

A SUCCESS.

McCoy's Milk Church One of Our Solid Enterprises.

On last Saturday the Milk Church convened at the court house. The court room was comfortably filled and Uncle Alf. was consequently happy. After the meeting was called to order, Mr. McCoy spoke of the splendid foundation for dairy interests in this county, and that the future promises bright prospects for those interested. After his remarks, a choir, arranged especially for this occasion, proceeded to render some very appropriate songs. The first song was, "Jasper County in Line." The choir was assisted by an orchestra, and the music rendered was excellent. We might mention here that the songs sang were composed by our own local talent. Mr. McCoy has repeatedly tried to find some dairy songs but had so far failed. But Jasper county talent came to the rescue and furnished what was needed. Mr. McCoy then gave those present a good talk in his usual free way, about the Milk Church, its interest and idea. Another song was then sang by the choir, entitled, "The Old Fashioned Churn Dasher." Mr. L. Strong, manager of the Rensselaer Creamery then addressed the audience. The substance of his remarks were as follows: "There are not many towns the size of Rensselaer that can boast of eight churches. And there is always room for another. The ninth church is the Milk Church. Anybody can belong to this. In all other churches a person can only belong to one of them, but not so with the Milk Church; it takes in all. Another thing, the members of the Milk Church compare favorably with those of the other churches. On an average during the year, each cow's milk brought to the creamery has netted about 80 cents per 100 pounds. The entire lot of milk producing cows, whose milk is brought to the creamery, has brought their owners $36 per head during the year."

This speech was followed by another song—"Come Join the Milk Church." It was here that Uncle Alf.'s enthusiasm boiled over, much to the enjoyment of the audience. After the song three cheers for the Milk Church was proposed and given, and then the audience was dismissed.

List of Patients.

Granted to Indiana inventors this week. Reported by C. A. Snow & Co., solicitors of American and foreign patents, opposite U. S. Patent Office, Washington, D. C.

B. Deardorff, Mooreland, corn planter; J. B. Haberle, South Bend, sprinkler, A. Heim, Brownsville, machine for attaching address labels; W. S. Jewell, Indianapolis, time and dating stamp; C. E. Johnson, Mount Jackson, ribbon reversing mechanism for type-writing machines; C. J. Kelley, Terre Haute, piston rod packing; J. Mandel and J. P. Henderson, Logansport, staple inserting and clinching machine; V. Parks, Fort Wayne, pavement; I. Springer and H. Evison, Indianapolis, shipping basket; J. J. Wood, Fort Wayne, alternating current dynamo.

GUARANTEED CURE.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition: If you are afflicted with a cough, cold or any lung, throat or chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottle free at F. B. Meyer's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Here's Aces.

The Cincinnati Enquirer now print their weekly issue in two sections, each section being an 8-page, 8-column, extra large paper. The first section is mailed to catch the early morning trains on each Tuesday, and the second section on each Friday, thus giving their patrons what is equal to 104 large papers a year, all for one dollar.

There are but few papers in the country that can rake open the festering cussedness of old party schemers equal to the Chicago Express. If you are not a subscriber send for a sample copy then let us order it for you. Taken with the PILOT it will cost you $1.40 for both.

A R. C. Y.

RENSSELAER, Jan. 13, '94.

ED. PILOT: I see in your last week's issue an article headed, "An Open Letter," in which the writer deals principally with the subjects to be discussed at the Farmers' Institute. The writer signs himself "A Farmer." Now, "Farmer" writes well, and makes, probably, some good points, were he making a political speech. But, farmers, allow us to say to you that the rules of these institutes will not allow political discussions in any way, from either party standpoint. The objects of these meetings are to exchange ideas upon the different methods of farming and stock raising, that the farmer might be enabled to get the best results for his labor. If legislation is wrong, there are generally political meetings or gatherings at which places these questions can be discussed, free from farm talk. So now let us distinctly understand that no politics will be tolerated in the institute. We want everybody to come and take part in this work, but to leave their politics at home. D. H. YEOMAN, C. D. NOWELS, Pres.

The Swelling Tide of Destruction.

The people should be reminded, also, that the consumption of beer (according to the last government report) has increased from two millions of barrels, in 1862, to thirty-five millions of barrels in 1893,—this being an increase of over seventeen times during the past thirty years, while the population has only doubled,—and now averages three barrels of beer annually to every voter or family in the United States, while the consumption of other intoxicating liquor has also largely increased. It is significant that while this increase has been going on the arrests for crime have also increased fivefold during the same period.—From "Our Nation's Peril," in Demorest's Family Magazine for February.

Report of the W. R. C.

The Rensselaer Woman's Relief Corps makes the following report of their work for the year ending Dec. 31, 1893:

For relief, first quarter, $50.25; second quarter, $24.00; third quarter, $9.50; fourth quarter, $15.35. Relief other than money $40.00. Total $130.65. We are sometimes asked how we raise our money. We get it by giving entertainments and suppers, and by voluntary contributions of our members, and occasionally we receive donations from persons not members of either Post or Corps. These are most thankfully received and faithfully expended. JULIA A. HEALEY, Cor. Sec'y.

Deal Gently With the Earring

We have just received a copy of the greatest home song ever published in this country. The privilege of publishing in America alone cost $2,000 in gold. It is a song that will reach the heart of every christian in the land. The melody is perfectly beautiful; can be played on piano or organ. Price 40 cents per copy; can be obtained by addressing the publisher, F. W. Helmick, 285 Sixth Avenue, New York.

BUCKLIN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by F. B. Meyer.

Notice.

The undersigned will not feed teams after Jan. 10th, 1894, for less than 50 cents; hay teams, 25 cents; single horse, 15 cents.

C. HILDEBRAND. J. F. ILIFF & SONS. ROBERT RANDLE.

Corn for Sale.

I have 400 bushels of corn on my farm for sale. I want to sell it altogether. For prices call at my office at Rensselaer Bank. Rensselaer Ind.

C. D. NOWELS.

Turkeys For Sale.

I have twenty-five full blood Bronze gobblers for sale, at my residence three and one-half miles west of Rensselaer. Call and see them.

A. C. PANCOAST.

The Chicago Express is one of the papers you need during this coming year.

Don't forget the Farmer's Institute at Rensselaer, next week.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE.

Official Program for the Jasper County Farmer's Institute, January 25th and 26th.

THURSDAY MORNING, JAN. 25.

10 A. M.—Invocation by Rev. R. D. Utter.

MUSIC.

Address by Pres. D. H. Yeoman.

10:30 A. M.—"The Leak on a Farm, and how to Stop it." D. W. Voyles, Crandall, Ind.

11:30 A. M.—Appointing Committees by President.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1:00 P. M.—Music.

"Dairying as a Branch of Mixed Farming." D. W. Voyles.

Discussion—A. McCoy, L. Strong, R. B. Porter and others.

2:30 P. M.—"The Advantage of Tenantry over Hired Labor" by D. W. Voyles.

Discussion—J. M. Wasson, S. T. Comer, W. E. Moore, John Randle, O. P. Tabor.

7:30 P. M.—Music.

"Our Agricultural College." Illustrated by Magic Lantern, by Prof C. S. Plumb, of Purdue.

FRIDAY MORNING JAN. 26.

10:00 A. M.—Invocation, by Rev. B. F. Ferguson.

MUSIC.

"The Past, Present and Future of Agriculture in Indiana" by J. A. Mount, Shanondale, Montgomery County, Ind.

Discussion—Jared Benjamin, G. C. Thompson and Augustus Stimpson.

11:00 A. M.—"Does it Pay to Raise the Imported Breeds of Poultry."—D. A. Stoner.

Discussion.—J. H. Jessen, Mrs. Jacob Wilcox, Mrs. Mary E. Grow and Mrs. Frank Parker.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1:00 P. M.—Music.

Reports of Committees.

1:30 P. M.—"The Corn Crop, how to Grow and how to Utilize it."—J. A. Mount.

Discussion.—James Cowden, John English, John Martindale, F. W. Bedford, Luther Ponsler, and others.

2:30 P. M.—Election of Officers.

Adjournment.

Every Farmer should be present.

D. H. YEOMAN, Pres.

C. D. NOWELS, Sec'y.

Cupid's Capers.

County Clerk Coover has been doing a land office business, since our last report, in the way of marriage licenses. The following have been issued since our last publication day:

Owen Jester Conrad to Jessie Bright McIntire.

William Hallier to Emma C. Schatzley.

Willie F. Granger to Lucy F. Dalton.

John W. Harris to Elizabeth Sommers.

Benjamin F. Hardesty to Katie L. Prevo.

Lewis Worland to Rebecca A. Fisher.

Mahlon P. Hinds to Ella May Wolff.

Our Honor Roll.

The following persons have our thanks for the amounts following their names, subscription to the PILOT, since our last issue:

Thompson & Bro., Rensselaer..... $1.00

J. A. Mount, Rensselaer..... 50

J. P. Clegg, Rensselaer..... 50

D. F. Israel, F. Sherard, Rensselaer..... 50

C. W. Israel, Rensselaer..... 50

G. W. Potsel, Medaryville..... 100

Peter Johnson, Marion..... 50

John Johnson, Marion..... 50

John Shaver, Blackford..... 50

E. L. Hartley, Mt. Ayr..... 50

M. O. Gant, Kewanee..... 50

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

Miss Gertrude Welsh, Brookston..... 25

Jacob Heil, Stoutsburg..... 10

A. Bates, Lee..... 25

Sylvia Popp, Rensselaer..... 100

The performance given by the Kickapoo Medicine Co. on last Wednesday evening, was one of the best since their stay here. They were ably assisted by Gus Phillips, who is a bright young actor, and has a great future before him. We also mention Jas. Cunningham, the all-around man, who has impressed himself favorably with all those who have been attending the performance. He is an actor of merit, and besides is a perfect gentleman. One of the features of the evening was the giving away of a handsome piece of silverware to some person who was lucky enough to be present that evening. It was awarded to Joseph Brook, of Mt. Ayr. The apple eating contest was between six small boys was very amusing. The company gives another large bill on Saturday night, and also a matinee on Saturday afternoon. A handsome rocking chair will be given away on Saturday night, and a beautiful gold ring on Saturday afternoon.

C. D. NOWELS.

Notice.

The undersigned will not feed teams after Jan. 10th, 1894, for less than 50 cents; hay teams, 25 cents; single horse, 15 cents.

C. HILDEBRAND. J. F. ILIFF & SONS. ROBERT RANDLE.

Corn for Sale.

I have 400 bushels of corn on my farm for sale. I want to sell it altogether. For prices call at my office at Rensselaer Bank. Rensselaer Ind.

C. D. NOWELS.

Turkeys For Sale.

I have twenty-five full blood Bronze gobblers for sale, at my residence three and one-half miles west of Rensselaer. Call and see them.

A. C. PANCOAST.

The Chicago Express is one of the papers you need during this coming year.

Don't forget the Farmer's Institute at Rensselaer, next week.

BOUND FOR JASPER.

Rev. Peter Hinds Turns His Footsteps Toward the Land of Milk and Honey.

WINFIELD, KANS., Jan. 10, 1894.

After having a couple of chills followed by that prostrating fever, we concluded that further north would be healthier, therefore we left McKinley, Jan. 3rd, taking north from Guthrie, up the Santa Fe R. R., we came to Mulhall, found our old friend, Alfred Robins. After dinner, coming to Orlando, passing one mile north of town, we came to the lately opened strip. Here are to be seen little box houses in every direction. This part of the strip is all prairie and a fine body of land. Coming to Perry, a town of four thousand inhabitants, all built since the opening of the strip, was to be seen dozens of carcasses of dead ponies, killed by being run so far the day of the opening. All along the way through the strip, here and there, was carcasses of ponies. We next came to the Otoe Indian agency, being Sunday morning we had the pleasure of seeing the Indian children march from the boarding house to the church. The girls was all dressed in blue flannel and the boys had on navy blue suits. On leaving the Indian school ground, we came to a little stream called Red Rock. Here for the first time in our lives we saw a sign reading "U. S. Toll Bridge." On approaching it we ask if the United States owned the stream, which was perfectly dry, but bridged on account of its steep rocky banks and we were informed the United States owned a piece of land four miles long and three miles wide, on which the Otoe and Missouri Indians were to be allowed to camp, while their children were being schooled. Here was several hundred tents, tepees as the Indians calls them. We next came to the Poney school and on to the Shelloca school. All these schools have fine buildings, costing thousands of dollars.

We next crossed the line into Kansas to Arkansas City and Winfield, stopping two days with our old friend, Sig. Copple, who lived twenty-five years in Indiana, and has spent forty years hunting a better country than that, but says he has failed to find it. I will say to inquiries that I have received, if a man can't make a living in Jasper Co. Ind., no use to try it elsewhere. People are dying here by the dozen of grip and pneumonia fever. We found all our old friends at Winfield sick. There has been no rain here for eight months and wheat and stock are favoring badly. We are camped to-night, Jan. 12th, in Butler Co., Kans., where we drive five and six hours between houses. Weather fine. Roads dusty.

REV. PETER HINDS.

Sale.

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY.

The successor of the "Unabridged."

Ten years were spent revising, 100 editors employed, and over $300,000 expended before the first copy was printed.