THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

HOW

Rensselaer Celebrates the Glorious Fourth of July.

The 4th of July at Rensselaer passed off very pleasantly. The crowd was not overly large, but of the proper dimension for comfort. The day was ushered in by the firing of anvils, blowing of whistles and ringing of bells. The Chicago and Lowell base ball clubs arrived here on Tuesday evening, and played a very exciting game of ball the following morning, the score being 8 to 2 in favor of Chicago.

The game after dinner between the Chicago and Rensselaer clubs was a very interesting one resulting in favor of the home team, with a score of 10 to 9.

Phillips & Sayler's wild west show made themselves conspicuous at about 11 o'clock in the forenoon and gave a great show on Washington street. It was far better than the one attempted three years ago, and reflects great credit on the managers for having so good an entertainment for the people.

The literary program, in the morning, was entirely taken up by home talent and the exercises were very interesting.

There were five contestants in the foot race and the money was divided between Rush, of Newton county, and Joe Reynolds, of this place.

In the bicycle race there were but two entries—Louie Wilcox, of Surrey, and Chas. Spitler, of Rensselaer, and the race was nicely won by the former.

There was a public dance given in opera house, which was well patronized by the lovers of that sort of amusement.

In the evening there was no special display of fire-works, but you could look in almost any direction and see fiery rain of the Roman candle and hear the whiz of the sky rocket.

Take it all in all, the affair was a success and all who came went away satisfied with the day's pleasures and felt repaid for their coming. Excellent music was furnished by the Rensselaer band which added much to the enjoyment of the day.

One word describes it—"perfection." We refer to De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, cures obstinate sores, burns, skin diseases and is a well known cure for piles.

Marietta township is now divided into four voting precincts, Washington and Van Rensselaer streets in this place being the dividing lines. Precinct No. 1 is composed of all the territory lying between and bounded by the Poor Farm and Long Ridge gravel roads, with the voting place in the sample room of the Makeever House. No. 2, all the territory lying between and bounded by the Long Ridge and Pleasant Ridge gravel roads, with voting place at Sheriff's office in the court house. No. 3, all the territory lying between and bounded by the Pleasant Ridge and College gravel roads, with voting place at the town hall in Rensselaer. No. 4, all the territory lying between and bounded by the College and Poor Farm gravel roads, with voting place at Michael Eger's carpenter shop.

"Faust and Margurite" was presented at Eger's opera house, last Tuesday evening by the Southerns—Price company. We cannot say to much this of troupe of players. They are good—very good, and those who attended are loud in their praise of the beautiful rendition of this great drama by such a capable company of actors. Mr. Edwin Southers as "Satan" is great, and the other characters are well sustained by good people. They will appear here tomorrow (Saturday) evening in "Ingomar," and if you want to spend a pleasant evening be sure and visit them.

A horse kicked H. S. Shafer, of the Freemyer House, Middleburg, N. Y. on the knee, which laid him up in bed and caused the knee joint to become stiff. A friend recommended him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did, and in two days was able to be around. Mr. Shafer has recommended it to many others and says it is excellent for any kind of a bruise or sprain. This same remedy is also famous for its cures of rheumatism. For sale by F. B. Meyer, Druggist.

In view of the fact that serious trouble is liable to occur at any time, the result of the great railroad strike, Capt. Erastus Peacock has been circulating a paper asking for volunteers in case they are needed. There are more than 150 names on the paper.

The sweetest and most pleasant homes can be provided by purchasing one of Leopold's South Addition lots at a very low price and on easy terms. A. LEOPOLD, proprietor. Office at the "Model" store.

The Annual Catalogue of Indiana University is out and a copy has just been received at this office. It is neatly printed and contains a beautiful lithograph of the proposed Kirkwood Hall now being erected on the new campus. The attendance is 638, being larger by 63 than ever before. Of these 40 are graduate students. The students are from 20 states, and 81 counties out of the 92 of Indiana are represented. There will be 121 courses presented next fall. There are now 45 teachers and additions will have to be made at the next meeting of the Board in June. The University has doubled its attendance in the last four years. All University publications will be sent on application to President Joseph Swain, Bloomington, Ind.

The W. C. T. U. met at the M. E. church last Friday and had a very pleasant meeting although, not very largely attended. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Nellie Harris, Mrs. Katie Kessinger and Miss Edith Walker. A committee was appointed to organize a temperance legion. The next meeting will occur on Monday, July 23, at 3 p. m. All those interested in this work are urged to be present.

Quite a large congregation assembled at the Christian church last Sunday evening to hear Elder E. B. Schofield, who is the state evangelist for that church. His discourse was more in the shape of a lecture than a sermon and was greatly enjoyed by his hearers. He is engaged in state missionary work and while here took up contributions for that purpose amounting to near $25.

"Ingomar," which is to be produced by the Southerns—Price Co. at the opera house to-morrow evening will be a rare treat. The most beautiful costumes ever shown to a Rensselaer audience will be used in this play, and you should see them. This is no "snide" attraction, but is one that has been playing the larger towns and cities throughout the country.

A large photograph of the 4th of July "Wild west show" is exhibited in the show window at B. F. Fendig's drug store.

Below it is the following inscription: "Phillips & Sayler's Wild West and Congress of daring riders. Stage robbing a specialty. Leave orders at the mill."

If you are thinking about getting married, or going to have a party or ball, come in and see our elegant line of samples of invitations and programs. We have something that will suit you and can give you reasonable prices on them, too.

The People's party of this township, at their convention last Saturday nominated the following ticket: Wm. M. Hoover, trustee; W. R. Nowels, assessor, and W. C. Huston for constable.

Misses Isabelle Underwood, May Dunlap and Linda Dwigins, of Chicago, visited Miss Mary Belle Purcupile this week.
