HERE'S SOMETHING.

We doubt if there is any business that feels the effects of the hard times more than the newspaper business. We do not like to say it, but we have outstanding subscriptions due amounting to more than $500, and we are compelled to ask your assistance. Call and see what your account is, so that it can be adjusted. We need the money. We have to pay spot cash for our paper and it takes money to meet the bills. If you think you are in arrears for your subscription, call and see if it is so. We will be pleased to see you. It is only a dollar here and there, but in the long run it amounts to a great deal.

A bad wreck occurred on the Monon, near Dyer, last Saturday morning. The bridge gang who were doing some repairing, ran their train on to the spur to let the south bound passenger train go by and they forgot to close the switch. The engineer of the passenger train did not discover the open switch until within a short distance of it and too late to stop. The train crashed into the bumping post and on into the soft marsh, almost burying the engine. The baggage car, mail car and first day coach telescoped and ran on top of the engine. Engineer David Pope was found in a deep hole under some heavy timber, with a broken leg and back and head badly hurt. Baggage Master Bustee was found under the baggage car, buried in the soft mud, and was seriously injured about the back and head. Geo. Robinson, of Chicago, a passenger, had both limbs broken. Two other passengers from Chicago had their arms broken. The trainmen say it was a miraculous escape, as there were nearly 30 passengers in the smoker and day coach. Physicians were immediately called and the wounded men taken to Hammond, where their wounds were dressed.

Father, dear father, come home with me now, for ma has some carpets to beat, she's got all the furniture out in the road, from the front clear to the street. The stove must come down and be put out in the shed, and the yard must be cleaned of dry grass, for its time to clean house and the duce is to pay, and the front window needs a new glass. Father, dear father, come home with me now, and bring some bologna and cheese; its most twelve o'clock and there is nothing to eat, I'm so hungry I'm weak in my knees. All the dinner we'll have will be scraps and such, and we'll have to eat standing up, too, for the tables and chairs are all out in the yard. Oh, I wish spring cleaning was through! Father, dear father come home with me now, for ma is mad as a Turk; she says you're a lazy old thing, and that she proposes to put you to work. There's painting to do and paper to hang, and windows and casing to scrub, for its house cleaning time, and you've got to come home and revel in suds and cold grub.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said, "my joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.
The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which flattered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weigh 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130 1/2. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1893.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.
