Nothing in This World

Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the west—125,000 to 140,000 a day.

Prof. J. T. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."

Sold by newsdealers everywhere, and subscriptions received by all postmasters. Address THE CHICAGO RECORD, 181 Madison-st.

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

"Fostering the Savage in the Young," is the promising caption of a paper in the August Arena which comes from the pen of the Editor of the review. It deals with the remarkable growth of military organizations within the very pale and under the auspices and encouragement of the Christian churches. The writer views this development of militarism from the standpoint of the Peace Society, and points out the incongruity of this lust for war. Lowell calls it murder, and the avowed purposes of the Christian churches.

The game of ball between Rensselaer and Monticello last Friday was a one sided affair. Rensselaer won in a score of 13 to 3. About 60 from here attended the game and 'tis said the prairie town will put in a system of water works with the money that our boys left there. Monticello had a Hammond battery and Rensselaer a Chicago battery. Monticello out played Rensselaer, but Chicago "skinned Hammond. There is no use croaking now, they have our money.—Monticello Press.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin," as given by the Ruscoe & Swift and Southern-Price companies, assisted by local talent, at the opera house, last Saturday evening, was all right. It was a very clever rendition of that popular play. The house was the best that any company has played to for several seasons, the proceeds amounting to $110. The professional people who were in the caste did their parts very nicely, and as to our home talent, we must not overlook them. Fred Phillips, as "Phineas, the trapper," and later the Quaker, played this part nicely, but showed greater development in the heavy part of "Le-gree, the Red River Renegade." Frank Maloy, as "Lawyer Marks," was very funny, and his acting pleased the audience. One of the leading characters in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," is "Little Eva." The part was admirably taken by Little Miss True George, and she recited her lines as easily as if she had played the part a hundred times.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I concluded to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, Druggist.

About the nerviest trick we ever heard of was of a stranger who was driving through town and stopped just above John Eger's grocery store. In passing the store he noticed a hitch rein attached to a weight, with which John fastens his delivery horse, and the former cut, went back and politely cut the strap off the weight, when John discovered the theft and made the fellow buy him a new one. He did so and left town in a hurry.
