Ernest Wishard began a course of study at Purdue this week.

Prosecutor Douthitt will attend court at Kentland next week.

"Tony, the convict," a powerful drama, at opera house, one night only, December 30.

Long, the druggist, has the largest line of Xmas novelties in town.

W. N. Jones is attending the Cotton States' Exposition at Atlanta, Georgia, this week.

Miss Fernie Starr has been unable to attend school for some time because of ill health.

There are now 153 telephones in the Rensselaer exchange with the prospect of 200 by next July.

We have a special line of books, at special prices. A. F. Long, the Druggist. See him.

Miss Nancy Reece now occupies her new house on Van Rensselaer street north of the electric light plant.

Mrs. Emerine Israel and her little grand daughter now occupy the upstairs rooms of Miss Nancy Reece's new house.

H. E. Randle of Francesville dropped in at the Pilot office Saturday and renewed his subscription for 1896.

Twenty-five and fifteen cents. These are popular prices, which everybody ought to stand for "Tony, the convict," Dec. 30.

There are but three professions recognized in classifying the occupations of men, viz: medicine, law and the ministry.

Moses Tuteur returned a few days since after an absence of nearly a year in Michigan and elsewhere.

Warren Washburn has left his place in the electric light works of Chicago to accept a position in the civil engineering department of the Illinois Central railroad.

Mrs. Nehemiah Hopkins died at her home in Newton township Dec. 4th, leaving a family of small children. She was buried in Weston cemetery.

Don't miss "Tony, the convict," presented by our best amateur for the benefit Stanislaus Literary Society. Monday evening, December 30.

Rev. F. L. Austin has resumed the revival meetings at the Church of God; and there will be services every night until further notice.

James P. Overton arrived home from his southern trip this morning, his return being hastened by sickness, though his condition is not considered serious.

One month's time has been spent trying to make "Tony, the convict," the best amateur performance ever given in Rensselaer.

Thomas Ulyat of Mt. Ayr and his son Thomas of Brook were in town Saturday and made the Pilot office a pleasant call, accompanied by a fine dollar payment on subscriptions.

The young M. D. in town called for the number of a patient and central gave him The Model number, and there was a lady at the "phone" and she heard the following: "Hello. If you wish I will call and dress your leg and put you to bed." She did not faint.

Judson Perkins has the fire bell in place at the top of the new sixty foot iron tower, the work of removing it from the old tower to the new one taking place Tuesday. It is to be hoped that the need of sounding it will be long deferred. The tower is a very neat and substantial affair, of which the contractor feels no little pride.

At a meeting of the directors of the Commercial State Bank December 3d, John M. Wasson a director of the bank was elected Vice President of that corporation. Mr. Wasson is one of the best known and most enterprising citizens of Rensselaer, and the bank has made a wise selection for so important an office.

OBITUARY.

CASEY—Died Dec. 7, 1895, in the 75th year of her age, Mrs. Eleanor Casey, wife of Washington Casey, at the family residence in Union township, after a lingering illness of many years with that dreadful disease consumption. She was buried Sunday in the Mt. Tabor cemetery. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Chunwiler, pastor of the United Brethren Church. Mrs. Casey was born in the state of Ohio and emigrated to Jasper county in 1856 which has since been her home. She leaves her aged companion and many friends to mourn her death. She died as she had always lived, trusting in her Lord.

Elvin Overton returned from Lebanon this morning, where he has been on a short vacation.

WORDS OF WISDOM.

John Swinton's Great Speech on Labor Day.

In his Labor Day address at Chicago, John Swinton said, amid great laughter: "I stood some years ago near an avalanche in the Alps which could not be stopped by an injunction. I fled from a blizzard in Dakota which could not be thwarted by any court, not even in Woods. I felt the rumble of an earthquake in Sicily which could not be quelled by an editorial in all the Chicago papers. I saw the floods of Niagara which mock the army—aye, even the militia. Against the sweep of the comet what could Cleveland do, though he were the pope who sent a bull after it? Let us disapprove of all these forces of nature, but what is your lack? It makes no difference whether or not you favor an earthquake. Let the court enjoin it. Let the squibblers of the press squabble against it. Let the preachers snivel at it as they did today at Mr. Keir Hardie. Let the uniformed terrorists of the soldier straps hold up their little guns against it. It is coming.

"Crack goes the earthquake, and the Hebrew slaves march out of Egypt while Pharaoh sinks in the Red sea. Crack it goes again, and the agrarians of Rome seize their short swords. Crack! And old Noll is atop in England. Crack! And the serfs of Germany and Hungary carry havoc before them. Crack! Once more and the forces of the French revolution give death to monarchs—Louis' head falls into the basket. Crack! Again, George Washington confronts George III. Crack! Again, and old Abe rides the earthquake till chattel slavery falls, falls, though bruised by church and editors and capital and congress and poor old Buchanan and the old dotard of the supreme court. Crack! Again Garibaldi is in his red shirt. Crack! Goes the earthquake now and then, again and again, the wide world over. We have heard it thrice in our own country within a century, and God help us hear it again. The sovereignty of nabobs must be overthrown."

Illinois Live Stock Healthy.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. —The state board of live stock commissioners held a meeting this morning. The state veterinarian reported that there were few contagious diseases among cattle throughout the state. Glanders and anthrax are not known in the state at this time. Many localities are suffering from hog cholera.

Rabbits for the Poor.

Wichita, Kan., Dec. —The annual Kiowa county rabbit hunt has just been concluded. One hundred and sixty-five farmers and cowboys on horseback participated in the hunt, and more than 6,000 rabbits were killed. They will be shipped free over the railways and consigned to humane societies in Chicago and Cleveland.

Frozen to Death.

Huntington, W. Va., Dec. —John Sharp of New Martinsville, W. Va., was found frozen to death two miles south of here this morning. He was a painter by trade. The coldest weather of the season was felt here to-day.

Elected President of the Reichstag. Berlin, Dec. —In the reichstag this morning Baron von Buol-Berenberg was re-elected president of that body.

Who wants dear money and cheap products? The money lender.

A New Court House.

The commissioners have decided that a new court house is to be built. It comes as a surprise to the majority of tax payers in Jasper county. Upon the expediency of the undertaking at this time there is a great difference of opinion. Probably the popular verdict of the people is against by a large majority. The Pilot will discuss the matter its next issue, giving some reasons both for and against the building.

Keeping Step to the Music.

Don't you wool-hat, one-gallused boys remember how the Democratic office-holders and stump speakers followed after Tom Watson in '93 and '94 and told you that Tom and the Populists were heading for the Republican camp?

Don't you remember how hard they hit the Republican rascals for the demoralization of silver?

Don't you remember how they begged you to give the Democratic party "a chance" to undo that crime of crimes and restore silver to its constitutional functions?

Don't you remember they told you that the act demonetizing silver was done stealthily by John Sherman, and the Democrats didn't know it until long after the act was passed?

Don't you remember they told you the Democratic party was the only party that was friendly to the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1?

Don't you remember that they told you that there was only room in this country for two political parties, and if you followed Tom Watson and the Populists you would soon find yourself a full-fledged Republican?

Many a good, honest, hard-working farmer believed them, and quite a number of the fellows that did much talking in '93 and '94 believed it themselves. But how is it today?

Men and newspapers that in '93 and '94 told you there was only room for two parties in this country are now begging you to aid them in establishing a fourth party—the Bimetallite party.

Men who in '93 and '94 told you that the Democratic party was the only party that would give you free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 now say if the Democratic party declares for free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 they will vote the Republican ticket.

Men who in '93 and '94 told you that Tom Watson and the Populists were heading for the Republican camp have got their tickets ready and their baggage checked for Republican headquarters, while Tom Watson and the Populists are in the "middle of the road" packing mud from which to mold the brick to erect a monument to the memory of these politically defunct mountebanks.

Keep close to your standard, comrades! Feel the elbow touch of the comrade upon your left and upon your right. Move steadily forward with an unbroken front. Your banner is the only bunting which carries a cross; your cause the only cause which the people will crown.—People's Party Paper.

Watson's "Defeat."

Nothing can be said in justification of Black's election over Thomas E. Watson in November, 1894, that can not be repeated in October, 1895. Black resigned in the first instance, so glaring was the fraud. He should resign now for reasons not less cogent and patent.

Black defeated Watson in 1894 by more than 7,000 majority; last week he "defeated" Watson again by less than 2,000 majority. Watson was elected each time.

Eleven counties are in the Tenth Georgia congress district. Nine gave official majorities for Watson and two gave official majorities for Black.

Watson will contest the seat before congress on the ground of palpable fraud. He will win it. The Populists are highly inspired by the result of the late campaign and are already in traces for '96. Long live Watson!—Alabama Tribune.

The Democrats of Ohio not only threw their votes away, but their money also.

Robinson Brothers Lumber Co.

THERE is but one valid reason for expecting liberal patronage from the public, which is that we give as great, or greater, value for the money as can be had elsewhere, either in Rensselaer, or in neighboring towns or in Chicago. Failing to do this we do not deserve the trade.
