Played Josh Whitcomb.

The Keeler Comedy Company played to a good house last Saturday night. It was a delightful surprise to Miss Keeler who had not received nearly as good business as her entertainments deserved. The final presentation was the old standby, Josh Whitcomb, and it was done in the most satisfactory manner. This troupe is much better than the average.

BEHEADED ON THE RAIL.

Probable Suicide of Ira Cripps, Section Boss on The Monon.

The people of Rensselaer were shocked yesterday morning by the announcement that Ira Cripps, section boss, had ended his life by placing his neck on the rail and having his head severed by the 4:45 north bound passenger train. Mr. Cripps was a man of good habits, industrious and faithful in his work, temperate and honest. He may have been somewhat profane of speech but was pleasant and agreeable in disposition. His education was but ordinary.

Mr. Cripps was 32 years old, had been married for several years, but had no children. His wife, Hester (Hammerston) Cripps, it appears had on the previous day deserted his home, moving the household effects, and going to her father's, Elias Hammerston, near Francisville, because of their unhappy relations. The first that Mr. Cripps knew of his wife's departure was upon his arrival home Tuesday night.

It seems to have greatly affected him, and he hired a livery and drove out to her father's where he was refused an audience with his wife. Upon returning he had his monthly check for $42.50 cashed at Rosenbaum's saloon, where he drank one glass of whiskey and purchased a half pint bottle more, paying 35 cents for both. This was between ten and eleven o'clock. He remained in the depot with Agent Royster and talked feelingly of his trouble.

Coroner Wright found $42.15 on his person, which would indicate that the 35 cents was all he had spent. The inquest was begun in Prosecutor Douthitt's office last night at 7 o'clock, but was not concluded, and will be continued to night at same place and time, when the wife and other witnesses will be examined. It was not generally known that the family relations were unpleasant.

The funeral occurred this morning at 10 o'clock from the home of his widowed mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Cripps. The burial will be made in Osborne cemetery. Being a member of the Odd Fellows' fraternity that society will take charge of the funeral.

Remember the new grocery in the Odd Fellows' building.

Ask your neighbor about our laundry work and they will tell you it is the best they ever had done. SPITLER & KIGHT.

The Iroquois Sea Wall.

Isaac Glazebrook has constructed a "sea wall" along the rear end of his lot on Front street that is two feet above the high water mark of the Iroquois, and filled in the lot with dirt until it is one of the nicest on the street. Saylor & Collins will continue the wall along the river front the entire length of the mill property. It is a substantial improvement that should be imitated all along the river on both sides.

A Pertinent Query.

To the Editor of the People's Pilot.

The Republican of the 10th inst. says there were three iron bridge contracts let at the following prices: $619.50, $768.75 and $851.60, but did not state that a responsible firm had in bids on the same bridges for $467.50, $682, and $718, or $372.30 less than the successful bidders. The parties making these bids were not only responsible financially but were backed by one of the best banks in the county. Now the tax-payers would like to know where that extra $372.35 goes to? Does any county officer get any of it, or was it a clear donation to the La Fayette Bridge Co?
