HOME NEWS
RENSSELAER, IND.

VOLUME FOUR.

We Smile to Our Readers Because it is Our Birthday.

Good morning. This is our birthday and we thought we would tell you about it. We are proud of it and want you to know it. With this issue we commence volume four. Three years have passed and our business relations with all those whom we have come in contact, has been of the most pleasant nature and we hope it may so continue to be.

Our sympathy always goes out to any enterprise that will be a benefit to Rensselaer, and Jasper County. Home first, the world afterwards. This shall be our course in the future and we hope to be ably assisted by our many friends.

Thanking you for your past patronage and favors, and hope we may be remembered by you in the future.

It is seldom you find a physician whose patients are as well pleased with their treatment as those of Dr. Walter. A gentleman said to our reporter the other day—speaking of the Doctor. "Yes I have been a sufferer for years from chronic indigestion and never received any relief until I placed my case in the hands of Dr. Walter. I can cheerfully recommend him to anyone." Dr. Walter will be here Monday, June 25, at the Makeover House.

At the People's Party judicial and senatorial convention held at Goodland last Friday, the following ticket was nominated: For senator, Perry Washburn, of Benton county; for representative, D. B. Nowels, of Jasper county; for prosecutor, J. D. Rich, of Newton county. This is undoubtedly a strong ticket and should be a winner. Hon. A. G. Burkhardt, candidate for congress in the 9th district was present and addressed the meeting.

A Demorest Silver Medal Contest will be held in Rensselaer, on Wednesday, June 27, 1894, at 8:00 p. m., given by a class from our neighboring towns, who speak in Remington, on Saturday, June 23, at Goodland, June 26, and Wolcott on the 30. Let all come out and hear these young people recite their first pieces for a medal. There will be three impartial judges chosen from the audience to award the prize.

Mr. Will A. Mossler, Manager of The Model, has just returned from Chicago, and attended the closing out sale of spring and summer goods of Marshall Field & Co. and he has decided to give the citizens of Rensselaer the benefit, commencing our grand summer dress goods and clothing sale, Saturday morning, June 23rd, 1894.

The Epworth League convention which convenes here next Monday and Tuesday promises to be an interesting meeting. A most interesting program has been prepared, which we give in full in another column. We should try to make these strangers feel that they are welcome. All are invited to attend the convention, and the members residing in the county are especially urged to be present.

Many of the citizens of Rainsville, Indiana are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This Remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by F.B. Meyer, Druggist.

Complaint is heard of persons going to the cemetery and desecrating the graves by removing the beautiful flowers that are growing there. In some cases we learn that parties carried away the flowers by the basketful. This is wrong, very wrong, and persons with no more respect for the departed dead should be made to pay for their wrong doing.

To-morrow is confirmation day at St. Augustine's church. Bishop Pademacher, of Ft. Wayne, will be present and have charge of the services. A procession will be formed at 8:30 in the morning, headed by the college band, and will move to the church where the exercises will take place.

The seven-year-old daughter of Gleason Kenton, had the misfortune last winter to have an arm broken, and on last Friday evening she again injured the same limb by receiving a severe sprain. Dr. Alter was called and found it necessary to break the limb again in order to re-set it. The patient is getting along very well considering the severe treatment she has undergone.

The People's Party of Jordan township have nominated the following ticket: trustee, Joseph Timmons; assessor, Howard Burr; justice of peace, Morgan Dewey, Wm. Cain; constable, Gus Larsh, John Reed, Jr. The convention was well attended, good natured and harmonious. The ticket is a good one and should be elected by from 25 to 40 majority.

The entertainment given at the Christian church last Monday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Literary Society was a rare treat and they should be complimented in securing such a high class attraction as Misses Allen and Harrington, in their unique entertainment. They are certainly the best in their lines that have visited our town.

A typical "wild west" show will be one of the features of the 4th in Rensselaer. This was the principal attraction three years ago and was a great success. It will be attempted again this year but on a much larger scale. You want to see it.

Five out of the nine Republican county chairmen have asked for another Congressional Convention to be held at Hammond shortly, for the purpose of placing a candidate in the field, owing to their dissatisfaction in the Landis affair.
