Please see the ad of LaRue Bros. in another column.

Ben McCollay has moved into his new house near the depot.

Fred Chilcote, wife and babies are visiting parents and friends here.

Ira W. Yeoman, of Remington was in town Tuesday on legal business.

Mrs. C. E. Hershman is visiting relatives and friends in Medaryville this week.

William Washburn and wife started Tuesday for a short visit among friends in Iowa.

D. B. Nowels and wife are taking in the old settlers meeting at Kentland this week.

William Dowel, of Huntington, has moved into Benjamin's tenement house opposite T. J. McCoy's.

St. Joseph's catholic college opened Monday, with all the old students returned and 25 new ones enrolled.

Mrs. Minnie Clever unfortunately slipped and fell Sunday morning, breaking two ribs. Dr. Alter was called.

A. F. Long has ornamented the front of his drug store with a very handsome sign. It is the work of Miller, the painter.

The Democrats of Wheatfield township, have nominated Mark Knapp for trustee and Joseph Austin for assessor.

Mrs. Donnelly, on Cullen St. is treating her house to a new coat of paint which is adding much to its appearance.

Not in ten years have we, in this county, had such fine fall pastures and such favorable conditions for fall seeding.

S. M. Hathron, Populist candidate for congress in this the 10th congressional district, speaks at Francesville Saturday Sept 15th.

The Hon. J. B. Collins, of Michigan City, will address the Democracy of Rensselaer at the court house, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p. m.

Maine has, as usual, gone republican and Arkansas democratic. The two G. O. P's. are happy and the Pleuts are satisfied.

Dr. H. J. Kannal, veterinary surgeon, will be in Wheatfield on Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 17 and 18. Office at Fendig's drug store.

The Kankakee Republicans have headed their township ticket with John T. Biggs for trustee and Alonzo Hilliard for assessor.

Miss Bertha Martindale, of this place, and Mr. Albert Ross, of Chicago, will be married at the residence of the bride's parents Wednesday evening, Sept. 19.

Cloaks and fur capes at the opening Saturday, Sept. 15th.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Mrs. Lucy Clark, Wm. Baker and James Donnelly will move, back to their farms in the spring. Town has no charms for them.

Green Thornton and family arrived here Saturday night from Coats, Kansas. They were forty days on the road. Mr. Thornton has come to make this his future home.

The government crop report for August, shows Indiana two points ahead of all other States on corn, and one point on wheat. Don't go west young man, but stay in Indiana.

Rev. R. D. Utter has been returned to Rensselaer by the Northwest Indiana Methodist conference. This will meet with the hearty approval of his congregation here.

The Republicans of Union township have named as their standard bearers in the coming township campaign, James Babcock for trustee and John McCollay for assessor.

In another column will be found "A Silver Lunatic." In this, both the intrinsic value and the ~~bad~~ doctrines are presented. The article is a little long, but it will pay to read it.

Rev. E. G. Pelley was acquitted by the M. E. conference last week, of the charges preferred against him some time ago. He was assigned to Jefferson in the Lafayette district.

Oscar Phegley brought a very bad foot to town the other day, the result of his jumping off of an old chicken house on to a large upturned rusty nail. Too much attention can not be given to that foot Oscar.

Bishop Randemacher, of Fort Wayne held confirmation services at Remington last Sunday. Several from here including two or three priests from the college attended, and report an interesting time and a large crowd.

We thought it was understood that there would be no attempt to build an iron bridge on the Pleasant Ridge road till the county had sufficient funds on hand for that purpose. Why this change is it for fear the next commissioners will not be bridge builders?

We insert to-day a new ad. for The Chicago Times, which sets forth pretty clearly the principles of that paper in their relations to the questions of the day. It is a matter of history that the position of The Times during the recent strike has been vastly to its advantage.

Squire O. Caster and Owen Hurley, two 16 year old hopefuls of Barkley township, charged with stealing beer from Rosenbaum's saloon were bound over to court by Justice Morgan Saturday night. Failing to secure bail they were sent to board with Sheriff Hanley.

The Jasper tile works, just north of town, are building another very large drying shed which they intend to have filled by the time cold weather compels them to shut down, then they can burn the tile on hands; thus continuing work far into the winter. There is no danger of having too much tile made and used in this county.
