

THE BANNER

ABOUT HOME.

Extra copies of the Banner, in wrappers, ready for mailing, may be had at the office for 5 cents each.

Town Subscribers.—Our last issue was not delivered to our town subscribers, in consequence of the sickness of the carrier. Most of the patrons have called and been supplied, and we have copies to supply all others; but we don't know who are minus, or we would send them.

Boys who are in the habit of spending their time in loafing, must seek some other place of resort than our office during working hours. We have been annoyed in this way just as long as we intend to. A printing office is no place for boys, or other loafers, unless they have business.

Bare Sport.—It is but a half an hour's sport that our gunsmen get to enjoy these mornings before breakfast, until they have got as many wild pigeons as they care about lugging home from the suburbs of the town.

There was quite a frost at this place on the morning of the 21st inst. It materially improved the health of our citizens.

The new corner business property of Mr. Jos. Evans on the corner south of the Edwards Hotel, is a beautiful and well finished affair. The main store room below, is finished inside in a similar manner to the Western Bank—neat black walnut cornice, and the counters and drawers of the same kind of timber. We understand it is to be occupied by Messrs. Hine of South Bend as a hardware store.

Music.—Miss. Smith proposes to form a Music class at her residence on the first Monday in October. An excellent opportunity for the young ladies who wish to perfect themselves on the piano. See Advertisement.

When subscribers move from house to house, they should let us or the carrier know it, or they cannot expect their papers promptly delivered.

Our papers in this county have already commenced the enjoyment of a sumptuous oak mast. Root little ones.

Nebraska and Kansas.

At the late anti-Nebraska Convention at Saratoga, New York, Mr. KIRKMAN, the agent of the Nebraska and Kansas Emigration Society, stated that he had traveled through the recently organized Territories, and, from what he saw, had not the slightest doubt that both of them would come in as non-slaveholding States. This testimony, it will be borne in mind, is given by a strong free soiler, who would indubitably have been glad if he could have stated with truth that the Territories would become slaveholding. But such an assertion would have been too palpably inconsistent with verity; and therefore he was obliged, though unwillingly, to give the real facts of the case. Yet, notwithstanding this testimony of one of their own faction, who has been on the spot, and ought to know, the whig-abolition press still continue to decite with assurance that the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska are in great danger of becoming slaveholding States. Their object in so doing is plainly perceptible. Being out of power, and wishing to get in it, they hope, by means of lying statements like this, to stir up a sectional feeling at the North, which shall be directed against the cause of democracy. There are undoubtedly some individuals sufficiently simple to repose confidence in their averments; but we opine that the greater portion of the citizens of the North are too well sighted to be deceived by their shallow misrepresentations, and too patriotic to lend their aid towards placing in power a faction organized avowedly upon a sectional basis, and whose efforts are continually directed towards the weakening of the links which bind together the several States of the great American confederacy.

A gentleman riding a few days since, between Honey and Rush, on the Canandagua and Niagara Falls Railroad, saw a cow running with all speed to keep ahead of the train. The animal persisted in keeping the track, notwithstanding the rapid rate at which the train gained upon her. The train was travelling at lightning speed, and very soon struck the cow. The long nose of the "catcher" struck under the beast just as she was making one of her highest bounds, when she was in an instant thrown to the height of thirty feet in the air, and again struck upon the track just as the last car shot from under her. The train consisted of the locomotive and tender, a baggage and two passenger cars, and did not pass over the cow, which fell dead upon the track from the violence of her last somerset.

There is a man living in Livingston New York, by the name of Atherton, who, in one week in January last, threshed four hundred bushels of wheat, three constables, and seven deputy sheriffs. Zebulon Baird, Esq., of Lafayette, a distinguished lawyer, and for many years a prominent whig has refused to ratify the bargain by which the leaders attempted to transfer the whig party, body and soul, to the abolitionists. He is now addressing large meetings in the northern portion of the State, against the abolition state ticket.

Martin M. Ray, Esq., of Shelby, and Judge Cowgill, of Putman, the leading whigs in their respective counties, have also taken the stump against the abolition Know Nothing coalition.

TO THE VOTERS OF MARSHALL COUNTY.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—Some time since I announced myself as a Candidate for the Office of Treasurer & Collector, and my name was placed before the "People's Convention," which assembled at the Court House in this County, on Saturday the 26th day of August last, and in which I was defeated—but defeated in a manner that I do not feel bound to abide by. But I do not aim to make any charges against any one, as all that was in attendance at that Convention are as well acquainted with the manner in which I was defeated as I am myself. I take this opportunity to inform you that I am still a Candidate before the people for the office of Treasurer & Collector, and as my family is at this time sick, and I am prevented from calling upon my fellow citizens throughout the county in person, I have been induced to issue this circular for the purpose of vindicating myself from some of the charges brought against me by persons whose professions should speak better things. I am charged with many things, amongst which is that of Dishonesty—with swindling the Community—with being an accomplice with the late failure of Wm. G. Pomroy; and that I am chargeable with all the sins of the firm, of which I was to say the most, but a dormant partner, while I was connected with that firm. True I was a partner, I put in my money and lost it all; and yet I am charged with dishonesty and swindling.

All I wish to say in answer to all such charges, is, that before the people of Marshall County will set me down for such a consummate villain, that they will enquire of some disinterested persons, and those persons who have known me most intimately and longest, and I have been amongst you since the first organization of the county, and when you have done that, and they tell you that I am such a character, then I will submit. But I am not satisfied to let such charges go unanswered, when made by men who have selfish ends to accomplish, and who, through such means expect, or attempt to promote other persons to office. Fellow citizens I do not claim that you are under any obligation to vote for me in preference to any other person, but I desire your votes, as I want the office, and I need it. I have been made a beggar in consequence of the late failure of Pomroy & Co., and need that office. Should I be so fortunate as to be elected, I will use my utmost endeavors to serve you faithfully an honorably in discharge of my duties, as I should fail to be elected, I shall feel that in making a public denial of those charges, I have discharged my duty to myself, and to the people in general.

Yours respectfully, LEVI C. BARBER.

CANDIDATES.

Candidates who are not subscribers to the paper will be charged two dollars in advance for a copy of an approved short form, and at a quiet place for sale at this office. Also Blank Notes neatly printed and for sale at the same place.
