

Waterproof collars and cuffs that you can clean yourself by simply wiping off with a wet sponge. The genuine look exactly like linen and every piece is marked this way:

They are made by covering a linen collar or cuff with "celluloid," and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining, and the only goods that can stand the wear and give perfect satisfaction. Never wilt and not affected by moisture. Try them and you will never regret it. Ask for those with above trade mark and refuse any imitations. If your dealer does not have them we will mail you a sample direct on receipt of price. Collars 25c. Cuffs 50c. pair. State whether you want up, or turned-down collar is wanted.

Obituary.

MRS. ELIZA MCCOY.

Eliza Mellinger was born November 29, 1810, in Columbiana county, Ohio. When sixteen years of age, in 1826, she was married to Thomas McCoy, a young man of her own neighborhood.

The union thus formed was blessed with five children, George, Alfred, Melissa, Absolom, Thomas. Three of the five have gone; only George and Alfred remain. The unwelcome truth is thus forced upon our thoughts that no family circle is secure against the shafts of death.

The young wife and husband established their home in the county of her nativity, where they shared each other's joys and sorrows for nearly fifty years, clinging to the old home until 1873. The fall of that year no longer a youthful couple, they came to Indiana, and lived with their son, Alfred, the ensuing winter, purposing, when they came, to build them a cottage near him the next spring, here to spend the remainder of their days. Their plans failed. Ere the spring months had fairly opened, the husband and father, released from earthly care, entered upon his reward in heaven.

The devoted wife and mother, so sadly bereaved, remained with the family of her son, receiving every attention that filial kindness and affection could suggest, to cheer and brighten the last years of her life.

On Wednesday night, Sept. 26, 1894, the summons came for which she had long been waiting, calling her away.

"Far away beyond the shadows,
Of this weary vale of tears,
Where the tide of bliss is sweeping
Through the bright and changeless years."
She was an exemplary, useful, and honored member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Even from her girlhood days she has been a follower of Christ, for at least sixty or seventy years.

She leaves to her children, to her grand-children, to the church, and to her many friends the legacy of a precious memory.

She kept the faith, she finished her course in peace; she has received her crown, the beautiful, fadeless crown of life.

The funeral services, conducted by her pastor, Rev. R. I. Utter, were held at the home of her son, Alfred McCoy, at 10 o'clock, Friday afternoon, Sept. 28th, in the presence of a large concourse of neighbors and friends. Her body was the laid to rest beside that of her husband in Weston cemetery.

Horatio Ropp brought to this office a stalk of corn that grew in Newton township, with five ears, two of which were real good, and the other three were fair. This looked like overdoing things a little, but Horatio says that is the kind of corn he raises—when he can.

The F. W. Baptist church will hold their Autumn Quarterly Meeting with the Rensselaer church, commencing on Friday evening Oct. 12, 1894, and continuing over the Sabbath. The A. C. F. society will occupy the time Saturday evening, Rev. O. W. Smith, of Chicago, will be here during the entire session of the quarterly meeting. We anticipate a pleasant time. The church building has been remodeled and is now modern and pleasant. All are invited.

One can now find a place to sit down in Bill Eger's hardware store. He has finished the upper room of his building which is 95 by 20 feet; it has a large glass front, and is very nicely arranged for his business. He has put in an elevator with which to carry up all his heavy goods. A free ride is given all customers who want to inspect articles on the second floor. Rensselaer is putting on a little city style, we think, when business is so crowding that upper rooms have to be built and elevators put in.

Genett A. Ulyat, daughter of Rev. Peter Hinds and wife of Thomas Ulyat, whose sickness was mentioned in last week's PILOT, died of typhoid fever, at her home near Brook, last Friday, aged 24 years 5 months and 27 days. Funeral services were held at the Brook M. E. church conducted by Rev. Byle, of Chicago. Interment in Brook cemetery. Mrs. Ulyat leaves a husband and two small children. Just fifteen days before her death she buried her little six year old daughter.

A very heavy burden was rolled from the bosom of Milroy township last Saturday. It's displacement, it is said, caused a quaking and trembling of the earth that might have been very sensitively felt a great distance. This strange phenomenon was removal of a mammoth cabbage head from Mrs. Henry Beaver's garden to this office. Stripped of its outer leaves and stock, net weight, ready for the pot, this cabbage weighed 25 pounds.

We have seen a few of the finest sweet potatoes we think ever grown in the country. They were raised by Mr. Peter Dexter, of Goodland, Ind. They are of the Jersey variety and certainly cannot be excelled. Mr. Dexter is an expert gardener and should any one desire vegetables of any kind they cannot do better than to call upon him.

Rev. John Sebring and wife came over Tuesday, from Medaryville, to spend a few days with Mr. Sebring's sister, Mrs. Wm. Washburn, but were called back the next day, by telegram, to attend the funeral of a relative.

Hon. Thomas H. Nelson will address the republicans of this county on balloon ascension day Oct. 16. Mr. Nelson is a very able man.

Somebody threw a stone and broke one of the large plate glass windows in C. D. Nowels' dry goods store last Saturday night. This was about a $40 lick.

The Populists of Barkley township, Wednesday Oct. 10th, nominated John Moore for trustee for the long term and George McElfresh trustee for the short term, and James McCleary for assessor.

Nothing in This World

Is so cheap as a newspaper, whether it be measured by the cost of its production or by its value to the consumer. We are talking about an American, metropolitan, daily paper of the first class like THE CHICAGO RECORD. It's so cheap and so good you can't afford in this day of progress to be without it. There are other papers possibly as good, but none better, and none just like it. It prints all the real news of the world—the news you care for—every day, and prints it in the shortest possible space. You can read THE CHICAGO RECORD and do a day's work too. It is an independent paper and gives all political news free from the taint of party bias. In a word—it's a complete, condensed, clean, honest family newspaper, and it has the largest morning circulation in Chicago or the west—125,000 to 140,000 a day.

Prof. J. T. Hatfield of the Northwestern University says: "THE CHICAGO RECORD comes as near being the ideal daily journal as we are for some time likely to find on these mortal shores."
