

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

VOL. II. ONLY $1.00 PER YEAR.

RENSSELAER, IND., FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1893.

No. 52

Hear Our Competitors How!

OF COURSE THEY SAY
IT IS A FAILURE!

What?

Our Celebrated Deering Jointed Steel Binder.

Saves Time. Saves Labor. Does away with the Binder Truck Nuisance. By means of this invention, one man can, in a few minutes' time, reduce the width of the Binder so that it will go through a 9-foot gate, or over any carriage road! He does not need to unhitch his team to make the change.

Call or send for interesting circulars describing this wonderful invention.

Deering Mowers surpass all others in Light Draft, Long Life, Perfect Work. Deering Binder Twine is longest, strongest and best. Do not fail to see this wonderful machine before purchasing.

This week ends the second year of the PILOT. A large number of subscriptions expire with the current issue. A prompt renewal will be appreciated by the management.

There is reason to fear that when the members of the sporting fraternity, hearing of the numerous races to be seen on Midway Plaisance, go thither and find that there is neither a track nor a bookies' stand, they will be deeply pained.

Yes, "music boxes," "broken down horses," farm implements, in fact anything you may have to trade will be taken in part payment for lots in the celebrated "New Oklahoma" addition to the town of Rensselaer.

A. LEOPOLD.

The Columbia addition is being built up rapidly and the lots are going fast. Don't wait until all are taken, but call upon any agent of the company and secure lots for building purposes at low prices. Free excursions to the grounds daily.

A New York paper says the coat-tail flirtation is the latest. A wrinkled coat-tail, bearing dusty toe marks means, "I have spoken to your father." A torn coat tail disclosing the jagged red flannel means: "I called, but met the dog."

For big bargains in town lots call at A. Leopold's. He will sell you lots in his addition which are larger and better situated to the school house than any other you could select. Call soon and find out terms and prices.

The Continental Ins. Co. for this section is represented by Wils Porter, agent. They insure all kinds of farm property, buildings, live stock, etc., against damage by fire, lightning, tornadoes, wind storms, etc. Let Wils do your insuring.

Have you noticed that every bank that has failed so far will pay its depositors dollar for dollar?

Well, it's a fact—banks always make such statements early after the suspension; "but, oh; what a difference" in the final settlement.—Attica Democrat.

Uncle Isaac Sayler, although he has reached the ripe old age of 84 years, has already this spring felled the trees and split 600 rails and cut 15 cords of wood. He is also a minister and varies the monotony of rail splitting occasionally by preaching a sermon.

The Monon gave half rates to the dedication of the Indiana building at the World's Fair, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. In consequence our town has been almost depopulated the greater part of the week. In consequence no news is to be found.

The lots in the Columbia addition are situated more conveniently than any other lots in town, are high and well drained and surrounded by shade trees. Prices are lower than other lots and payments easy.

The many friends of Geo. H. Healey will doubt be surprised to learn that he was married Wednesday. His bride is the daughter of a Christian preacher at Tipton, Mo. George is located at Sedalia, Mo.

Call in at Warner & Shead's and buy your groceries. All their goods are new and clean and show off to advantage in their well lighted room. Goods delivered free to any residence in town.

A new hotel has just been opened at Cedar Lake by a brother of C. G. Sigler, of this place. It is on the opposite side of the lake from the railroad track, has all modern improvements, and is an ideal summer resort.

Philip McCanley, the fourth person tried at Lafayette on the charge of assault and battery with intent to murder Geo. P. Rudolph, the ex-priest, was found guilty of assault, and fined $50. More trials are to follow.

John Thompson and daughter, of Burton, Kansas, are visiting at the Nowels House. Mr. Thompson is the father of Mrs. Wile Duvall, and was a resident of Rensselaer about twenty years ago, being in business here at that time.

Columbia addition is right in the center of the city, newer additions being laid out on the north and south. Being at the head of the drainage system the lots are thoroughly drained. Purchasers will thus save the expense of drainage, which would not be done by purchasing in other additions.

Another change took place in the running time on the Monon last Sunday. Trains going south which stop at Rensselaer pass here at 10:49 a. m., daily except Sunday; 11:33 a. m., 6:21 p. m. and 10:37 p. m. daily. Going north they pass at 5:40 a. m., 7:37 a. m., 2:57 p. m., daily, and 7:55 p. m., daily, except Sunday.

The canning factory machinery was put in motion last Thursday just to see how it had stood the winter. Everything moved off as smoothly as if it had only been shut down 24 hours. The establishment will enter the present canning season in good trim and, owing to the favorable season, about a month earlier than last year.—Monticello Herald.

The town is naturally growing toward the depot and additions in South America are not wanted. Lots can be secured in the Columbia addition at prices lower than in any other and on easy payments. All the lots are located within easy access to the depot and school houses, and are at the head of the drainage system, thereby exempting purchasers from any further taxation for drainage purposes.

Ex-Governor Chase, John W. Paris and L. S. Walden, officials of the defunct Greentown bank, are now under arrest for embezzlement and false pretense in receiving money from Reed and Scott, dry goods merchants. On Saturday Ex-Governor Chase returned from a lecturing tour. Many eminent attorneys have offered to defend him. The trial is not expected to come off until October.

The abandoned race course at Roby is again in use, but this time for a different purpose than horse racing. An association calling itself the Columbian Athletic Club has leased the grounds and erected an amphitheatre in which to give prize fights. It was opened Monday night, two fights taking place. The principals in one of the fights were arrested on the charge of prize fighting and taken to Crown Point. If not prevented by the law the association intends to give many fights during the summer.

An effort was made to get up a general celebration for the Fourth of July but failed. It seemed to be the sentiment of a large number of business men that owing to the World's Fair it would not be advisable to celebrate this year, so the matter was allowed to drop. The Prohibitionists will have a mass meeting in the public square on that day, and will be addressed by Hon. S. M. Sayler, of Huntington, Ind. The college students and Indians will also celebrate the day by giving a picnic down the river, at which games and other amusements will be the order of the day. Next year look out for a rousing celebration in Rensselaer, at which everybody will be invited.

According to an exchange there happened an amusing incident in a little town in southern Illinois, located in a section where the farmers' alliance is strong, and a lodge of that organization exists in the town. They meet Monday nights. There is only one lodge room in the town and Tuesday night it is occupied by the local branch of the Knights of Pythias. The president of one of the county sub-alliances came to town one Tuesday. He had visited the town alliances, and when he saw lights in the lodge room concluded that he would go over and visit the brethren. He gave the proper knock at the outer door. The wicket was raised and an ear was placed at it to hear the pass word, "I plow, I hoe, I spade," whispered the alliance man. The ear was replaced by an eye, and it in turn gave place to a mouth and it said in reply: "The h—l you do!" and the wicket dropped with a bang. The indignant farmer shortly afterward met a "brother" to whom he told his tale of woe. "Why, dad blamo it," was the sharp comment of the brother, "them's Knights of Pythias, and you've given 'em our pass word." Dogged if I haint," was the response, "but (brightening up) durn 'em, I've got theirs!"

Hemphill & Honan are selling out to quit business. Now is the time to get bargains for cash.
