At George M. Wilcox's Friday night, Dec. 28th—It's a girl.

Our state legislature meets next Thursday, Jan. 10, 1895.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hemphill and son, are home on a visit.

Dr. Alter now occupies the front room over the postoffice.

Benhard Leopold and wife, of Remington, attended the dance.

Louie Hopkins, of Chicago, spent New Years in Rensselaer.

Cheap and good at Lakey's bake shop. Seven loaves of bread for 25 cents.

Belle Lally, of Remington, spent New Years in Rensselaer.

No use of baking bread when you can get it at Lakey's, one door east of Morgan's barber shop.

Miss Lillian Montrose the leading lady of the Tilden-Steele Comedy Company has won the favor of everyone. Prof. T. J. Burke, the pianist, is also a wonder.

Anybody wishing to see a good play should attend the theatre at the opera house this week. Their plays are first-class and their specialties superb.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Frank Osborne, Saturday, Jan. 5, at 2 p. m. promptly. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

The Loyal Temperance Legion will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Osborne, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 5, at 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Yeoman died at their home last Tuesday evening. Funeral services were held at the residence last Thursday. Interment in Weston cemetery.

An old-fashioned quilting at Horatio Ropp's last week. The title was when the quilting, the wool-picking and the wood-chopping served the purpose of the daily newspaper.

Will Clark, in company with two other young men from Brook, was skating to Rensselaer, last Monday, they were going very fast when Will Clark ran into a wire stretched across the river, and cut his face very bad.

A medical journal says that a good way to keep awake in church is to chew wintergreen. We hear the impression that Crown Pointers chew cloves for that purpose but we may be mistaken. They may chew them for something else.—Lake Co. News.

It is said that parties are now going through the country buying up old worn horses and working them up into canned meat. If we must eat horse flesh let it be young, fat, tender three year olds that have never been worked.

Prof Fisk, the advertising aeronaut, while sending his goats up in a storm and while he was under the "florence" was arrested at Valparaiso on a charge of cruelty to animals. Prof. Fisk, the gentleman of avoidupolis, is well remembered here.—Lake Co. News.

The O'Meara school one and one-half miles south-east of Rensselaer, will give a box social Friday evening, January 11. Proceeds for the benefit of the Young People's Reading Circle. Everybody invited. BLANCHE HOVES, Teacher.

It is a noticeable fact that many good items are lost to newspapers every week by the modesty of the people who hesitate to tell the reporter matters concerning themselves. Don't think it too forward to give items concerning yourself. The right thing to do is to stop a newspaper man on the street or any other place you happen to meet him and tell him that you have been on a visit, have relatives visiting you, that your wife entertained company or in fact anything that is in any way a matter of news. If you have done anything mean, of course keep it to yourself, for there are always others to tell that.—Remington Press.

W. A. MOSSLER, Mgr. Rensselaer, Indiana.

Miss Kate Wood, of Lee, is visiting in Rensselaer.

Cheap wheat, cheap flour and cheap bread. J. E. LAKEY.

Mr. Hanson, of Monon, attended the dance, last Monday evening.

The Tilden-Steele Comedy Company are filling a week's engagement at this place. Every member of the company seems to be almost perfect.

C. W. Coen will keep a stock of gas burned tile during the winter and make a special discount when parties will take a car load.

Elvin Israel, brother of C. W. Israel, who has just completed a five years term of service in the U. S. Army, is visiting his relatives in this county.

Alvey Rowley, of Newton township, having been confined to his bed with typhoid fever for several months, his neighbors last Thursday and Friday turned out and husked his corn for him. There were fourteen teams the first day and five the second; each man furnished his own feed so the work was entirely gratis. Mr. Rowley's neighbors treated him right.

The following parts were rendered by members of the Tilden-Steele Theatrical Company, who have been filling a week's engagement at the opera house, this week. Notable among these, are Carrie Lowe, in the part of Mrs. Boggs, on Tuesday night and Abbie last night. Lillian Montrose in the part of Bess, and also her specialties. Mr. Murphy is a wonder in the part of Bixby and Snapp. Mr. Tilden and Steele are also high class actors.

We clip the following from the New York Sun concerning the robbery of the Brill Bros. store. Max Brill was a few years ago a clerk in Ralph Fendig's store here and is therefore well known to many of our readers: "For the second time in six months Brill Bros., dealers in men's furnishing goods at 211 Sixth avenue, have been the victims of an adroitly executed robbery. Thieves broke into the store some time between 1 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon and 8 o'clock yesterday morning by way of the transom over the front door. The fact that the corner of Fourteenth street, near which the store is, is brilliantly lighted did not in the least deter the robbers. They stole about $300 worth of canes and umbrellas, gold lockets and watch charms, and several gross of silk handkerchiefs. The robbery was discovered at 8 o'clock yesterday morning by Max Brill. The other robbery of Brill Bros. store was on May 26, when burglars bored through the wall of the fourth story of the adjoining house. They broke open the safe and got $900 in cash and $50 in stamps. It was thought that "Sheeney Mike" and his gang were the thieves, but after their arrest they were discharged for lack of evidence.

The public installation of the officers of the Masonic and Eastern Star Lodges at their lodge room last Thursday evening, was one of the most pleasant affairs of the holiday season. It afforded entertainment to about one hundred and fifty spectators among whom were a number of holiday visitors. The services opened with the installation of the Eastern Star officers with Mrs. Belle Spittler as installing officer. The following officers were conducted to their respective stations and instructed as to their duties: Lizzie Long, worthy matron; B. F. Fendig, worthy patron; Blanche Loughridge, associate matron; Nellie Hopkins, conductress; Mrs. W. H. Coover, associate conductress; Adah, Helen Kelley, Ruth, Cora Nowels, Esther, Ray Mossler, Martha, Dora Hardman, elector, Miss French; warden, Mrs. Eger; Sentinel, D. J. Thompson; chaplain, Mrs. M. L. Spittler, organist, Nellie Moss. A vocal solo by Miss Matheson followed which was well rendered. The following officers were then installed by Past Master, Jas. H. Loughridge, into their masonic stations. B. F. Fendig, worshipful master; C. G. Spittler, senior warden; H. L. Brown, junior warden; Ralph Fendig, treasurer; G. M. Wasson, secretary; A. W. Hopkins, senior deacon; D. J. Thompson, junior deacon; A. R. Hopkins, senior steward; V. E. Loughridge, junior steward; W. J. Imes, tyler. A bass solo by Mr. Matheson and a recitation by Miss Dottie, of Chicago, concluded the literary programme. Then followed an elegant repast of turkey and its usual accompaniments. The dancers then retired to the Iroquois Club rooms where they kept up the merry whirl until early morn. The masonic lodge of this place is one of the oldest institutions of the kind in the county. It is governed almost wholly now by young men and is in a very prosperous condition. The public installation is looked forward to as one of the most pleasant social affairs of the year.
