The Jasper county commissioners have appealed to the Supreme Court from the New on Circuit Court's decision in the damage case against them of John H. Atman, administrator of the estate of Benjamin K. Atman. The latter was killed on Nov. 11, 1893, by a runaway wagon which struck a corner of the bridge and Ryan was thrown twenty feet to the ice below and killed. His administrator sued the county and secured a verdict for $6,000. It is from this verdict that the commissioners appeal, and their transcript was filed in the Supreme Court yesterday. —Indianapolis Journal.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I concluded to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, Druggist.

Postmaster Honan has made a very nice ruling. When the school year begins it always brings about the abominable nuisance of the school children coming in droves and asking for mail, at least three times a day. Business men are making complaints, which is perfectly just and the nuisance should be discontinued. Hereafter no mail will be delivered to the children unless they have an order from their parents for the same. The school board should sanction the action of Mr. Honan, regarding this matter.

The base ball season has closed here for this year. We learn that there is a possibility of the local base ball club and the gun club going together and leasing ground, surround it with a high fence, build a suitable grand stand and making a regular sporting park of it. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by F. B. Meyer, Druggist.

About fifty of our local sports accompanied our ball club to Monticello last Saturday, and they certainly went "loaded" for the occasion, with both money and players, but they struck a great whoppin' big snag when they arrived there. The entire Lebanon club was secured by the Monticello manager and they scooped our boys to the tune of 16 to 4. The Lebanon club is the champion amateur club of Indiana. Out of 47 games played this season they have won 44. It was a great game, filled with many interesting plays by both clubs, but our limited space this week forbids further mention.

BIRDIE BLY.

A Noted Musician to Give Rensselaer People a Treat.

On Friday evening, Sept. 7, the people of Rensselaer will be permitted to hear an artist in music. The Presbyterian, Methodist and Christian churches have secured Miss Birdie Bly for the above date and a grand entertainment may be expected, such as has never before been given in this part of the state. She will be ably assisted by our best local talent. Miss Bly is an accomplished performer on the piano and violin, having studied the former instrument with Newpert and Joseffy in New York, at the Royal Academy in London, at the Royal Conservatory in Berlin, in Paris and lastly under the master pianist of the world—the great Rubenstein. She has played in all the principle cities of Europe and America and her reputation as a musician cannot possibly be excelled. We append a few press notices as to her ability:

Miss Birdie Bly, who a few years ago, as a child, captured London by storm with her wonderful talent, is also here. With her marvelous musical gifts and loveliness, she was said to be a companion picture of those precocious children drawn by the author of "Charles Auchester," and she is now realizing the brilliant artistic future that was then prophesied for her. Miss Bly may fairly be called an English pianiste for though born in America, she is of English descent, and has a warm affection for London, where she has spent most of her life. As a virtuoso, Miss Bly is admired for her warm, true feeling, faultless technique and the strength and vigor of her conception. —London Musical News.

The pianiste of the evening was Miss Bly, a very young lady, who, however, in addition to a crispness of touch and a correct method, developed considerable power as well. The most successful of her three selections was Liszt's "Faust" fantasia. —Philadelphia Press.

Miss Bly's program was one of astounding difficulties, including Fantaisie and Fugue in G minor, Bach-Liszt; Sonate B-flat minor Chopin; Etude, Valse Noble and Ballade, Neupert; Berceuse, Ballade G minor, Chopin; and Rhapsodie No. 2, Liszt. She achieved distinctive success by her fine performance. —Chicago Inter Ocean.

If you want a nice lunch, call at Lahey & Saylor's.
