HERE'S SOMETHING.

We doubt if there is any business that feels the effects of the hard times more than the newspaper business. We do not like to say it, but we have outstanding subscriptions due us, amounting to more than $500, and we are compelled to ask your assistance. Call and see what your account is, so that it can be adjusted. We need the money. We have to pay spot cash for our paper and it takes money to meet the bills. If you think you are in arrears for your subscription, call and see if it is so. We will be pleased to see you. It is only a dollar here and there, but in the long run it amounts to a great deal.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said, "my joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

A bill has been introduced in the lower house of Congress to increase the postage on newspapers, from one to eight cents per pound. This is an idea, of the present administration of economy, by increasing the postage on newspapers. Still they will give the larger towns and cities a free delivery system at an expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars, that does not in any way benefit the people of the smaller towns a particle. This is certainly not just, and a determined effort is being made to have the bill killed.

In mentioning the severe beating received by John Fawcett, Jr., the editor of the Monon Review, we were in error as to the name of his assailant. Instead of James H. Turpie, it was James H. Torpie, and he is in no way related to Judge David Turpie. We copied the article from the Chicago Inter Ocean, it being sent to that paper from Lafayette, and not being acquainted with the parties, we hope the error is excusable.

The Monon will sell excursion tickets to Indianapolis and return, on account of the People's Party Convention, for $3.30. Tickets will be placed on sale May 22nd and 23rd, and are good returning until and including May 25th. W. H. BEAM, Agent.

The convention of the Epworth League of the Valparaiso district will be held at this place some time this month. The date has not been stated yet. It is expected that this will be a grand meeting.

JAY WILLIAMS.

It is certainly a beautiful sight to look upon the trees, that have put out their verdant coats and it is refreshing to know that spring is now with us. So far we have received no contributions of spring poetry. This was a hard winter on poets.

It cures blood and skin disorders. It does this quickly and permanently. Is there any good reason why you should not use DeWitt's Sarsaparilla? It recommends itself. A. F. LONG & Co., Druggists.

Everybody has heard of Fannie Hill, but now you have the opportunity of your life time to witness one of the fine performances given by her and her company of 40 artists.

Warner & Shead have a new wagon that is a beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Coen were "at home" to their friends last Wednesday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock. It was a very pleasant occasion for the many guests who had gathered at their beautiful home to spend the evening, and it is certain that the host and hostess know how to entertain. Music was furnished by Messrs. John and Jerry Healy. C. B. Harrold, Misses Minnie Wood and May Ensen. Elegant refreshments were served. The house was beautifully decorated in a becoming manner with smilax and pot plants.

The town election occurred last Monday and the result was decidedly Republican by a large majority: The following officers were elected: Trustees, M. B. Alter, C. W. Coen and J. M. Wasson; treasurer, C. C. Starr; clerk, C. M. Blue; marshal, Thos. McGowen. The majorities ranged from 140 to 160.

The municipal elections throughout Indiana, this week were decidedly Republican.

James Welsh is still in Ellettsville where he has established a creamery.

Peter Scanlan and Miss Anna Hardeman were married at the Catholic church, last Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, by Rev. Stanislaus. After the ceremony the happy couple, together with a large number of invited guests assembled at the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous dinner had been prepared for them. The remainder of the day was spent by the guests in merry making and it was a very enjoyable occasion. The PILOT wishes the young couple a long and happy life.

Epworth League Chapter, No 2,672, of Trinity M. E. church, held their annual election of officers on Tuesday, May 1. The following were the officers elected: Pres., J. Albert Overton; Vice Presidents, Vermont Hawkins, Geo. Collins, Mary Utter, Lessie Bales; Secretary, Hallie A. Flynn; Treasurer, Mrs. H. V. Weaver; Organist, Bertha Nowels. The old and new officers were given a pleasant reception at the home of Rev. H. V. Weaver on last Friday evening.

Lightning struck the house occupied by Chas. Castor, living at Blackford, last Thursday and tore things around rather lively for a short time. There were eight persons in the room that was damaged most, but all escaped injury, except Mrs. Castor and her young baby. They received a severe shock from the lightning. The east side of the house was completely knocked out, and the chimney was also torn down.
