FROM WASHINGTON.

An Interesting Batch of News
From the Capitol.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, April 6, '94.

The attempt is to be made to add a free coinage amendment to the tariff bill, the House having failed to pass the Bland bill over the veto, but it is not yet certain that it will be supported by all of the Silver Senators. Notice was given by Senator Quay when the tariff bill was first reported to the House of his intention to offer a free coinage amendment to it when it got before the Senate, and since the debate began in the Senate, Senator Allen, of Nebraska, has introduced an amendment which lowers the duties in the tariff bill and provides for the free coinage of silver.

Nothing startling was expected and nothing of that nature has happened during the first week of the tariff debate. The speeches are just what were expected; the same old stories on both sides that most intelligent men are familiar with. It has, however, already been made apparent that the contest is to be a long and stubbornly contested one and that the policy of the opponents of the bill will be to prolong the debate indefinitely. The fate of the bill is really in the hands of the eight or ten democrats who are opposed to certain sections of it.

A bill allowing greenbacks to be taxed by States and municipalities is to be favorably reported to the House. At present greenbacks are exempt from taxation while coin is taxed, and it is stated by those who favor the bill that although there are only $346,000,000 of greenbacks in circulation banks and individuals by trickery claim and obtain exemption every year on $3,000,000,000 of greenbacks.

The opposition to the new Chinese treaty, which now has the right of way in executive sessions of the Senate, is much weaker than it was expected to be, and its ratification without amendment is generally believed to be certain, although Senator Perkins, of California, will endeavor to secure some slight amendment. The announcement that Senator White, and Representative Geary, of California, author of the Geary anti-Chinese law, favored ratification has done much to prevent a fright being made on the treaty.

The populists are pointing to the returns from the late elections, as an indication that the next Presidential contest in the west and south will be between republicans and populists, instead of republicans and democrats. It is reported that a number of southern democratic members of the House will ask for a renomination and election as populists, and not as democrats.

Representative McLaurin, of South Carolina, who is trying to work up a sentiment among southern and western Congressmen in favor of signing a call for a convention to be held at some western or southern point for the purpose of forming a silver party, believes that the movement proposed by him will succeed. Mr. McLaurin is not a crank, but is a well-educated and very bright young lawyer—he hasn't celebrated his thirty-fourth birthday yet. He is now serving his second term in Congress and has been a member of the state legislature and Attorney General of South Carolina. He has always been a straight democrat, and his proposal to cut loose from that party is being much talked about. He says the proposed movement has not reached a stage of certainty and that no announcement will be made until it does. This indicates that he will give it up unless convinced that it will get support enough to succeed.

Senator Morgan's bill for the reorganization of the State department, which was introduced this week, has been favorably commented upon in all quarters. It will neither increase the employees nor the expenditures of the department, but it will, if it becomes a law, make that department what similar departments are under every great government in the world—a school of diplomacy. With the exception of the Secretary, First Assistant Secretary, Ambassadors and ministers, all employees of the department would be placed upon a permanent basis and their promotion made entirely dependent upon their merits. No man who has travelled extensively has any doubt about the benefits to be derived from permanent consuls and consular agents abroad, and this bill would seem to be a step in the right direction; but it would be still better to strike out all the exceptions it makes, except the Secretary.

It is stated that the requests made by the Latin-American government that the United States join then in a monetary conference will be refused by President Cleveland on the ground that such a conference can accomplish nothing until England and Holland have shown a disposition to change their attitude towards silver. The refusal is to be softened by a suggestion that the condition will probably be more favorably a year hence for hold an American monetary conference. Meanwhile Representative Cominette, of California, has introduced a joint resolution directing the President to invite the nations of the western hemisphere to a financial conference, with a view to securing the adoption of a silver standard by them.

Say, farmers, G. M. Wilcox, at Surrey, is selling galvanized two point hog wire at $2.50 per 100 pounds.

THE Breckinridge—Pollard trial is showing a prominent, beastly congressman up in his true character. Breckinridge is perhaps no worse than a hundred of his fellow congressmen, but he has had the misfortune of being caught and publicly exposed. Our own state has one or two representatives that are but little, if any, better than Breckinridge. Men who frequent gambling dens, fire their brains with intoxicating drink and associate with thieves and harlots cannot be expected to make wise, wholesome laws for the people. To-day an hundred of our national law-makers are guilty of one or other, and some of all of these crimes. We, the people, really have no right to complain of inebriate, dissolute and dishonest congressmen, for we have given them their places.

WHEN you sell a good horse for forty dollars and fat cattle at two cents a pound, it would seem a little hard if you didn't happen to think that the "character of your money was not questioned."

THE people asked for fish and they gave them serpents. They asked for money and King Grover gave them bonds. Who runs this government? Wall street.

FROM present indications the Democratic squad will be relieved in 1894, and the Republican gang will shovel dirt for Wall street two years.

CLEVELAND is as good a silver man as I am. Dan Voorhees, in 1892, you told the truth about Cleveland, but lied on yourself.

DAN VOORHEES is a Greenbacker that established the gold standard, and a free trader for extreme protection.

It is not the Russian thistle, but the monopoly thistle that is destroying American agriculture.

THE liberal silver legislation promised by Voorhees, was the establishment of the gold standard.

WESTERN and Southern Democrats make good jumping jacks for their eastern gold-bug brethren.

THE Democrats, with one hundred majority, lack a quorum more than half the time.

KEEP the "character of your money good" even if you go naked and starve.

Nothing in This World

Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the west—125,000 to 140,000 a day.

Prof. J. T. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere, and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison-st. (2)
