

Special Overcoat Sale!

We have been fortunate in securing a full line of Overcoats which for quality of cloths, superiority of trimmings and high standard of finish, positively cannot be excelled. We bought late in the season from wholesalers—we planked down the Hard Cash. We looked the market over thoroughly before placing our order. These tell the story of how we can afford to sell High Grade Coats at prices usually asked for shoddy.

Night watch Childers found it necessary Saturday night, at a trifle past twelve o'clock, to use his revolver a couple of times in arresting a young man who attempted to run. The second shot came so near the fugitives ears that he wilted, and it is reported, he was so frightened that he completely collapsed on the officers' hands. He was out with some jolly companions and all forgot their proper place as good citizens. The occurrence is a great surprise to the friends of the young man, who has never before been censurable for unbecoming conduct.

This club is organized for the purpose of discussing up to date questions of every kind, and a program will be formulated covering subjects and assignments for a period of six months. It is desired to have a membership of about twenty-five, though visitors will always be welcome. This is a venture that must result in the greatest good to the participants. It will give each one an opportunity to talk to an attentive audience upon the merits of any proposition, and in turn he will be as freely and forcefully shown the opposite side of the question. The "Hobby Club" is an appropriate name, for it is the hobby riders that make up the race to higher understanding and ultimate progress, though often premature and impractical, but always inspired by honest enthusiasm.

"Your Mother's Apron Strings." Chaplain Lozier, one of the wittiest men alive—satirist, vocalist, orator, and poet—will deliver his popular monologue, "Your Mother's Apron Strings," at the M. E. Church next Saturday night. Admission 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

Scores of commendations might be quoted. Here are a few:

From the President of Action Park Chautauqua Assembly, Indianapolis: "This original, unique, satiric poem, sparkling with wit, varied with relishable humor and stirring pathos, was listened to with rapt attention by a very large audience, mostly of young people. The applause was frequent, and sometimes compelled the speaker to pause till it subsided. Since its delivery we have heard on every hand the most enthusiastic praise from the auditors." J. W. DASHIELL.

"I heard 'Apron Strings' at the Epworth League Training Assembly, Luddington, Mich. It carried the audience by storm. It was wholesome, entertaining, unique, well delivered and gave unbounded satisfaction."—Thos. Nicholson, Sec. Assembly and Professor in Cornell College.

From the World's Secretary College Dept., Y. M. C. A.: "Your Mother's Apron Strings" is a most vigorous and original putting of the gospel of the home. Its wit, satire, hard sense, and telling thrusts at conspicuous follies, added to its most ingenious rhythmical structure, insure for it as wide celebrity as the 'Farm Ballads.' Whether heard or read, it will turn back from ruin many a young man whose downward career began with breaking away from his 'Mother's Apron Strings.'—L. D. Wishard.

Come early and secure a good seat.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a tea-spoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.
