ELLIS & MURRAY.

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

Sing a Song.

Detroit Tribune.
Sing a song of pestilence,
A fellow full of rascality,
Four and twenty serpents
Danced before his eye.
When his eye was opened
He shouted for his life,
Was it not a pretty clump
To get him out of his skin?
His hat was in the parlor
Underneath a chair.
His boots were in the hallway,
His coat was on the stairs,
His trousers were in the kitchen,
His collar on the shelf.
But he hadn't any notion
Where he was himself.
When the morn was breaking
Someone heard him call,
It's head was in the ice-box,
And that was best of all.

JAY W. WILLIAMS,

Col. Hoyne, Dean of Notre Dame university, near South Bend, was here Wednesday and Thursday. Col. Hoyne is the gentleman who ran for Congress in this district in 1888 and was defeated by Hon. B. F. Shively. He is evidently making an inspection of the fences he built in 1888, to determine how much re-pairing they will require to make them useful in 1894, as it is quietly understood he will be the Republican candidate next year. Col. Hoyne is a very pleasant gentleman, a good mixer and an excellent organizer; but with the improved business and financial conditions already well under way and certain to continue rapidly after the Wilson bill becomes a law, no Republican can be successful in this district; and it seems a pity to slaughter so good a man as Col. Hoyne the second time.—Starke County Democrat.

The persistent cough which usually follows an attack of the grip can be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. W. A. McGuire, of McKay, O., says: "La grippe left me with a severe cough. After using several different medicines without relief, I tried Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which effected a permanent cure. I have also found it to be without an equal for children, when troubled with colds or croup. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

A dwelling house in the east part of town, occupied by a family named Basset, caught fire from a too free use of gasoline, last Monday, which called out the fire department. The blaze was extinguished before any damage was done. It is reported that one of the children attempted to start a fire in a cook stove with gasoline.

George K. Holmes, special agent of the United States census, and consequently well informed in the matter, holds that the total wealth of the people of the United States is about $60,000,000,000, or in other words, the average, per head, is between $900 and $1,000.

There was an oyster supper at the residence of Carrie Carr's, last Friday night. Several guests were present and the evening was very pleasantly spent. Good music was one of the features of the evening.
