CLARIFICATION

In last week's Police Notes in the Advance News under the heading "Employee found to be stealing prescription medication" it was noted that an employee from the Nappanee CVS had been found to be stealing after being found in possession of prescriptions pills during a operating while intoxicated arrest. The employee was instead from the CVS store on Nappanee Street in Elkhart.

We regret the error and apologize for any confusion this may have caused.

Elkhart County and school corporation seats to be voted on

GOSHEN — The Elkhart County Election Board will be accepting major party candidate declarations for the 2012 primary election beginning at 8 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 11.

The deadline to file is at noon, Friday, Feb. 10. All filings should take place at the Circuit Court Clerk's office in the courthouse in Goshen (101 N. Main St., Room 204) and as it is a secure building, security must be passed.

County offices that will appear on the 2012 primary election ballot include: Elkhart County Treasurer, Elkhart County Coroner, Elkhart County Surveyor, Elkhart County Commissioner for District 2, Elkhart County Commissioner for District 3, County Council at-large (three seats), Republican Party Precinct Committeeman, and State Convention Delegates (Republican and Democrat).

Beginning in 2012, school board offices will be elected through general election. Filing dates for school board candidates is July 25 through noon Aug. 24. In November 2012, the following school board offices and seats will be on the election ballot: Baugo Community Schools (Districts I and II), Concord Community Schools (Districts I and II), Elkhart Community Schools (Districts A, C, D, and at-large), Fairfield Community Schools (Districts I and III and at-large), Goshen Community Schools (Districts II and IV and at-large), Middlebury Community Schools (Districts B and C) and Wa-Nee Community Schools (Olive Township, Scott-Jefferson Township and at-large).

POLICE NOTES

INCIDENTS

Youth taken into custody for thefts

NAPPANEE — Five juveniles were arrested and released to their parents after law enforcement investigated suspicious activity. Nappanee Police Joshua Harner, while on patrol Dec. 18 at 2:30 a.m. saw a vehicle in the 800 block of East Walnut Street with its door ajar. As he approached the vehicle, several individuals fled the area.

Police caught up with one, a juvenile, and after further investigation, four young men were arrested and released to their parents. An 18 year old male subject was spoken to and an investigation continues. Paperwork will be forwarded to the prosecutor for further review on more charges.

The past couple months the Nappanee Police Dept. has had an increase in thefts and burglaries within the city. Last month, arrests were made on nine business burglaries. The police department requests that citizens report any suspicious activity.
