REMINGTON.

REMINGTON, in which place The People's Pilot has an extensive circulation, is a very pretty village of over 1,000 population, situated in the extreme southern part of Jasper county on the C., M. & P. railway 125 miles from Chicago. Largest hay shipping point in Indiana; fine horses, cattle and hogs; rich agricultural lands worth up to $75 per acre and higher; four warehouses; county fair; excellent high schools; fine churches; well-graded gravel roads in all directions; two banks.

Written for last week's issue.

Mr. Frank Peck and Miss May Tedford were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tedford, in Remington on Thursday evening Oct., 10, the Rev. McKee, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. There were a goodly number of friends and relatives in attendance from abroad and at home. After the ceremony and an elaborate supper, the newly wedded couple repaired to their new home in Remington which had been amply equipped for their reception, when they at once set up house-keeping, and started out on life's journey in double harness. The best wishes for their future welfare go with them from their numerous friends here and elsewhere.

David Cresse, son of Daniel T. Cresse is still seriously sick with typhoid fever. He had been attending the Remington schools until he was stricken with this dread disease about three weeks ago.

Miss Michel, the daughter of the present Methodist minister here, is also sick with typhoid fever. She had also been going to school when taken sick.

We also note the serious illness of the following gentlemen: James Snell, south-east of Remington about four miles in Benton county, is a severe sufferer from throat trouble and also has a low type of fever with typhoid tendency.

N. H. Walker, in the south-east part of town, is also afflicted with a fever of typhoid form, but not particularly serious at this time. James E. Stiller of Remington is severely afflicted with a complication of disabilities which have been gradually coming upon him for the past two or three weeks. His present condition appears to be quite serious, but we hope the cooler weather, which we are at present experiencing, will have the tendency to improve all cases of sickness and that we may soon see them on our streets again in the enjoyment of their former good health. Rev. J. T. Carson is still unable to attend to his duties as pastor here but we are informed that he is slowly improving.

Mr. Reynolds, of the Remington Press Staff, has removed to the south-western part of Remington into the new dwelling recently erected by C. E. Harlach.

A majority of the members of Schuyler Lodge No. 284, I. O. O. F., attended the dedicatory services of the new lodge hall belonging to Iroquois Lodge No. 143, I. O. O. F., at Rensselaer on the 16th inst. Their initiatory team conferred the initiatory degree on candidates for membership while there.

A. D. Babcock of Goodland exhibited his smiling countenance and robust anatomy in Remington last Saturday. Dwight is one of the hustlers we hear of from way back.

Pleasant sunshiny days and the cool nights, are making the people feel healthier and they are accordingly becoming somewhat more frisky than usual.

"Stub" or the "Fool from Boston," a new comedy drama in four acts, will be played by Home Talent in Durand hall Saturday evening October 26th.

The troupe that entertains the audience at that time is the same that played last spring and whose acting was spoken of in high terms by all who witnessed their play at that time. An Oyster supper by the ladies of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Christian church will follow the play. Everybody is invited to turn out and encourage the young people of the troupe, and the ladies in their laudable enterprises.

Hon. Anson Wolcott of Wolcott spends a great deal of his time in Remington overseeing repairs that he is making on his elevator in the western part of town.

Austin B. Coleman, our enterprising rail road agent, is preparing to build a $1000 cottage on the lots he purchased of W. C. Kirk last week in Bartoo's addition.

We also understand that Chas. Balcom, north-east of Remington, is preparing to build a good residence on Ohio street, north of Mr. Parks. Let the good work proceed. It all helps to make a town.

Our Remington boys are reorganizing their brass band, this is as it should be. We have a nice little town and in it the material for a first class band and a good band will be a credit to the place.

The railway mail agent who was so seriously injured two or three weeks since, over in Illinois on the L. P. & W. Ry., in an accident, has so far recovered as to be taken to his home in Logansport. It is said however that he has lost his reason.

The failure of our hay and oats crop has caused the times here to be very much depressed. We have a fairly good corn crop but the prices are not what our people would wish to have them, owing perhaps to the enormous crop grown this year throughout the United States. We believe however that business is looking up a little, and hope to see matters moving along briskly through the balance of the fall and winter.

Sudden Death at Tefft.

Mrs. Sarah Jones, wife of C. C. Jones, Esq., of Tefft, died very suddenly last Monday night at 8 o'clock, Oct. 21, at the age of 63 years. She leaves a husband and son, T. J. Jones of Tefft, and one daughter, Mrs. Lee E. Glazebrook of Rensselaer. She was apparently in good health in the morning of that day. Mr. and Mrs. Glazebrook were visiting there on Sunday and left for home Monday morning. They returned Tuesday morning in response to a telegram, to remain until after the funeral.

Mrs. Jones had spent the evening pleasantly with some visiting relatives and was preparing to retire for the night, when, stooping forward to unlace her shoes, she fell from her chair and died instantly.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist church for fifty years.

It is such a life as she has lived that makes meaning to the oft used and much abused words, "a true Christian, a kind mother, and a faithful wife."

Funeral services were held at the Dunnville M. E. church. Interment at San Pierre cemetery.

Lee Wants a Telephone Line.

Lee, Oct., 22.—Bert Rishling Sundayed at home.

Armand B. Lewis returned from La Fayette via Remington Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt. Schooler of Brookston visited relatives at Lee Saturday and Sunday.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of our trustee, Eli Wood, formerly of this place.

The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Jacks is quite sick with malarial fever.

It seems that as this little town has no manner of communication with other towns except by letter that a telephone line connecting it with Monon and Rensselaer would be one of the greatest improvements that could be made. There are times when a great inconvenience is suffered by not having a quick way of communication, and such an enterprise would soon pay for itself. Several enterprising citizens of Monon are known to favor the project.

B. Y. GUESS.

Indiana school books at Meyer's drug store.

Keystone Corn Husker and Fodder Shredder. Sold by Robt. Randle.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill. writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At F. B. Meyer's drug store.

Harvey Wood, south-east of town, is on the sick list.

Aaron Wood is able to be about town again after a severe illness of several weeks.

Wall paper at Meyer's at less than half price; the largest and finest stock in town.

Blank books, writing material and school incidentals, the finest assortment at Meyer's drug store.
