$600 FOR THE BAND.
That is the way Rensselaer redeems herself, after being a little careless in years ago. $600 is what were the contributions at the concert last Wednesday night, including the subscriptions since added and pledged by the enterprising committee, T. J. McCoy. The concert was the most finished entertainment, from the standpoint of talent, that has ever been given in this city, and was appreciated by an audience that was glad to find even standing room.

The greatest credit is due to Rev. B. F. Ferguson for the magnificent service rendered in raising the fund to uniform the boys and equip them with first class instruments.

Next week the PILOT will print a list of all the people who have not subscribed to the fund, the list of those who have contributed being altogether too long for publication.

Death of Joseph Shindler.
Joseph Shindler was born in Bohemia, Austria, Feb. 1, 1860, and died March 26, 1895, aged 35 years, 1 month and 25 days. The deceased was a son of James and Verma Shindler, well known and respected citizens of Newton township. He was a victim of consumption, having been sick for a long time. He was a kind and honest man, loved and respected by all who knew him. The deceased leaves a widow and three children, father, mother, sister (Mrs. Mary Bill) and brother (James, of Washington state) to mourn his loss. The funeral was held at Rensselaer at 2 p. m. Death of Dora Goodman.
Miss Dora Goodman, who died in Monticello last Sunday had a great many friends in Rensselaer who will sincerely regret her untimely demise. She was indeed a most estimable young lady whose many accomplishments and charming ways were recognized by all her associates. It was a bright future which was opening to her progressive mind, and it seems hard that it should be cut short in early life.

The following is kindly contributed by one of her friends: Dora was stricken with a paralytic stroke some time ago and had been very sick, but was improving rapidly; was looking and feeling much better Saturday, p. m. up until 8 o'clock, when she was stricken with paralysis of the heart and died before medical aid could reach her.

Services were conducted at the home, Monday at 4 o'clock, by Rev. H. G. Price of the Presbyterian church of Monticello.

Interment took place, in a Jewish cemetery, in Detroit, Michigan, Wednesday, March 27.

Dora M. Goodman was born in Detroit Michigan March 22, 1876; died March 24, 1895, age 19 years and 2 days. The floral tributes were beautiful; among them was a large harp of lilies, carnations, roses and smilax, with one string broken; the broken string was especially appropriate as Dora is the first we have lost from the circle.
