For Men.

A lecture on "Atheism, or the Fool's Creed," at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath evening by Evangelist Keeley.

Miss Mary Meyer is in Chicago this week studying styles, and will bring home a full line of fall and winter millinery.

If you can afford to be annoyed by sick headache and constipation, don't use DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these little pills will cure them.

A. F. LONG & CO.

Dr. I. B. Washburn, the optician, handles the celebrated Trolley's Kohinoor eye glasses, the best made. Attention is called to the ad, "See Again as in Youth," in another place in this paper.

Those who saw the Odd Fellows' parade in Chicago last Monday, say that Rensselaer had the best showing of members of any other lodge in the state. This certainly speaks well for the Iroquois.

While ditching wide water on the Gaff ranch recently, Thomas Bolly unearthed the skeleton of what evidently must have been a buffalo, as the skull shows the characteristics peculiar to that animal.—Morocco Courier.

On the 10th inst. the barn of Guy Barnard, living near Fowler, was entered, and a fine Hambletonian mare, a buggy and two sets of harness were stolen. $75 reward has been offered for their return.—Kentland Democrat.

A great many persons who went to Chicago last Monday secured an accident policy in the Travelers' Insurance Company, which is the best in the world. You can buy a ticket any day at Ferguson's insurance office for only 25 cents.

Lewis Hamilton and Miss Mary Robinson, daughter of Geo. R. Robinson, of Hanging Grove township, were married at the bride's home, on last Sunday evening, at eight o'clock. Rev. B. F. Ferguson, of this place, officiated.

On Thursday night of last week fire broke out in the dry grass that covered "Sunnyside," and for a while quite a serious conflagration was apparent, and it attracted a large crowd of people to the scene. No damage was done except that of burning the grass. Sparks from a passing locomotive caused the fire.

It has been often said, that what a boy can't think of and attempt to do, there is no use for anyone else to try it. Ever since the circus was here almost every stable loft in town has been converted into a mimic arena. Last Saturday afternoon witnessed the parades of two rival companies upon our streets.

The five months old child of John Hodshire was buried at Weston cemetery last Tuesday afternoon. The funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. B. F. Ferguson.

Send in your orders for job work to the PILOT. We have new type of all kinds and carry a first class stock of stationary and can do your work in a satisfactory manner at lowest prices.

The acreage of wheat in this county for next year will no doubt fall short of that of previous years. The recent rains came too late to increase the amount sown to any extent.

Reports from different parts of the country say that the strawberry vines have all been killed by the recent drouth, which will certainly result in a failure of that crop next year.

"Baz" Timmons, a former resident of Remington, was killed in a railroad accident last week near Wheeling, W. Va., and the body was received at Remington for burial last Friday. He was twenty-two years old.

Mrs. Lecklider has just returned from Chicago, and no doubt has the largest and best line of fall and winter millinery goods were shown in this market and her prices are remarkably low. You should see her before buying elsewhere.

The Rush Continues.

The first week a grand success. Everybody is taking advantage of the FENDIG ASSIGNEE SALE

You Can't Afford to Miss It.

Every article in the house a leader. People from adjoining counties have heard of it and are coming.
