We have a special line of books, at special prices. A. F. Long, the Druggist. See him.

A visitor's attention is quickly called to the very attractive features of the "Bazaar" in the confectionary department, in which fine home made candies and fruit cake are displayed.

The bell is on top of the new Presbyterian church, waiting to be placed in position to renew its call to worship.

The Presbyterian choir is rendering some fine music and the new instrumental quartette to be added soon will be a valuable acquisition.

The heaviest rainfall in two years occurred during the last two days. The Iroquois is higher than for years. Roads are practically impassable, even the gravel roads being in bad condition.

A wedding in the near future; guess!

"They say" the chicken pie dinner at the Ladies' Bazaar was well patronized and an attentive listener could hear the "crowing."

Fancy laundry bags, crotched slippers, button bags, artificial flowers, downy pillows, good warm comforts, boy's night shirts, dolls, aprons, pin cushions, embroidered linen of all kinds and designs, calenders, etc., also good dinners and suppers. All cheap at the Ladies' Bazaar.

Quite a number of young girls have organized themselves into a society called the "Busy Bee." They donated a beautiful collection of artificial flowers for the Ladies' Bazaar in which is exhibited quite a little skill in the art of fancy work.

Married—Dec. 18, 1895, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. C. Thraws, parents of the bride, north Rensselaer, by Rev. R. D. Utter, of Trinity M. E. church, Miss Evelyn M. Kline to Mr. Rodney J. Crain, of Logansport, Indiana. The ceremony was pronounced at 8 p. m. in the presence of many friends. The happy couple took their departure on the 11 p. m. train for Logansport, their future home.

H. J. Dexter will please you on fancy dishes and queensware.

James Cowden had a very annoying and somewhat expensive experience last week. Some scamp, either for theft or as a very poor joke, took his horse from the hitching rack at the court house Friday evening and drove it north several miles, and tied it to the fence near the Burns brothers' place, where it stood uncared for until eight o'clock Saturday night. Mr. Cowden spent a good sum telegraphing to catch the thief.

Christmas tree at the court house Christmas Eve.

George Collins, Ray Thompson, and Frank Hoover are home from Bloomington for the holidays.

McClure's Magazine for January will be an edition of 300,000 copies, a circulation equal to any two of the high-priced magazines. It will tell the story of Lincoln as a clerk in a country store, studying grammar in the intervals of weighing out tea and sugar and other groceries, which in that day included whiskey; acquiring, by his native wit, wisdom and honesty, a local ascendancy which emboldens him to announce himself as a candidate for member of the Legislature; and then, to the sacrifice of his chance of election, leading a company of raw recruits to the Black Hawk war. Much new material is promised, and twenty-five pictures, including three portraits of Lincoln, and facsimiles of interesting documents written and signed by Lincoln.

Rev. L. H. Findley, who has been located at Hebron, Ind., for two years, has been engaged for the coming year as pastor of the Christian church, to take the place so ably filled by Rev. J. L. Brady.

Mr. Findley has given the greatest satisfaction wherever he has been called and the church here feels fortunate in making an engagement with him. His work here begins the first Sunday in January. Mr. Findley has a wife and child.

The A. F. and A. M. and the Eastern Star of Rensselaer, will hold a public installation together Dec. 27.

A special feature in Tony the Convict will be the newly organized orchestra under the leadership of Mr. Weaver.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. A. F. Long, Druggist.

The many friends of Fred Phillips will be pleased to learn that he has commenced business on his own account, with headquarters in the office of Val Seib; his venture being local representative for a large Chicago tailoring firm. From his present soliciting business he hopes to work into an exclusive gents furnishing store as soon as a suitable location can be had.

The fire department was called out at four o'clock Friday morning to extinguish a blaze in the Hopkins block, opposite "Liberal Corner." The place had been occupied for a week by a couple of young men from Cincinnati with a small stock of "Damaged by Smoke Only" boots and shoes. The fire was caused by putting hot ashes in paper boxes and placing them in a favorable corner for the starting of a blaze. It is not known whether there was any insurance on the stock of goods or not. If the night watch had not discovered the blaze when it first started it would have been impossible to save the building.

Wife—Here's an account of a man who shot himself rather than suffer the pangs of indigestion. Husband—The fool!

Why didn't he take De Witt's Little Early Risers? I used to suffer as bad as he did before I commenced taking these little pills. A. F. Long, Druggist.

Fred Phillips has a special line for $4 pants to fit the largest and the smallest at the same price to all.

E. P. Honan was in Chicago last week and selected a magnificent A. B. Chase piano for his accomplished wife. The instrument has already arrived and is said to be the sweetest toned piano in Chicago. It represents nearly half a year's salary and is warranted to last unimpaired until Rensselaer has another democratic postmaster.

"Your Mother's Apron Strings" the unique entertainment given at the M. E. church Saturday night by Capt. J. H. Lozier was well patronized, every seat being filled, and reflects great credit on the efforts of Rev. R. D. Utter who managed the advertising of it, even to the bill posting part. It was a charming entertainment and all were well delighted with it.

Coughing irritates the delicate organs and aggravates the disease. Instead of waiting, try One Minute Cough Cure. It helps at once, making expectoration easy, reduces the soreness and inflammation. Everyone likes it. Long, Druggist.
