The official program for Decoration Day will be found in another column.

Don't forget that D. H. Yeoman & Son can supply your wants for hard lumber.

N. S. Bates reports the chicken business as rather slow now. He is paying 5 1/2 cents for them.

HERE'S SOMETHING.

We doubt if there is any business that feels the effects of the hard times more than the newspaper business. We do not like to say it, but we have outstanding subscriptions due us, amounting to more than $500, and we are compelled to ask your assistance. Call and see what your account is, so that it can be adjusted. We need the money. We have to pay spot cash for our paper and it takes money to meet the bills. If you think you are in arrears for your subscription, call and see if it is so. We will be pleased to see you. It is only a dollar here and there, but in the long run it amounts to a great deal.

Last Wednesday was military and flag raising day at St. Joseph's College and arrangements had been made for elaborate outdoor exercises, but the rain spoiled most of it, and it was necessary to have the exercises conducted in the College building. The Seifert Light Guards, in full uniform, together with the other students, assembled in the Chapel to attend military mass which was conducted by Rev. B. Boebner, celebrant, assisted by Rev. John Guendling of Lafayette, as deacon, and Rev. Chas. Guendling, of Ft. Wayne, as sub-deacon. Father Dinnen, of Crawfordsville, acted as master of ceremonies. After mass, the company filed out to the front of the building, and after hoisting the old stars and stripes, to top of the magnificent college building amid applause and cheers. The Light Guards fired a military salute in honor of the occasion. Assembling in the college hall, the audience listened to a master piece of oratory by Father Meissner, of Peru. Pleasant and impressive remarks were made by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Rademacher, of Ft. Wayne. An exhibition drill was given by the Light Guards but they could not do justice to the occasion, because of being hampered for room. They had prepared a fine drill for the occasion, and of course the boys were sorry, they could not give it. There were priests in attendance from Hammond, Ft. Wayne, Peru, Crawfordsville, Reynolds, Indian Creek, Delphi and Lafayette.

Without any ceremony or eclat whatever, Will Mossler and family got away from this city Sunday noon without announcement, for Rensselaer, where they will reside. We have been congratulating ourselves over the fact that Will was a permanent citizen, as he had built himself a handsome cottage last season. The cause of his sudden departure was a very flattering offer from his father-in-law who is the dry goods merchant prince of Rensselaer, to take charge of his immense business interests. We are sorry to lose the family from among us, but congratulate the people of Rensselaer on getting back a business man that was so popular with them, congratulate Will on his brilliant prospects and add, that as a hustler he is deserving of all the good things that comes his way.—Thorn-town Argus.

John Healy has opened a shoe shop in Uncle Charley Rhoades' harness shop, and is now prepared to do all kinds of custom work. His terms are cash to all. If you need repairing done in first class style, give him a call and he will give you satisfaction.

A new girl at George Caster's last Wednesday, and also a boy at Jacob McDonald's on Sunday. The cold, damp weather is making it very slow work for the farmers these days.

"Major John Andre" was rendered at the opera house, last Wednesday evening, by the Columbian Literary Society and Seifert Light Guards, of St. Joseph's College. It is useless for us to go into detail concerning the history of Major John Andre, for every school boy and girl knows it. As to those who presented the play, we will say that it was admirably given and the audience was pleased. The costumes shown by the performers were true to Colonial times, and in the grand tableau at the close, they presented a most beautiful picture. The college band played several fine selections which were enjoyed by the audience. The two bands came over in the early part of the evening and made a parade and furnished some splendid music.

Persons who sympathize with the afflicted will rejoice with D. E. Carr, of 1235 Harrison St., Kansas City. He is an old sufferer from inflammatory rheumatism, but has not heretofore been troubled in this climate. Last winter he went up into Wisconsin, and in consequence has had another attack. "It came upon me again very acute and severe," he said, "my joints swelled and became inflamed; sore to touch or almost to look at. Upon the urgent request of my mother-in-law I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm to reduce the swelling and ease the pain, and to my agreeable surprise, it did both. I have used three fifty-cent bottles and believe it to be the finest thing for rheumatism, pains and swellings extant." For sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

At last we have a base ball club. The organization was effected last Thursday evening and the following is the make up of the club: Denowise, c.; Lem-eaux, p.; Reynolds, s. s.; Tharp, 1 b.; Thornton, 2 b.; Clifton, third base, Hawkins, left field, Ramey, c. f.; Chamberlain, r. f. Will Tharp was elected as captain and the club has decided upon the name of the "Models." They have purchased new uniforms complete, Will Mossler, of the "Model," furnishing them to the boys. They are now ready to accept or make challenges with any club in the county. They are arranging for a big game on the 4th of July.

Dr. S. F. Scott, Blue Ridge, Harrison county, Mo., says: "For whooping cough Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is excellent." By using it freely the disease is deprived of all dangerous consequences. There is no danger in giving the Remedy to babies, as it contains nothing injurious. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

The Populists of Newton county will meet at Brook on Saturday, June 9th, 1894, for the purpose of nominating a complete county ticket. There is great work promised from that county this year, and which we hope will prove all that is offered by the Populists of Newton county.

Gen. A. W. Greely, one of the highest authorities on polar exploration, will review, in the June number of McClure's Magazine, the chances of success for the three important North Pole expeditions now in progress, and describe the physical conditions which hinder the explorer.

Sam Yeoman has a car load of the celebrated McCormick Reapers and Mowers, and in offering them at prices that cannot be equalled by any other machine. If you are thinking of buying, it will be to your interest to see him.

JAY WILLIAMS.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'gone' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious process until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit, when I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvellous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 157. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

Sold by all druggists.

The high school commencement exercises occurred at Eger's opera house last night, but we go to press too early to give a complete account of the event. The following are the names of the graduates and also their subjects:

Orren F. Parker, "Compulsory Education;" Marion L. Spitzer, "Territorial growth of the United States;" Ray D. Thompson, "The Coming Nation;" Benhart Fendig, "Literature and the Age;" Jesse M. Coen, "Importance of good Roads;" Florence Neal, "George Washington Childs;" Joe. H. Marshall, "Class History;" The Rensselaer String Orchestra furnished the music.

A lady at Tooleys, La., was very sick with bilious colic when M. C. Tisler, a prominent merchant of the town gave her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Colera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He says she was well in forty minutes after taking the first dose. For sale by F. B. Meyer, druggist.

Prof. Beck, the teacher of the Symphony Club, left for his home in Middletown, Ohio, last Thursday on account of the serious illness of his wife.
