Wednesday and Saturday matinees. All other shows will be performed Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday evenings, plus matinees on Thursday and Sunday.

The Round Barn Theatre is Indiana's only resident repertory theatre with its own costume shop, scenic design shop and warehouse, and props department. The theatre's 33rd production of "Plain and Fancy" is the longest running annually produced Broadway show in America.

The base price for adult season tickets is $129.95 for all seven shows, and includes a free ticket to the 2018 holiday production of "Annie" if purchased by October 31. Patrons can include the Thresher's Dinner with a Dinner and Theatre subscription for an additional charge. The purchase of each adult season ticket entitles the subscriber to one free children's ticket for any show other than "Beauty and the Beast."

Other benefits to subscribing include free admission to the 2019 Amish Acres Arts and Crafts Festival, a VIP Card offering a 10 percent discount on many purchases at Amish Acres, 50 percent off rooms at The Inn at Amish Acres and more.

Through the Joseph Stein Young Actors Memorial Fund, children receive free season tickets with the purchase of accompanying adult subscriptions.

approximately 200 pounds of produce in the greenhouse. The greenhouse also allowed for the program to grow about 2,000 plant starts that were distributed among the program's sixteen gardens throughout Elkhart County, one of which is located on North Main Street in Nappanee.

The produce is then distributed at the Church Community Services food pantry and other pantries throughout Elkhart County. The greenhouse is set to be moved over the weekend of September 11 - 13.

"We believe that Church Community Service's Seed to Feed program is another excellent example of our mission to improve the quality of life in Elkhart County by inspiring generosity," said Pete McCown, president of the Community Foundation. "We are pleased with what they've presented to us and we expect them to be successful in their efforts. Church Community Services is another vital link in the chain of non-profit entities that are improving our quality of life in Elkhart County."

"We are so happy to provide community members in need with fresh, healthy options for food," said Tom McArthur, executive director of Church Community Services. "We can do this because of the support we receive from the Community Foundation, our volunteers, and individual donors."

Church Community Services is a faith-based agency helping people of Elkhart County weather life's storms and build more secure futures through emergency assistance and intensive job and life-skills training.

Seed to Feed is a program of Church Community Services that works to establish food security in Elkhart County by providing fresh, local produce and protein to those in need.

In more than 25 years of service, the Community Foundation of Elkhart County has developed over $235 million in assets with 350-plus endowed funds. It has awarded more than $62 million in grants. Its stated mission is "to improve the quality of life in Elkhart County by inspiring generosity."
