

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods to make, and every place is equipped as follows:

Ask for this and refuse to take any imitation. It is the only collar that keeps clean, does not fray, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. Celluloid is the only waterproof goods to make, and every place is equipped as follows:

THE CHICAGO TIMES.
Established 1854.
THE PEOPLE'S PAPER.
8, 12 and 16 Pages Daily.

32 to 48 Pages Sunday.

No great daily in the United States is so closely in touch with the people as The Chicago Times. Its policy is progressive, liberal, tolerant. The Times holds that existing social, political, and industrial conditions are not founded upon the principle of equal rights to all and special privileges to none. That under existing conditions injustice necessarily done the mass of the people. The Times has its own convictions as to how these conditions may be amended. While urging its own beliefs strenuously and intelligently it does not dismiss with contempt or without a hearing the advocates of other economic reforms. The Times is fearless in its utterances and unswerving in its devotion to the great body of the people. The Times believes in free speech, the free coinage of silver, and radical tariff reform. The Times believes in government control of all natural monopolies. The Times believes in such a tax on land values as shall lighten the burden of the farmer and make the owner of valuable city property pay his just share. The Times believes in the wisdom and good faith of the people. The Times prints all the news from all the world in a manner interesting and instructive to all the people.

Leaves the Republican Party.
WHEATFIELD, IND., Nov. 12, '94.
Mr. T. J. McCoy,
Chm. Rep. County Cen. Com.

DEAR SIR:—I hereby tender you my resignation as chairman of the Republican Township Committee for Wheatfield township, and formally withdraw from the Republican party.

I assure you that I do not take this step without fully understanding and realizing its consequences. It is no hasty act, but one which has received my most sincere and sober thought, I had always looked to the Republican party as the friend and protector of the weak, defenseless and oppressed among our people. That it ever stood ready to reward and honor those who by earnest and unremitting service had helped to achieve its victories.

But when I see it turn away from the cause of the common people, and fall down before the golden idols of corporate power, when instead of heeding the cry of the oppressed it lends itself a willing tool to oppressors; when it arrays itself with the strong against the weak; when it disregards and treats with contempt the claims of those who have borne the burden of party service in the heat of day and permits a few men actuated by their own selfish interests to dictate its policy and elevate to office and leadership men who will do their bidding I deem it time for honorable and patriotic men to withdraw their support from it.

I wish it distinctly understood however, that I am yet a Republican of Abraham Lincoln type, but not one of the Charles J. Guiteau type by any means, and still remaining a friend to a friend and an enemy to an enemy.

Therefore I resign the honor of the chairmanship of the above mentioned committee and respectfully request you to publish this letter.

Yours Respectfully,
JOHN GRAVES.

Opening a watch with a knife or finger-nail is needless in our day. The Keystone Watch Case Company, of Philadelphia, Pa., furnishes free a handsome watch case opener which makes, besides, a pretty charm for the watch chain. If you can't get one from your jeweler, send to Philadelphia. This Company is the largest of its kind in the world, and makes all kinds of cases. Its specialty is the Boss filled case. Jas. Boss invented and made the first filled case in 1859, and many of the cases then made and worn since are still intact. Later the Boss patents passed into the hands of the Keystone Company, which has the sole right to make these cases. It has also the sole right to use on its cases the patent Non-pull-out bow or ring, which prevents loss of the watch by theft or injury to it by accident. The Keystone Company does not retail, but all jewelers sell the Boss and other Keystone cases.

One has but to look into Ben Fendig's face to see that he has suffered a great loss—mustache. Smith's Comedy Company: 11 next week.

Some drunken fellows opened a window and entered Lakey & Saylor's bake shop, Monday morning some time between 12 and 3 o'clock. They kindled a fire and burnt all the wood that had been prepared for the next days' baking, ate about a dozen eggs and left two half-pint whiskey bottles and part of a pack of cards on the table. Not satisfied with this they upset the salt and baking powder boxes, and left the window open when they went away. Joe Lakey had set his sponge the night before and the cold air delayed the process of raising, so that he was about 6 hours behind with his baking. Such conduct as this should be severely reprimanded.

The Indiana School Journal of this month has an essay that is deep and thorough in its subject matter and presupposes very careful thought by the writer, and we are proud to see that the writer is a Jasper county girl, Miss Kate Rodgers. A more elaborate essay by the same person came to us in Harpers Monthly of New York. The subject is "Review of the English Language." It is a full and complete discussion and compares it with other languages. Both essays will do much good for the earnest student of literature.

Hartley Bros., general grain dealers whose main offices are at Goodland and Remington, but who own and control a number of elevators throughout the country, are erecting office scales, cribs etc. at the corner of Vine and Dayton streets west of the depot, and will probably be prepared the last of this week to receive grain at prices paid by them at Remington, Goodland, Mt. Ayr, Foresman and other points.

A raffle craze seems to have struck Rensselaer, almost every man you meet will ask you to take a draw on a horse, cow or some other article for which there is a poor sale. Their method is to put the numbers into envelopes and seal them. You draw a number and charge as many cents for the draw as the number calls for. When the numbers are all sold the lucky number is decided by means of dice.

Uncle Charley Rhoades, the harness maker, celebrated his 81st birthday last Tuesday, and the occasion was not forgotten by his friends who gave him some nice presents. Uncle Charley went to his bench, as usual, as spry as a kitten. He is the oldest active harness-maker in the state, and as good a workman as can be found anywhere.

Girls are of few days and full of mischief, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. When the fair girl cheweth her gum with great taste, and stampeth her pretty foot then look out. She cometh forth in the evening in low neck and short sleeves, but in the morning she lieth in bed while her mother hustleth.—Oxford Tribune.

The Rensselaer cornet band met in their new practice room in the Nowels block, and adopted a constitution and by-laws and completed a thorough organization. H. V. Weaver was appointed musical director, and displayed considerable skill in the management of the boys. The band will have about 12 pieces for next year's work.

A drive through the country shows us that about one-half of the corn crop is in and the cribs are all full, the primitive rail pen is again in demand. Farmers of Jasper county can just make up their minds to prepare for larger cribs for all this ditching and tiling the past two years is bound to show its effect upon their granaries.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mel LaRue this morning.
