VICTIMS OF FIRE.

An Infirmary Is Burned at Houston, Tex.

Two Sisters of St. Joseph Perish and Another Is Badly Injured—Two Patients Are Missing—Business Houses Destroyed.

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 17.—The worst fire in the history of Houston broke out at 2:40 a. m. Tuesday and before it was got under control, at 4:30, not only had a large amount of property been destroyed, but two Sisters of St. Joseph were burned to death, two infirm patients also perished and a third Sister was dangerously injured.

The fire originated in the San Jacinto hotel, a boarding-house at Franklin and San Jacinto streets, from which the blaze spread rapidly to the adjoining small buildings of St. Joseph's infirmary on Franklin street, destroying a large two-story frame annex and then the new four-story brick main building.

Loss of Life.

The destruction of these buildings was accompanied by loss of life. Sisters Dolara and Jans were burned beyond all possibility of recognition, while Sister Clothilde was fearfully burned about the face, neck, breast and arms, her recovery being in doubt. Two patients are also missing, but there is not the slightest doubt that they also perished.

On San Jacinto street the fire spread to a one-story cottage and next destroyed Alexander's three-story boarding-house, managed by Mrs. J. J. Hussey; the three-story brick building of W. N. Lhaw, occupied by the S. M. Rushmore Grocery company, and J. W. Hancock, stationer; A. Chiene's three-story furniture house and W. L. Foley's dry goods house, the largest in the city. The total loss is about $438,000; total insurance, $151,500.

MANY SHIPS LOST.

Ivanhoe, with Eighteen Men, Probably Wrecked on the Pacific Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The gale which has prevailed along the north Pacific coast since Saturday last has undoubtedly caused widespread disaster to shipping interests. At least three schooners are known to be wrecked. There is little doubt that the Southern Pacific raft of 10,000 spars and piles, valued at $30,000, has been broken by the elements. The news of the next few days, it is thought, will show still greater loss.

From Tacoma the schooner Nora Harkins is reported wrecked at the entrance to Gray's harbor. One seaman was drowned. Reports were also received here of the wreck of the schooner Portia at Stewart's Point. Her bottom was knocked out on the rocks and her crew narrowly escaped with their lives. It is also reported that the schooner Elfreta was driven on the rocks near Cambria, on the San Luis Obispo county coast. A few minutes after the crew left her she broke in two and went down.

The American ship Ivanhoe, coal laden, from Seattle for this port, which has been out for twenty-one days, is almost certainly lost. Capt. C. E. Griffin commanded her, and she carried a crew of eighteen men. Fred Grant, one of the proprietors of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and ex-minister to Bolivia, was a passenger on the Ivanhoe, having embarked on her to enjoy the novelty of a sea voyage. A mast and yards painted yellow and believed by seamen to be part of the riggings of the Ivanhoe have been sighted off the Oregon coast. A floating deck house painted as was the Ivanhoe's was also seen in the locality.

POLITICS CAUSES A FAILURE.

Merced Bank of California Closes Its Doors—Cannot Realize on Its Assets.

MERCED, Cal., Oct. 17.—The Merced bank, which has been doing business since 1875, closed its doors Tuesday morning. The failure is due to the bank's inability to realize on its securities. As yet no statement has been made, but it is known that the bank had $200,000 loaned to merchants and ranchers of this community on which it could not realize. The bank's statement to the state bank commission in July last gave the reserve as $243,029. The bank's liabilities at that time were: Capital paid in coin, $48,000; due depositors, $160,637; due other banks, $35,000. The directors of the bank are all substantial business men. It is believed the depositors will be paid in full and that the failure will have no disastrous effect upon the business of the community.

While the failure is undoubtedly due to the general financial stringency the immediate cause of the suspension is said to be of a political nature. For years it has been customary for the county treasurer to place the county funds in deposit with the three banks of Merced. County Treasurer Bartlett was defeated for renomination in the recent democratic county convention, and, attributing his defeat to the interference of the officials of the Merced bank, he demanded the county funds deposited with the bank. Part of this money was paid to him. Other depositors learning of the action of the treasurer withdrew their deposits. Thus it was that a run was started which the bank could not meet.

A CLASH ON THE BENCH.

Nebraska Judges at Loggerheads Over the Rosewater Case.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 17.—Probably the most remarkable instance of the clash of judicial authorities in the history of American jurisprudence occurred in Omaha Tuesday when the criminal branch of the district court, presided over by C. R. Scott, was ordered by the other five judges of the district, sitting as a court, to transfer to their docket the case in which Editor Rosewater of the Bee is accused of libel by the wife of ex-Sheriff Bennett. This was the result of a motion by Mr. Rosewater before the five judges to have some other judge preside at the trial since he regarded the prejudice of Judge Scott as a bar to a fair trial before him.

When the court clerk handed Judge Scott the order of the five judges to transfer the case there was a scene. Court business was suspended and hundreds of people flocked into the room to hear the fracas. In a manner indicative of half-suppressed passion Judge Scott said:

"We have now met at the cross-roads and I do not propose to take either side, but instead, I am going to tread right in the middle of the road. Here I am, an American citizen 62 years of age and stand upon a broad gauge platform that will permit me to give every man a fair and impartial trial. If I did not want to give Rosewater a fair trial the motion might be excused. There is no law to take this case off my docket, and it will stay there. If there is any monkeying about it, some one is going to be cited to appear for contempt, and I think I am pretty good authority on contempt."

The last portion of the remark brought out a muffled round of applause, since Scott has arrested during his term dozens of prominent citizens for alleged contempt. Continuing the judge added, as he brought his fist down upon the desk with a thud:

"Edward Rosewater will be tried in this court if I live, and I will live if they don't kill me. I was elected to perform my duties and I propose to stand by the people and the law. I don't propose to send this case out to three judges, as was done in the Bemis impeachment case, and then have them find nothing. I fear no power but the power of the people and God, and I am not going to stand any shilly-shallying either. I have asked two judges outside of this district to come here and hear the case."

This ended the seance and the crowd dispersed.

Tuesday afternoon Judges Hopewell, Ambrose, Blair, Keyser and Ferguson ascended to the bench for the purpose of sitting in banc to determine if the Bennett case should be removed from Judge Scott's docket. As soon as the court was called to order Mr. Simeral, one of the attorneys for Rosewater, said he had intended to have the files of the case before the court, but he had been informed by Clerk Moores that Judge Scott had issued an order that they should not be removed from his office.

The judges ordered the clerk to produce the papers in the case at 9 a. m. to-day and cited Mr. Rosewater to be present for trial. When Scott heard this he at once entered in his journal a decree nullifying the order of the five judges and cited Rosewater to appear in his court at 9 a. m. to-day for trial. He further instructed the clerk that if he attempted to carry the papers in the case from his courtroom he would have him jailed for contempt.

ARE OUT OF POLITICS.

United States Attorneys Not Allowed to Be Active Partisans.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The attention of Attorney General Olney has been called to a statement in a telegram from Vinton, Ia., to the effect that United States Attorney Sells has been instructed to cancel his campaign engagements. Mr. Olney said that Mr. Sells had written him on the subject of his taking an active part in the campaign, and in reply the following letter had been sent him: "It is contrary to the rules of this department—uniformly laid down in every case in which application has been made—that district attorneys should participate in political campaign work."

It is said at the department of justice that substantially the same replies had been sent to a number of district attorneys from all sections of the country who had written making inquiry on the subject and that the rule stated by Mr. Olney was an old one from which there had been no deviation in the replies sent in answer to inquiries on the subject.

"GEN." KELLY'S PLAN.

Reorganizing the California Commonwealth for Future Action.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 17.—"Gen." Charles T. Kelly, who led the San Francisco regiment of the Coxy army to Washington, has completed arrangements for a new industrial march, but instead of going across the continent he will this time direct his invading forces toward San Jose and the productive regions that lie along the route. The object of his march is to secure signatures to a congressional petition for the relief of the unemployed and incidentally to obtain contributions of supplies for the army that is rapidly increasing in numbers at its big tent. Branches of the army will be established in various parts of the state with the intention of massing the forces at Sacramento during the next session of the legislature, in the manner that Coxy and his followers went to Washington.

WHERE APPLES GROW.

IN 1890 Ohio was the principal apple-growing state in the union, with a product of 13,700,000 bushels for the year.

MICHIGAN's apple product is about 13,100,000 bushels a year, with Kentucky next in order with 10,000,000 bushels a year.

The following figures show the apple product of a year in the states named: Illinois, 9,600,000; Indiana, 8,700,000; Missouri, 8,600,000; New York, 8,400,000; Virginia, 8,300,000; Pennsylvania and North Carolina, 7,500,000 each, and Tennessee, 7,200,000.

Improvements on the Nickel Plate Road.

A New Through Car line has been established over the Nickel Plate Road and D. L. & W. R. R. between Chicago and New York City. With the former through car line to New York via the West Shore R. R. and a Boston Car run over the West Shore Fishburg Route unchanged, this line will be beyond a doubt become an important factor in the eastbound passenger business.

A Matchless Dining Car Service has been arranged so as to best accommodate its patrons, and with their old motto "A Perfect Passenger Service at the Lowest Available Rates" they will no doubt secure the patronage of the traveling public. When contemplating a trip East, write Mr. J. Y. Calahan, at 190 Clark St., Chicago, Ill., or any Agent of the Nickel Plate Road, for rates, maps and full particulars.

MR. TROTTER—"I told you that Cholly's attentions to Emily Brown would never amount to anything," Mrs. Trotter—"Well, you were wrong again," they frightened Dick Foster into proposing at last, and Emily has accepted him."—HARRY'S BAZAR.

THE Oldest System of Telegraphy is that established between the brain and the nerves, which transmit instantaneously to the great organ of sensation and thought every shock they experience. These electric shocks are very vivid, painful and disturbing when the nerves are weak. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters strengthens, soothes and renders the nerves tranquil. It induces sleep, sound digestion, appetite, and conquers biliousness, malaria, rheumatism and kidney trouble.
