PROCRUSTINATION (senatorial courtesy) is the thief of time.

In the bill now before the senate protection is made prominent and tariff reform incidental.

A MAN who will go to Washington expecting something from this Congress without boodle ought to be clubbed for being such a fool.

If it requires thirty-six men to guard and protect one three hundred pound hog in Washington, how many men are needed to protect all the hogs at Union Stock Yards, Chicago?

DEMOCRATS and Republicans, hurry and pass this tariff gag, so the people can try it a year and learn that a tariff change is as powerless to bring prosperity as the repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman law.

MILLIONS beg, tramp and starve while this merciless contraction goes on to bring all values to the gold standard, and still the two old frauds keep up the yelp about the tariff. Oh, you old sinners, how much longer can you fool the people?

CONGRESSMAN MCGANN has introduced a resolution to have a committee appointed to enquire into and report within thirty days as to the cause of the hard times. If congress really wants to know, let them subscribe for the PILOT, it will tell them all about it.

THE Republican state platform of Pennsylvania demands the expansion of our currency till it shall reach $40 per capita. It seems to us that we have heard members of that party about here say that there is plenty of money, and that nobody but inflationists, fiatists and fools ask for per capita circulation.

Official Call!

FOR THE VARIOUS PEOPLE'S PARTY CONVENTIONS.

Congressional, Senatorial and Judicial Conventions.

THE SENATORIAL CONVENTION, comprising the counties of Jasper, Newton, and Benton.

THE REPRESENTATIVE CONVENTION, comprising the counties of Jasper and Newport, and the

JUDICIAL CONVENTION,

of the 30th Judicial District will meet at Goodland, Newton county, Ind., on Friday, June 15, 1894, at 1 o'clock p. m., to nominate candidates as follows: One candidate for State Senator for the counties of Jasper, Newton and Benton. One candidate for Representative for the counties of Jasper and Newton and one prosecuting Attorney for the 30th Judicial District.

The basis of representation to each of these conventions shall be one delegate for each voting precinct.

W. J. McCULLOUGH,
J. U. WILDASIN,
L. L. PONSLE,
Committee.

In compliance with the foregoing the Populists of Jasper county will meet at their respective voting precincts on Saturday, June 9, 1894, and select delegates as aforesaid.

Chairman.

HAVEMEYER, grand Mogul of all trusts, takes rooms at the national capitol, whereupon senators and representatives flock around him to learn his pleasure. A number of laboring men endeavor to get within speaking distance of the capitol and they are set upon and clubbed into insensibility. Why this difference between the king of trusts and the son of toil? Why this, the one has boodle in his pocket and the other has none.

CONGRESSMAN BRYAN, of Nebraska, says: "If the President's financial policy becomes the policy of the party, I see no reason for the continued existence of the party, because the Republicans, having followed that policy, are better prepared than we to support it. If, on the other hand, the party repudiates Mr. Cleveland's financial policy and renews its devotion to the common people, it may become an effective instrument in the securing of good government."

BROTHER MARSHALL still writhes under the castigation given his party by Mrs. Lease. Now, dear brother, if you are dissatisfied with your first bout with the Kansas cyclone and wish to try another, just stop your howling and say so, for "Mary Yellen" is ready and we will allow you to trot out John Sherman, Billy Owen or your own precious self. We have faith in Mary and Populist principles, and want to have them pounded by your strongest man before the largest audience ever assembled in Jasper county. Now, who is afraid? We dare you to the contest.

REPUBLICAN senators and Representatives are beginning to see that the grist which is being ground up in the senate compromise mill is a good enough Republican measure. As for the income tax, neither party is anxious to offend the Populists by voting it down. The problem with the Republicans now is, how to yield their support to the Democratic tariff bill of the Senate, without letting the House know that they regard it as a pretty good Republican measure. Too eager a surrender by the Republicans might endanger it in the House. Between the fears of the Republicans that the defeat of the present measure might result in the passage of a Democratic tariff bill, and the fears of the Democrats that they will lose the fall elections unless they pass some kind of a tariff bill immediately, the present prospect is favorable to a general love-feast and the passage of the Republican Democratic tariff bill by the united votes of both parties.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE chapel of DePauw University was the scene of a disgraceful class fight one morning last week. The seniors had prepared themselves with caps and gowns to be worn at commencement. The juniors somehow got hold of these and wore them to chapel, so, over this, the usual morning devotion was turned into a shameful class fight. Twenty-five years ago no such barbarous conduct as this was ever known at this institution. Young men then attended college for the purpose of gaining an education, at this institution, then, a majority of them boarded themselves. They were not a set of pops and duds, supported by rich daddies, and sent to school to "skin cats" and play foot ball, but they were, most of them, common boys, from the ranks of the common people. There is surely something wrong in the management of our high schools where such a spirit of rowdiness is developed, as has so frequently of late years shown itself in so many of our colleges.

THE leading millionaires of Chicago are represented as recent converts to the bi-metallic cause. They are represented as saying, that the appreciation of gold and scarcity of money have been the cause of falling prices, stagnation of business, and the world-wide distress that have prevailed for the past twenty years, and that the war on silver by the United States and European countries caused it all, and that the restoration of silver to its former position as a money metal, is the corrective measure. This change of front is somewhat surprising when it is remembered that some of these parties, according to Senator Morgan's published statement, were instrumental in securing the nomination of both Harrison and Cleveland because of their anti-silver sentiments. The bankruptcy of Egypt, Guatemala and other countries, and the business depression and miseries of the people, have caused them to call a halt. No one believes for a moment that they have changed their views on money matters or the feasibility of growing rich by contracting the money supply. No, it is no new light that they have received on the money question, nor is it a quickening of their conscience, but the fear of a bloody revolution by an exasperated people that causes them to hesitate about further pushing their devilish schemes.
