it is the duty of the Auditor, and the people require it of him, to give every item of expense, in his annual report to the Commissioners. This is, without exception, the most ridiculous statement we ever knew a man, professing to have common sense, to make. It shows either a desire to find fault with our officers merely for the purpose of serving his party, or the most inexcusable ignorance in regard to county affairs that a public man could be guilty of. The publication of such an exhibit, (the law requires that it shall be published,) would cost about as much as the whole of our county expense, under the present management. It frequently occurs that there are fifty items, and sometimes more, connected with one County order; this could not cost, at regular rates of advertising, less than five dollars, and probably ten, if it was published in the manner prescribed by Ignoramus. Drs. Lemon, Brown and Bennett filed bills for attendance on the County Poor; the publication of each bill would probably cost ten dollars. What good would their publication effect? It would certainly be no advantage to the people, who have the additional expense to pay. The only advantage which such a publication would be, could accrue to none but the printer.

Do the citizens know how often those physicians attended the Poor, and what the visits and medicine were worth, from the reading of their bills? If a person could tell whether the bills were correct from their reading, would it not be much cheaper for the County to have those enquiring individuals go the Auditor's office, and examine the bills on file? We think so.

The Auditor of this county has published the annual exhibit of receipts and expenditures in the manner prescribed by the State Auditor, and in the same manner that the Auditors of other counties do. We defy Ignoramus to show an exhibit of the receipts and expenditures of any county in the State, published in the form stated by him. Such a thing never has been, and probably never will be done.

What a pity it is that the Auditors throughout the State have always been so ignorant of their duty! Ignoramus is certainly entitled to their thanks.

From five to seven thousand dollars to be paid yearly for publishing the exhibit!! when it now only costs eight dollars! This is the "economy in the public expenditures" the Republican party talk so much about, and the kind they will practice if they ever get into power. Think of this, citizens, when the Republicans attempt to obtain your votes, promising economy in the administration of public affairs.

Hard Up for Thunder.

As an evidence of the total disregard of truth practiced by a large portion of the Opposition, we notice that they are now circulating a statement through their organs, that there is a "Democratic corruption fund" in Washington City, taken from the National Treasury, for the purpose of paying Democratic speakers, and printing Democratic documents. Notwithstanding the impossibility of such a thing, were the Democrats so disposed, there are men whose vision is so clouded by weepings over "bleeding Kansas," that they cannot think but it is true, every word of it. We heard a Republican stating to a Democrat that Walker was paid by the Government for canvassing the district, and that every Democrat who made speeches received pay for it out of this fund. We asked him where he got his information, and he replied that Colfax said so. Colfax is certainly not ignorant in regard to the matter, but unblushingly tells what he knows to be false. The South Bend Register, Colfax's paper, of the 23d ult. says:

"No wonder that Col. Walker justifies the enormous expenditures of the Administration, when a portion of them is caused indirectly by the formation of a 'corruption fund' at Washington, and a portion of that fund is devoted to his special benefit—that is, to aid him in his desperate attempt to obtain a seat in Congress."

Of course the Register does not intend this for the truth, but the editor, probably feeling a little gay, let it off, in the expectation that it would bait some gudgeon. By making such statements, they exhibit more meanness than their opponents would if the charges were true. They are evidence that the Republicans are "in distress," and calling loudly for "a little relief."

Those of our subscribers who commenced with No. 28 of the present volume, in order to secure the benefit of the Advance rate, must settle their Subscription in a few weeks, or we shall have to charge them $1.50.

We are in great need of money, just now friends; if you can't pay all you owe us, pay at least a portion of it. Our heavy expenses (which are mostly Cash) with but small receipts from subscribers, compel us thus to call your attention to the matter.

Democratic Meeting at Union Town.

We attended C. H. Reeve's appointment at Union Town on Tuesday week ago. Quite a large number were in attendance, considering the busy season of the year and the time of the week. Mr. James O. Parks, Mr. R's competitor, was on hand, and an arrangement was made between them to divide the time. Mr. R. proposed that Parks should open with an hour's speech—he (Reeve) would follow with an hour, Parks fifteen minutes, Reeve close with fifteen minutes; Mr. Parks thought this unfair, Mr. R. told him that it was his (R's) own appointment, but in order that they might speak together told him to make a proposition which would allow each the same length of time, and he would accept it. Mr. Parks accepted this proposition, and being a little confused, made precisely the same proposition that Mr. Reeve had made. This, of course, suited Mr. R., and Mr. Parks immediately took the stand. He put on one of his pleasant smiles, and in the hour he occupied, he said nothing of interest to the people of modern times. He discussed on National politics, and the way he used up the administration on expenditures, is "horrible to relate." Before he commenced speaking, however, one James Mitchell, who probably exhibited less sense than he really has, made a very serious charge against Mr. Reeve, which he supposed would do the business effectually for Mr. Parks. Mr. R. asked him if he had not been reporting the charge wherever he went through the Township, without knowing whether it was true or not. He said he had not, Mr. R. Called Messrs. Shirley, McDuffie, who said that Mitchell had made the charge in their hearing. Mr. Mitchell had to leave his words, and the matter was explained by Mr. R. to the satisfaction of every man in the audience. After Mr. P's time was out; Mr. R. took the stand. The audience desiring to hear Local matters discussed, he proceeded at once to speak on the questions dividing the parties in this County, and upon the duties which would devolve upon the successful candidate for Representative. Taking up the expenses of the County; on which the Republicans expect to ride into power, he was interrupted by Mr. Mitchell, again, by requesting him to give all the items of expenditures, included in the Stationary account, and after from fifty to one hundred were given, the amounts of which would make enough to satisfy any man desiring to believe the truth, that the officers had not pocketed the whole Stationary expense, he persisted in having all the items named. He was told that every item, making the total of the County expenses was on file in the Auditors office, open to the examination of every man in the County, and for "further particulars" was referred to the office. At this juncture Mr. Spangler, our next door neighbor, put in, in reference to the items of expenditures, and charged, or asked Mr. R. if he had not taken fees on both sides of a case in which Mr. Moore and Jones were interested. A lively debate sprang up in which Messrs. Spangler, Moore, Jones and Mitchell took part against Mr. R. they failed to substantiate their charges, but were shown up by Mr. R. to be the corrupt parties. They were glad enough to drop the matter, and we opine that they will never be caught making charges against him, to his face, again. Mr. P's then took the stand, and attempted to quiet matters down by talking very mild and saying that he should not attempt to follow Mr. R. in all his wanderings but would tell them plain facts (he should have said lies as he turned out to be). The Marshall County Democrat occupied his attention for some time. He allowed it was a poor concern—hadn't merit enough to sustain itself—lived by charging double the amount for advertising that the Republican would do it for &c., &c. We felt our bad, but survived and have concluded to publish the Democrat, notwithstanding Mr. P's castigation. He has a good chance to decide on its merits, as he is too stingy to subscribe for it, if he reads it, he borrows it of his neighbor, which shows that his merits are no better than he represents the Democrat. He closed his very able and eloquent speech by telling the audience that he was nothing but a backwoodsman in that he came here when the red man roamed the forests, unmolested by white men, that he had made his living by hard labor—that of late years he had devoted his leisure moments to the study of law. He told that he was in the legislature once—how he performed while there, and closed by asking them to vote for him. Mr. R. then took the stand, and such a raking as Parks got, can only be imagined by those who know Charley's manner of speaking. Parks looked like a "bound boy at a husking," we really felt sorry for him. At the close of his speech, Mr. Mitchell persisted in having a further examination of the charge he had made, but was told that the people were satisfied with what was the guilty party, and if he wanted the matter investigated, again, to bring it up in "due form of law."

Three hearty cheers were given for C. H. Reeve, and the meeting dispersed. Union Township is all right, and will send up from fifty to one hundred majority for the whole Democratic Ticket.

The Democrats are wide awake, and say "that they are determined to beat the misnamed Republicans this time, if they never do again." As for Parks men, down there, there is not a corporal's guard. They know him, and know that he is not qualified to represent them in the legislature.

Spaulding keeps the quality of Stone Lime for sale. If you want a good article, give him a call on your next trip.

Extra Services.

The Republicans are very much troubled because the Clerk, Auditor and Sheriff, receive $100 per year for extra services. They are trying to create the impression that these allowances are made on the score of favoritism, and are unauthorized by law.

For the benefit of those who do not know why this allowance is made, and for the purpose of showing how unfair, and mean those are who do know, we propose giving the law and the facts, as they are, and not as the delinquent candidates report them. In the first place, the law fixes the fees for certain services. (See fee bill, acts of 1855, page 107.) In the next place, there is a large amount of labor connected with those offices for which the law provides no fees. A law was made, authorizing the Commissioners to allow them $100 each, in those counties where the fees do not amount to $1,000. Marshall is one of the counties where the fees are less than $1,000, and consequently those officers are justly and legally entitled to the extra allowance. There is not one of those officers, but what earns twice as much as the allowance, for which they receive no pay. If we had space, we could enumerate a part of the services which those are compelled to perform, and for which there are no fees stated in the fee bill. The justness of this allowance has never been questioned until the present campaign, and would not have been had it not been for "electioneering purposes." For the last fifteen years, these allowances have been made, without any regard to the politics of the Commissioners, or the officers to whom the allowances were made. Jacob K. Hupp, and John L. Thompson, Sheriffs, received the extra allowance; R. Corbaley, Clerk, and Wm. M. Dunham, Auditor, were allowed the same. We have no hesitancy in saying that these extra allowances are made in every county in the State, where the fees do not exceed one thousand dollars; we know this to be the case in our neighboring counties. The allowances are right, just, and legal; and should the Republicans ever succeed in this county, they would be the last ones to refuse them.

Dignified.

Reeve, in his speech at Tyner City, on Friday last, alluding to the Republican candidate for Sheriff, said, "he looks like he could eat a big nigger for breakfast and drink six gallons of water without any inconvenience." This is the man about whose capability we hear so much. Bah.

We are authorized by a number of gentlemen, of both parties, who heard Mr. Reeve on the occasion alluded to, to say that the above statement was not made by Mr. Reeve, nor did he say anything from which such an inference could be drawn. This is one of the many false statements which have emanated from the prolific brain of Ignoramus.

Mr. Reeve, while canvassing the county, has treated all the opposition candidates courteously and gentlemanly; he has not said a disrespectful word of Mr. Barnard, or any other candidate on their ticket. He has frequently spoken of their qualifications, and proved by a history of their business transactions, that they are incompetent to manage public affairs. If the Republicans want "quarter," let them ask for it like men, and not cry out "persecution" when there is none.

Misrepresentation.

Judge Fuller has been exhibiting the delinquent list, and pointing out what he conceives to be some very egregious errors, and which would render the Auditor unworthy or incompetent to discharge the duties of the office. We had given him credit for more sagacity than he has exhibited in this affair. As he and a very few others cannot understand why it is that there should be such a difference between taxes of the current year, and the total amount delinquent, we will briefly explain: There are some pieces of land advertised, on which the taxes have not been paid for a number of years; the taxes of each year are footed up in the total, which makes it appear so much larger than the taxes of the current year. It also frequently occurs that a portion of the taxes are paid and the balance returned delinquent. If Mr. Fuller will examine the records he will find they are correct; and that the present Auditor is neither unworthy or incompetent.

Ignoramus says the Republican candidates are too poor to pay their taxes. If he could succeed in making the people believe this fabrication, he might effect something for the "poor delinquents." But it is the opinion of the people that if a portion of them can live for a year or more, without doing any kind of work, or engaging in any kind of business, that they could pay their taxes, occasionally, at least. Men who will not work for themselves, are not generally very industrious in the service of the public.

The editor of the $350 Paper says that Parks, if elected, will go for a law to have all the items of County expense printed. If the Republican candidates are successful, the $350 editor would get the printing. The publication of these items would cost more than all the other County expenses, and would carpet his house from garret to cellar. No wonder he goes in for Parks. Voters, are you ready to support such a man? and do you want such a law? The offices are open; the bills on file, and any man, who wishes to, can copy them.

The editor of the "S350" Press finds fault with us for saying so much about delinquent Tax Payers. We have thrown no stigma on any man for not paying his taxes; but Mattingly and his candidates and their friends, were urging the election of the Republican Ticket on the grounds of the County indebtedness, and the high taxes under Democratic rule. We have referred to the Delinquent Tax List to show that, if the men who are howling about high taxes and County indebtedness and corrupt Democrats, would pay their delinquent taxes, the County would be out of Debt, the Treasury would have a surplus, and the taxes would be lessened one half. There is $5,500 and over, of delinquent taxes due the County, and only $3,600 indebtedness. If those Delinquencies were paid, there would be $8,024 in the Treasury, and no Taxes would be necessary for the next year. We do not find fault with men for not paying their taxes, but we do find fault with them for cursing the Democracy about high taxes and the County being in debt, when they have paid their taxes already assessed, and the County has to go in debt on account of it. It is no disgrace to a man to be poor, but it is a disgrace to refuse to pay his taxes, and then curse the Commissioners because they cannot pay the County debts.

The Crown Point Register is trying to extend "a little relief" to its "friend" Ignoramus, in regard to the Delinquent Republican candidates in this County. The Register, in common with the Republicans of this county, thinks it all right and proper to elect delinquents to office, in preference to those who pay their taxes. This is Republican doctrine, as enunciated by the faithful in Marshall.

HARD TO BEAT—Mr. D. L. Gibson has left at our office two stalks of Chinese Sugar Cane, each measuring 17 feet 6 inches. They are two feet taller than any we have before heard of.

We notice that Frank Blair, who addressed the faithful here last week, is making a thorough canvass of the northern portion of the district, for Schuyler. This is the man who owns slaves in Missouri, and preaches Abolitionism in Indiana. But Schuyler's supporters are an incomprehensible conglomeration of heterogeneous elements; and any apparent inconsistency must be excused on the ground that it is "all for freedom."

Mr. J. F. Miller, one of Schuyler's "hush whackers," addressed a small audience in this place last Saturday evening. We heard the most of it, and can truly say that it about as poor a speech as we ever listened to. It abounded chiefly in long, dry anecdotes, poorly told, and misapplied. Wonder if his mother knows he's out!

We have a few notes that are now due, which we would be pleased to have settled. We need the money—oh! you don't know how bad!

We suppose the Republican will attempt to deceive its readers again in regard to the Gipe case. The facts are these: His escape was not premeditated by the Sheriff, from the fact he offered $100 reward, and used every exertion in his power to have him re-captured. Instead of his escape being a loss to the county, it is a gain, as it has saved the expense of keeping him one year. Gipe's brother stated to three gentlemen in this town that they did not intend to pay his fine. If his fine had been paid, it would have done the county but little good, as the money would belong to the State School Fund, and not to the county.

The Republican street talkers, and one or two Stamp orators, have publicly declared that the ballot boxes shall be broken in pieces, before the DUTCH and IRISH shall vote, if they do not support the Republican ticket. They say that every Foreigner should be in this country

21 YEARS before he can vote, and that he should NEVER HOLD ANY OFFICE under our Government.
