

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

OL IV.

RENSSELAER, IND. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1894.

No. 23

THE KING OF CLOTHIERS.

A MERRY WAR!

The vigorous manner in which we have been pushing our inimitable LOW PRICE SYSTEM

CLOTHING TRADE

in this vicinity. Our competitors, finding it necessary to "Sink or Swim" with the tide, are following us in the distance, and make futile attempts to duplicate our bargains.

They Can't be Duplicated! They are Exclusively Our Own!

It needs but a little comparison to show that we ALWAYS MAINTAIN THE LEAD. We are prepared to prove that we buy goods from 20 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any other Store in Rensselaer. You can buy them, and that we give this benefit to our customers.

We now offer the following SPECIAL BARGAINS:

CLOAKS. CLOAKS.

Ladies' Black Beaver Jackets, worth $7.50, special price. $4.75
Ladies' Seal Plush Jackets, worth $18, special price. 12 00
Ladies' Brown Beaver Jacket, worth 16.50, special price. 10 00
Children's Cloaks, $1, $2, $3, $4 and $5.
CLOAKS MUST GO. Our Prices are cut in 50 for the next 30 days.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

Here is where our competitors copy from us. Ladies' Felt Boots, 4 stays, buckle overs. $2 00
Ladies' Congress Shoes. 1 38
Ladies' Oil Grain, Congress or Lace, Shoes, 1 00
Call in and see our line of rubber goods, also other goods B-4 buying elsewhere.

DRESS GOODS.

50c 42 inch Ladies' Cloth. 38c
75c 46 " " 45c
$1.25 54 " "Civet" 95c
75c 44 " all wool Henrietta. 42c
20c 36 " "Civet cloth. 14c
20c 36 " Fancy Plaid. 14c
Dress Goods we are determined to make a sale in this department during November.

OVERCOATS AND SUITS.

Men's Overcoat, worth $8, special price. $4.75
Men's Overcoat, " $10 and $12.50. 7 50
Boys' Overcoat, 4 to 12 years, worth $2.50, 1 50
Boys' Overcoats, $2.50, $3, $4, $5.
Men's Satinet Suit, worth $6, special price 4 50
Men's All Wool " $10 " 7 00
Youth's Satinet Suit, " $4.50 " 3 50
Men's Working Pants, " $1.75 " 1 00
Plush and Cloth Capes, Underwear, Hats and Caps, Flannel Shirts. We will commence a special sale in this department.

DRY GOODS.

Gingham. 34c
Calico. 23c
Lawrence LL Muslin. 25c
Bleached Muslin. 5c
Canton Flannel. 4c
A good pair Blankets. 45c
Our 30c Jeans. 22c
Our 25c Ladies' Wool Hose. 19c
Our 7c Toweling. 5c
Our Floor Oil Cloth. 15c
Our 35c Corset. 25c
Our 75c Corset. 45c
These prices you cannot miss. Call in and see us.

THE MODEL.

Leader of Low Prices.

WILL A. MOSSLER, Manager. Rensselaer, Indiana.

Albert and Elvin Overton are visiting relatives in Lebanon this week.

Mrs. Henry Taylor, of Lafayette, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCoy.

John Tharp and daughter, of Remington, spent Sunday in Rensselaer.

Ralph Sprague has been visiting friends in Rensselaer for the past few weeks.

There was a social dance at the Iroquois club rooms, last Thursday evening.

We have a very interesting letter from Tefft which we will publish next week.

On account of cleaning the M. E. church, there were no services there last Sunday.

George McCarthy fell from a load of hay Wednesday and dislocated his shoulder.

Joe Peffley, of Remington, visited friends in Rensselaer, the first of the week.

Hiram Day and Miss Allie Smith were married at the bride's home, last week.

Examine C. E. Hershman's new stoves, and learn prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Sell Grant went to Fair Oaks, last Monday, to do some paper hanging for Isaac Knight.

Miss Nellie Hopkins has been visiting friends in South Chicago, for the past few weeks.

Hunters, C. E. Hershman pays the highest market price for game. Give him a call.

Frank Robinson has sold his home farm in Barkley township to Ed. Parkinson, for $8,000.

1/4 off marked price, 1 lot of coats broken sizes, to close. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Frank Hunt, of Flora, Ind., is visiting his brother, Judson Hunt, the recorder, this week.

Audrey Ropp will buzz up your head with his new steam saw or 45 cents a cord. Call on him.

Judge Wiley has ordered quite a number of changes in the arrangement of the court room.

The Marguerite club gave a party at the home of Miss Bertha Hammond Wednesday evening.

Lou Mossler, of Thorntown, and Ike Leopold, of Wolcott, were in town last Monday, on business.

James E. Sharrock, of Taylorville, is here looking at land. He is the guest of Rev. M. A. Paradis.

Mrs. Henry Barkley, her two sons and Mrs. Harding, will leave Monday for Mississippi to spend the winter.

Rev. J. L. Brady, of the Christian church of this place is assisting in a revival meeting at Remington this week.

W. N. Jones offers his services to those who have sales this fall. W. N. is an old experienced crier. Give him a call.

Bert Rhoades is beginning to get around, with the aid of a pair of crutches, after a long illness with a broken leg.

See our bargain counter broken sizes, all kinds underwear at about 1/2 price to close. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Marsh Warner, of the firm of Warner & Shead, was married last evening to Miss Belle Holmes, at her home in Delphi.

Prof. Purdne, principal of the high schools here is giving a very interesting course of lectures to his scholars. They occur once a week at the school house.

Biggest Drive of the Season

250 styles in Men's, Boys' and Children's

CAPS.

We have secured entire sample line of one of the largest Hat Houses in the country at a

Big Cut in Price.

We are thus enabled to sell CAPS at Wholesale Prices, which means a big saving to our customers.

Men's Plush Caps, in Brighton, Windsors and Stanleys, 50 styles in all. 50c to $1.65
Same styles in cloth. 20c to $1
Boys' Plush Turbans, Stanley, Brightons, Windsors. 35c to $1.15
Same styles in Cloth. 15c to 75c

42 styles in Children's Caps, including Stanleys, Tam O Shanter, Turbans, in fact everything late and nobby.

This is the finest line of Caps ever brought to the City; need to be seen to be appreciated.

We guarantee a saving of from 25 to 50 per cent. Come early and secure a good, as at prices caps are offered they are moving fast.

FENDIG'S FAIR.

Wm. Beam, agent at the depot, has been dispatching trains at Monon for the past two weeks.

ICK Yates, of the firm of Alter & Yates, accidentally stuck a knife blade in his knee, and is going around very lame as a result.

While Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goff were in Chicago, last week, they purchased some Gold fish which can be seen in Mr. Goff's window.

Estey organ for sale. Little used; will sell on the installment plan. Inquire at the store or residence of J. R. Vanatta.

The Goodland Herald has enlarged its sheet to a 7-column quarto, which makes one of the neatest papers in this part of the state.

W. W. Brockie, who lives near Blackford, and ten miles north of Rensselaer, sold his farm to Sherman Renicker last Tuesday.

A party was given by Miss Maggie Healy, last Tuesday evening. Quite a number of young people were present and had a pleasant time.

George Hoyes, who died three or four years ago, and was buried in the Smith cemetery, was removed to Weston cemetery, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goff, of New York, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Goff, of this place, returned to their home last week.

Go to the Ladies' Bazaar for your Christmas presents. It will be held about the 21st of December by the ladies of the Presbyterian church.

We acknowledge the receipt of a very cordial invitation to attend the laying of the corner stone of the new court house at Winamac, Nov. 27th.

There was a wrestling match between Randolph Wright and some man at Mt. Ayr, last Saturday, which, of course, resulted in a victory for Wright.

Marriage licenses since last reported: Hiram Day to Allie May Smith; Joseph H. Ballard to Bessie Whittaker; Barnett E. Vanatta to Sylvia J. Kendall.

Logan Wood, the Aix merchant lost two cadies of tobacco on the road between Rensselaer and Aix Tuesday. A liberal reward is offered for its return.

If you want to save your hard earned dollar, buy your clothing and shoes at the reliable, one price,

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE. The Lester Comedy company was billed to play here, this week, but they did not appear, and from late news we find that they had disbanded at Monticello.

Just received a new line of ladies' and gents new style Piccadilly toe shoes worth $4 for $2.85.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE. A young man from Brook was here last Monday, looking for carpenters, but they seem to have plenty of work at home, as he went back very much disappointed.

All the churches unite in Thanksgiving services at the M. E. church next Thursday at 10:30 a. m. Services by Rev. Mr. Paradis, of the Presbyterian church.

In another column will be found a cure for hog cholera, which has been kindly handed us by William Washburn. Mr. Washburn has tried this remedy and thinks it a good one.

Joseph Meyers, who has been firing at the electric light plant, received a shock Saturday night that so paralyzed one of his arms that it has lost the power of both feeling and motion.

Geo. K. Hollingsworth is moving from his home on Front street to his newly purchased place on Washington street. Delos Thompson will move into the house Mr. Hollingsworth vacated.

Esther Elizabeth, daughter of Edward and Emma Rhoades, died at their home, last Saturday. Funeral services were held Monday. Rev. R. D. Utter officiating. Interment in Weston cemetery.

The members of the Christian church held a social at the home of Felix French, last Friday evening. Refreshments consisted of baked lamb and cocoa. Everybody had a very pleasant time.

If you are going to set trees this fall, give me a call. I sell the best stock at very low prices. 5,000 2-year-old grape vines at 5 cents each, ready for delivery after October 10th. Nursery one-half mile northeast of F. Resman, Ind. J. A. WOOLMAN.

MONON TIMETABLE.

SOUTH
10:52 A. M.	11:23 P. M.
11:23 P. M.	6:21 P. M.
6:21 P. M.	3:25 P. M.
NORTH
3:25 P. M.	4:45 A. M.
4:45 A. M.	7:29 A. M.
7:29 A. M.	10:00 A. M.
10:00 A. M.	9:56 P. M.
Stop on signal, except Sun.

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

HOLDERS.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

The stockholders of the PILOT PUBLISHING COMPANY will meet special session, at the Nowels house, Saturday afternoon, Dec. 1894.

Since the organization of this company, conditions have changed and experience has taught many new lessons. With business increasing, new and unexpected demands are made on us, and to place ourselves in position to meet the requirements of the times, radical changes in our organization and the management of our business must be made.

D. H. YEOMAN, Pres. LEE E. GLAZEBROOK, Secy.

Bargains in cloaks at Nowels' A girl baby at Ben King's last night.

B. F. Fendig went to Chicago, last Tuesday.

For ladies' cloaks, go to C. D. Nowels.

A new paper has been started at Metaryville.

Everything in dry goods line go to C. D. Nowels.

Simon Fendig, of Wheatfield, spent Sunday in Rensselaer.

Mr. Keifer is very sick at her home on Front street.

For good board and lodging go to the Comer House.

Lee Catt and Ray Wood spent last Sunday in Remington.

Call and see these beautiful stoves at C. E. Hershman's.

BORN—to Mr. and Mrs. John Jones, last Tuesday, a girl.

Dick Stone, is very ill from a bad cut with a corn knife.

Winamac has a canning factory; what about Rensselaer?

Alfred McCoy sold his big ranch at Marlboro, last week.

Frank Foltz visited friends in Oxford and Fowler, last week.

James, W. Douthit was in Kentland Monday on legal business.

Manford Ramey, an employe of the Cambe livery stable, was kicked in the head by a horse last Saturday.

10 per cent. off marked price of every Astrachan and Canada seal cape left.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Rev. Baech was in town yesterday.

The Kentland Democrat has been sold to Edward Steinbaek.

Ross Sigler sold his hunting dog to John Tharp, of Remington.

Come in and see what you can save on blankets Saturday, Nov. 24. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE

FOR RENT—A house of six rooms. Call on Charles E. Mills.

Head quarters for ladies' and gents' latest style mackintoshes. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Goodland's electric light plant started in full blast last Wednesday evening.

Many blankets at cost sale day only, Saturday, Nov. 24. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

There will be a box supper at the Free Will Baptist church, to-morrow night.

The great discount special sale of blankets Saturday, Nov. 24. CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Grant, of Remington, visited friends in Rensselaer, last Sunday.

Special blanket sale Saturday, Nov. 24.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Carpenter, of Whitehall, Mich., are visiting in Rensselaer.

August Rosenbaum and Jim McColly were at Indianapolis the first of the week.

Special sale days every two weeks beginning Saturday, Nov. 24.

CHICAGO BARGAIN STORE.