

Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof Interlined Collars or Cuffs? It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID

They are the only Interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID." They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID

These collars and cuffs will outlast six linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no chafed neck and no wilting down if you get a collar marked this way

TRADE MARK.
CELLULOID

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. All others are imitations absolutely.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. Give your size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

THE POST OFFICE.

Money Order Fees.

The postoffice is an institution run upon the principle of the very best service at actual cost. Money sent by its order system is the very safest, most convenient and the cheapest means of transportation. Every cent that is paid for stamps, or for fees is that much of the nation's taxes paid. It is the duty of all good citizens to patronize the postoffice in every way possible. The following are the rates:

| | |
|-------------------------------|------|
| Orders not exceeding $2.50 | 3c. |
| Orders not exceeding $5.00 | 5c. |
| Orders not exceeding $10.00 | 8c. |

Russell Threshing Machines.

L. S. Renicher is the agent for the Russell threshing machine. Any one contemplating the purchase of a thresher should see him and investigate the merits of this machine. He has used one with unequalled satisfaction in this county, and can guarantee every claim for it. Farmers who have had work done with it prefer it to any other. Prices as low as are asked for inferior machines, and the easiest possible terms given for time payments. A full steam outfit will be on exhibition near Rensselaer depot after the 15th of April.

Remember the "exchange," run every Saturday by the Christian church ladies in C. D. Nowell's store; they have all kinds of pastries, baking, and other edibles, also needle and fancy work.

The Rensselaer cornet band has secured the services of an accomplished elocutionist, Miss Doty of Chicago, for their free entertainment next Wednesday.

J. F. Bruner and D. E. Fairchild were down from DeMotte last Monday.

A full line of capes, waists and ready-made dresses.

Chicago Bargain Store.

Sampson and Ed. Erwin of DeMotte were in town the first of the week.

88 late patterns of carpets in bolts and samples.

Chicago Bargain Store.

Mr. Frank Hardy of Remington will be present at the grand free band concert next Wednesday evening, and entertain the people with a vocal solo. Mr. Hardy is a talented young man and you should not fail to hear him.

All the latest novelties in hats, caps, neckwear, etc.

Chicago Bargain Store.

Chas. Rhoades the harness maker is getting around after a severe illness.

The most complete line of shoes ever offered in town, at prices below all competition.

Chicago Bargain Store.

Gleason, the horse buyer, was around again this week.

Chas. C. Spencer of Monticello attended court in Rensselaer this week.

Benhart and Isaac Leopold of Wolcott were in Rensselaer the first of the week.

Billy Lawrence stopped off in Rensselaer last Saturday night on his way home from another trip. Billy looks well and it seems that the front end agrees with his health.

Creviston Brothers make their market a desirable and satisfactory place to trade by keeping only the best meats and selling for the lowest prices.

The land sales in Jasper county the past ten months have been something phenomenal. Hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of land has changed owners in that time.

Miss Minnie Lebold of Barkley township has been very sick for several weeks.

Dr. Washburn went to Pulaski county last Friday to visit his father, who has been dangerously sick, but was improving. He is nearly eighty years old. He has lived longer in that county than any other citizen. It has been fifty-seven years since he located there.

The number of new faces that are seen every day on the streets of Rensselaer is indicative of a large increase of population in the town and surrounding country.

If the people who own large tracts of land in Jasper county would improve them in 80 or 160 acres farms they would benefit themselves, instead of holding on, until death separates them from their many broad acres.

The boy who pulls chickens and kittens to pieces, and hammers small children and puppies, and throws stones at older people for amusement, needs some pretty coercive training or he may pull hemp without a foot-hold.

Mrs. M. E. Lecklider and son went to the city Thursday, and their store will be closed one week. Mrs. Lecklider is studying styles of millinery and Clarence is buying a new stock of installment goods.

Not long since Geo. Beckley of Pulaski county sold his farm, located three miles northwest of Star City, for $9,500. The purchaser sold it for $12,000, and sold it since to a third for $14,000.

Martin Lebold of Gillam township sold his farm and has purchased one north of Star City in Pulaski county. In fact his farm has been sold twice, and purchaser forfeited the first payment.

The members of the Good Hope congregation of the Christian church are preparing to erect a house of worship on the southwest corner of Jacob Keener's farm. It is about one half mile west of Brushwood school-house in Union township. Elder Peterson is soliciting subscription for the building.

Rensselaer's own production, the first and only lady cornetists in popular duets. Don't fail to hear them at the Opera House, March 27.

The piles that support the new Burk bridge will have to be 53 feet long, as it is that far to solid earth. The new bridge is to be at least 300 feet long. A few good men think it should be 500 feet long.

It is reported that a school na'am of the south end of the county is giving the misses of her school lessons in athletics. She can very easily kick three inches higher than her head, as she has demonstrated frequently.

It is said Prof. Perdue would rather deliver a lecture on his favorite hobby, geology, than be hugged in church, especially by a male evangelist.

Ex-Trustee A. E. Griswold is said to be very sick of a disease that puzzles his physicians very much.

The bill board of the Opera House was a dangerous thing last Wednesday during the high wind. It blew down several times. It struck a life insurance agent, but did not "phaze" him.

From the number of dogs on the street the assessor ought to obtain a pretty long list to be taxed for county and town purposes.

Quite a number of those people who were opposed to gravel-roads, one year ago, now express themselves as glad they are here.

Mother Callow is slowly improving. Her advanced age of 84 precludes the possibility of a quick recovery.

The well known basso profundo Mr. Frank Hardy in popular solos with Rensselaer cornet band's Grand Free Musicale, Wednesday, March 27.

An account of remarkable frauds that have been practiced on the Bank of England and of the grave crises through which it has passed, along with a description of the Bank and of its methods of business, will appear, with numerous pictures, in McClure's Magazine for April.

Ladies, Here's Your Chance.

I will teach Prof. De La Morton's "tailor system" at reduced prices until April 15th, 1895, as follows: Two scholars at $9 each, or three scholars at $8 each. I will also furnish scholars with system, instruction, book and diploma, when completed. Terms: half in advance, balance when completed. Former price, $10 per scholar. Remember, this offer will not last longer than April 15th. Those entering thereafter at regular price. I have one scholar; who will be the second and third? I will also cut and fit until April 30th, at reduced prices. Call for terms.

Nebraska Sufferers.

There will be a meeting of the citizens of Rensselaer and vicinity at the Free Will Baptist church in Rensselaer Saturday, March 23rd at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of considering the matter of sending relief to the drouth sufferers of Gosper county, Nebraska. Their destitution and suffering is great, through no fault of theirs. Let us come to their relief. A statement of the facts will be made by S. B. Yeoman, a resident of that county. Let all who have a humane feeling for their fellow men be present at this meeting.

B. F. FERGUSON.

First Trip of the Season.

Last Sunday Albert Overton and Vernon Nowels of this place took a ride of about 35 miles on their bicycles. They rode from here to Remington, from Remington to Wolcott, from Wolcott to Reynolds, and from Reynolds to Monon, and then came home on the nine o'clock freight train. They made a very good trip of it as they left here at 1 o'clock and arrived at Remington 10 minutes before 4. They left there shortly after 4 o'clock and got in Monon about half past seven. This was a very fast trip considering the bad roads and the few accidents encountered.
