Goodland and Remington were taken in on the "Skokum" oil trick last week, the former to the extent of about $60 and the latter about $30.

The lovers of the perfect horse should not fail to see Cook & Whitby's superb collection which will be in Rensselaer Friday, September 15th.

When you see Press Roberts in town with a load of melons, you may know that the season has set in in earnest. Tuesday he had a big load in town.

At Mulberry a thief stole all a woman's chickens, but in so doing lost his purse containing $285 in cash. The purse will probably remain unclaimed.

In Cook & Whitby's Menagerie are twenty-seven lions alone, ranging from cubs a month old to the full-grown animal. See them in Rensselaer Sept. 15th.

Claude Sigler carries one of his hands in a sling, the result of two badly mashed fingers, which he got in trying to couple two cars.

John S. Williams and family visited relatives in this vicinity over Sunday. They were on their way from Redlands, Cal., to their future home in Illinois.

Cook & Whitby's 3-ring circus will be in the United States this year. This show is the foremost show of all this world and will be here Friday, Sept. 15th.

The sheriffs of Jasper and White counties were in the city last night. They witnessed the exhibition of "manly art" at Roby last night.—Hammond News.

Guernsey cattle and grades for sale. One cow, 2 heifers, 4 graded heifers, 2 young cows, 2 bulls and 40 head of young sheep.—D. L. TURNER, 4 miles north of Remington. 9-4t

The talk about continuing the World's Fair another year is pronounced by Director-General Davis "nonsense of the worst kind." He says it is an impossibility.

Ira W. Yeoman, with his brother S. B. Yeoman, of Nebraska, was in town this week. He reports the Remington fair, outside of the speed ring, to be rather "thin."

Jesse Porter, the young son of Ike Porter, fell from a wagon last Friday and broke his right arm a little above the wrist. Under the care of Dr. Alter he is getting along nicely.

An exchange speaks of a man who withdrew his little $300 from the bank and invested it in postal money orders, payable to himself. Busting banks and burglars scare him not.

C. B. Holley, of Beaver City, Ind., was in town Monday. He reports the People's Party in Newton county four times stronger than it was last fall, and still growing in strength.

An exchange says that a fellow who can't spare $1.00 a year for a newspaper sent 75 two-cent stamps to a down-east Yankee to know how to raise beets. He got an answer to "take hold of the tops and pull."

Dr. I. B. Washburn, the optician, handles the celebrated Trolley's Kohinor eye glasses, the best made. Attention is called to the ad, "See Again as in Youth," in another place in this paper.

There are some chop fallen railroad officials because the Monon has secured the transportation of all the Chicago Grand Army posts but one to the Indianapolis encampment. The Monon seems to be in it for passenger traffic.

Cook & Whitby's circus parade is nearly a mile long—a succession of blooded horses, open dens and tableaux, blazing with silver and gold—the sight of a lifetime, and can be seen on all the principal streets of Rensselaer, Friday, Sept. 15th.

You can obtain the best photos at Porter's Studio, at Williams' old stand. We employ only the very best workmen. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Respectfully,
PORTER'S STUDIO.

The Woman's Relief Corps will give an entertainment in the Court house yard Friday evening, September 1st. Refreshments of ice cream and cake. The event of the evening will be a public presentation of a beautiful flag and banner to the G. A. R. Everybody is invited.

For the occasion of the 27th national encampment, G. A. R. at Indianapolis, September, 1893, the Monon Route will sell excursion tickets from Rensselaer at $2.20 for the round trip, Sept. 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th, good returning until Sept. 16th.

For the occasion of the Indiana state fair, to be held at Indianapolis the week commencing September 18th, excursion tickets will be sold at one fair for the round trip Sept. 18th to 22nd inclusive, good returning until Sept. 23.

On Tuesday night the search lights in operation at the World's Fair were plainly visible at this place and were viewed by quite a number of interested spectators. Wonderful are the inventions of the nineteenth century.—Lowell Tribune.

The Brookston Reporter says: "There has been nothing yet accomplished by way of settlement of the bank here between depositors and bankers, though negotiations have been on foot. What there is in it for depositors the future only can reveal."

Jos. G. Hunt, father of Recorder Hunt, has moved from his farm in Gillam township to Medaryville. The latter took the opportunity of visiting his parents last week and also assisted in their removal. Mrs. Hunt's health is improving.

Stephen B. Yeoman and family, of Elwood, Neb., are visiting relatives in Rensselaer and Remington. Mr. Yeoman was a resident of Rensselaer some twenty years ago. He is now a strong People's Party man and reports the party to be very strong in his state.

The clearance sale at Leopold's is a complete success. Every one that takes advantage of the great bargains now offered go away satisfied that never before were such low prices offered elsewhere, in this or neighboring towns, as at Leopold's great clearance sale.

A Kendallville woman took what she thought was a sack to a grocery store for some flour. The clerk poured in a scoopful and it ran out. He examined the "sack" and found it had two outlets, each trimmed with lace. He fainted—and the woman disappeared.

School of Telegraphy at LaFayette, Ind., under the supervision of Walter E. Doolittle, manager of the Postal Telegraph Co., will open Sept. 5th. Graduates will be assisted in securing positions. For particulars address J. Cadden at LaFayette Business College.

It is said that the wreckers of the Indianapolis National Bank will be made an example of and will be prosecuted by the government. The affairs of the bank showed gross mismanagement. Large sums of money were loaned to President Haughey's relatives and friends on no security whatever.

FOR SALE CHEAP:—A complete outfit of household furniture, consisting of beds, bedding, carpets, tables, chairs etc. These goods will be on sale at the L. Hopkins' corner store near the bridge. Louis F. Hopkins, owner. Call on Alf W. Hopkins, agent, upstairs in Leopold Block. 10-3t

The G. A. R. post at Delphi has served notice on saloon keepers forbidding them to furnish liquor to certain soldiers who are in the habit of drinking up their pension money. A similar action at this place would be a step in the right direction and would save much money for the families of certain pensioners.

A dispatch from Washington to the Chicago Herald of Thursday, stated that Hon. D. H. Patton, of Remington, was a candidate for register of one of the three land offices in the Cherokee strip, soon to be opened up, and that he would probably receive the appointment. We understand that Mr. Patton is now in Washington.—Remington Press.

A GREAT CHANCE!

A. LEOPOLD is now in it. In order to save 50 cents on every dollar's worth of goods you should buy of him. It will pay you to call at his store, price the goods and convince yourselves. The goods must all be sold in order to make an important change in his business. Don't be led astray by his competitors, but come right along, purchase and save your hard earned dollars.

Yours Truly,

A. LEOPOLD.

NOTICE.

On and after September 1, 1893, we will sell for cash only.

LA RUE BROS.

An exchange says that dancing makes girls' feet large, ice cream produces freckles, swinging on the front gate produces rheumatism, chewing gum distorts the mouth, playing the piano destroys the beauty of the hand and washing dishes causes chaps to come—to propose. There you have it, girls, take your choice.

Charles G. Yelm, the traveling man of Lafayette, who claimed to have fallen under a freight train at Rensselaer recently and to have been badly hurt, now claims to have fallen into great luck. Last week at Davenport, Iowa, he says that he received an 1804 dollar in change from a hotel clerk, and shortly afterwards sold it to a Chicago bank for $855.

Last Sunday five or six boys were caught by Dave Leatherman in his water melon patch. Dave fired two shots from his old shot gun which he says he can stand in his back door and shoot to the lower end of the patch and make a boy drop a melon every time. Dave was in his patch before the boys were. He made the boy drop the melon but did not drop the boy.

A spark from a threshing machine engine set fire to the separator and grain on the farm of James H. Culp, in Hanging Grove township, Monday. The separator was new and was the property of Henry Rowels, of Pulaski county. It was entirely consumed, together with considerable straw and grain. Those present had a hard time to save the residence and barn from the flames.

They have some queer names for towns out west. In the "folder" of the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cincinnati Railway appears, among others, this notice: "The only line running through, without change of cars, to Jerusalem, Bethel, Ozark, Jacobsburg, and in full view of the Plains of Abraham, near Cumberland. Close connection made at Jerusalem with stage for Antioch."

The heirs of Reuben P. Ryan, whose death was mentioned in the PILOT at the time, have brought suit against the county for $10,000. He met his death by falling from a load of hay which slipped from a high and dangerous grade during the icy period last winter. They stand a good chance of getting a verdict in their favor, as the bridge was known to have been unsafe and dangerous.

The Hamilton-Marvin company is playing to delighted audiences at the Opera House this week. The company this year shows some strength over that of last year. To-night they play the great emotional drama in five acts, entitled "East Lynne." To-morrow afternoon they will give a matinee, the admission of which will be only 10 cents. The week's engagement will close Saturday evening with the comedy drama, "The Outcast."

The Phelps, Dodge & Palmer boot and shoe department of the northern prison closed down last Monday for an indefinite period on account of dullness in trade. The Chicago houses of this firm are now closed down, and as goods are shipped here from those houses in a partial state of completion to be finished by labor at the prison here, these supplies have been cut off, which leaves nothing to do in the department. The firm, which has about 120 men under contract, has to carry them at their own expense, until operations are resumed again. Meantime the men will be employed about the prison, so far as they can be used. It is not expected that they will be idle more than a week.—Mich. City Dispatch.

Hemphill & Honan are selling out to quit business. Now is the time to get bargains for cash.
