To Your Health!

LIBERTY, IND., Oct. 25, '75.

EDITOR CORNER STONE:—In an ecclesiastical article by "Spectator," which appeared in the Liberty Herald of a recent date the writer labored very hard with two small, unimportant "facts" seldom thought of any more, and as seldom needed. "ONE is, that while fifty persons may be found to censure where there has been a mistake or a failing, scarcely one can be found to approve or praise where there has been rectitude or moral worth;" and the OTHER "fact" is "that most men feel that they know exactly how to do the work of all other persons."

I beg pardon, Mr. Editor, for quoting in full these most wonderful sayings, and my only excuse in doing so is their fine adaptability to the Herald article!

"Spectator," after telling the readers of his plagiarized article a short tale about our "county officers, our teachers, our public servants," and how to "avoid wisely those difficulties," brought in what seemed to be uppermost in his mind, an eulogy on the Liberty Herald!

As a reader of the two Union county papers, I wish to say "my" piece. I am a Republican, and of course want to see that party successful; but at the same time I hold a high opinion of any man or newspaper that has the moral courage to come out on their independence. It is this spirit that makes the Corner Stone rank with newspapers sought, bought and read by the reading, thinking and sensible people. You are pursuing the right course in not allowing every jack-a-nape to dictate; but instead sticking to the truth and fearing nothing. I admire a boldness of spirit, no matter whether in religion, politics or business; and your paper is so full of that self-power, that, although differing from the Herald in politics, every Republican in this community reads it; and the issue-day is looked for with the anxious feeling that a lover would have for the day that is to unite him to his devoted Mary; and on Wednesday mornings there is a perfect rush to the post office for the Corner Stone, and the few cliques who do not take it, lose at least an hour running around trying to borrow. One never hears such a racket over the Herald; and were it not that Mr. Short is seen carrying his little bundle of papers to the post office, you would not know Liberty was blessed with a newspaper; still I have nothing against "J. S." or the way the Herald is conducted; I merely state this "fact" by way of comparison, nothing else.

Rev. Hughes, of Lane Seminary, preached a very interesting sermon in the Presbyterian church at this place last Sabbath.

Geo. Tutty found his horse near Liberty one morning this week, where some tramp had left it after having taken it from the stable and rode it that far.

On Thursday evening there will be a grand ball at Ballinger's hall at Liberty, and if the names of the managers are any go by, we predict a glorious time. Prof. Miller's band will be on hand.

All kinds of patent medicines at Hayden's at Liberty. Go and get a bottle for your rheumatism, for your head-ache, for your liver, for your colds and coughs, or for any other ailment you may be afflicted with.

May the Corner Stone never wander from the independent path it is now following; and may you, Mr. Editor, always live to battle with wrong and uphold the right, in the wish of an admirer.

12th (Election), and never heard from since, and his name was—William Allen.

Before getting your overcoat or cloak, go to Sam Colter's, and examine his large and excellent stock at reduced prices.

Married on Thursday evening Oct. 14th, Mr. Ben Kumler of Millville to Miss Emma Davis.

Fry & Muns are building a new brick grain house, near the depot.

The Literary Society meets next Tuesday evening.

Leflar & Ross will give their Theatre Comique at Davis' Hall to-day.

On Wednesday, evening Oct. 20th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Harry Smith of Bardwell, Ky., to Miss Nora Hughs of Oxford.

At the residence of the bride's parents in Oxford, Mr. W. H. Mitchell to Miss Lizzie Whitworth.

Rev. McGregor is occupying Rev. Vance's pulpit during his absence.

Miss Carrie McKinney is visiting friends at Carthage.

The Fire Company will give a festival and oyster supper in Davis' Hall, November 2nd.

Tom McCollough's livery stable is in full blast. Rigs only a dollar a day. Who can complain.

Such a variety of goods as Colter keeps is astonishing. There is nothing in the market he does not keep, and his low prices, and the polite attention paid to his customers, secure him a large trade.

Additional Locals.

Read Dr. Carter's card in another column.

The pikes are getting their winter gravel, which is as it should be.

You can always get prescriptions filled at Hayden's drug store at Liberty night or day, and filled carefully, too.

Paint up, oil up, and buy your paints and oils of Hayden at Liberty who sells the cheapest in the county.

What better times do you want when you can buy goods of Gibson at Liberty as cheap as you can buy them in.

at New York retail prices. Everybody is cordially invited to call and examine this mammoth stock of goods, whether they wish to buy or not, as the Rumsey's are accommodating gentlemen, and take pleasure in showing their goods; and they very seldom fail in making a sale, as their courteous manner, the goods and cheap prices are things possessed by but few, and admired by the world at large. It will be a rare treat to the ladies to call and examine the assortment of silks, merinos, alpacas, delaines, calicos, muslins, flannels, linens, laces, and, in fact, everything found in any store this side of New York.

Personal Stars From Liberty.

BY SANCHO PANZA.

Court was in session all of last week.

Judge Hanna on the bench last week, disposed of cases with his wonted vigor.

The Jury in Charles Low's case failed to agree.

Hones of Brownsville for stealing a belt was found guilty.

Tom Bennett made the court house ring with his accustomed eloquence last week. Tom is one of the very best lawyers in the country, and deservedly stands at the head of the bar among pleaders.

Emmett Pierson has a baby potato pickled.

That young man's brains are quiet that made love to a married lady.

Dave Pierson is one among the prince of tailors in the U. S., and the very best in this country. He has the best of goods, and the manner in which he fits one with a good suit of clothes at the lowest market prices is astonishing. Meet a man on the street with a good suit of clothes, and he almost invariably says Dave Pierson cut and made them. Sancho wears one of his suits and it fits him well.

The Liberty Herald has lost its independence on the whisky question, so says Zuinglius.

Byram sells lots of goods because he sells low.

The widowers will make a raid in a short time. Look out for some news.

John Macy fills the Treasurer's office with energy, and promises to make one of the best of officers Union county has had in a long time.

Several visitors in town this week, but names unknown.

All other stations on this route have been making advances, and bragging on their agents, but for an accommodating and genial one give us Clay Ham.

Ben Templeton is boarding with Henn Husted.

Peters & Bro. are selling more stoves than any other two firms.

C. W. Stivers and family move to

Thieves Around!

Some time during Monday night the clothing establishment of Holtz & Greenfield was broken into and several suits of clothing stolen.—The exact loss is not known; but it is supposed to be between one and two hundred dollars. Among the goods known to be missing, are several business suits and one fine dress over-coat. A large sack containing potatoes, was emptied and used for storage purposes by the thieves.—They effected their entrance by breaking out two sections of the front door in the vicinity of the bolts, reaching through and slipping them. The brace and bit used were taken from Roll's blacksmith shop, and were left by the thieves upon a box outside the store door. Greenfield says he would not care so much; but they were too unrefined to even ask the price of the goods!
