CITY AND COUNTY.

Healy for shoes. Court adjourned Saturday. Kittie Scott was on the sick list last week. Daddy Gleason is in town this week after more horses. Mrs. Norman Warner was quite ill last week. The Free Will Baptist church began revival meetings Monday night. Find Lee & Co, when you have anything to sell. Miss Linnie Warren has been on the sick list for a few days. Miss Glenn Porter is numbered with the sick this week. Mrs. Henry I. Adams is sick with the gripe. Will Adams was in Remington to work on the telephone force last week. Hog cholera preventative, from state formula, for sale at Meyer's drug store. Earl Duvall has been having a severe time with the mumps. The best ladies' and mens' shoes at the lowest prices at Judge Healy's. Will Clark of Goodland is visiting friends here this week. Prosecutor Douthitt is attending court at Fowler this week. Wanted to rent, a house for small, family in Rensselaer. Inquire at this office. Mrs. Julia Enslin is quite ill with the prevailing malady. Mrs. J. A. McFarland of Jordan township was reported very sick last Sunday. The roads have been very rough for several days. Miss May Burns and Miss Jessie Adams gave a masquerade party last evening at the home of the former. At the home of Rev. R. D. Utter, Sunday, Jan. 26, at 12 m., a son was born to their daughter, Mrs. Charles A. McKellips.

Heat that bed room with one of our $5 hard coal burners that will keep fire all night with a hat full of coal. N. Warner & Son. A juvenile masquerade party was given by Kate Collins to a number of her young friends last Friday night, and was a highly enjoyable occasion. A pleasant Epworth League social was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Randle, Friday night. Judge Healy has fitted up his boot and shoe shop and put in an excellent stock of ladies' and gents' fine shoes. Call and see them before purchasing elsewhere. Protracted meetings were begun at the First Baptist church this week by Rev. Voliva, whose father is expected here soon to assist in the work. Miss Jessie Adams, Miss May Burns, Edward Bowman and Gus Grant spent Sunday in Monon at the home of Miss Adams. Sam Scott left Tuesday for Paris, Tenn., to be absent a month in various parts of the south. Lee & Co., the leading real estate firm of Rensselaer. Mr. and Mrs. Judson Adams spent Sunday at Dan Wayne's in Jordan township. Jesse Saylor will move to Barkley township this week where he has rented a farm. Rev. Findley began a series of revival meetings at the Christian church Monday night. Judge Healy has put in a nice stock of ladies and gents shoes in connection with his shoemaking and repairing business. B. S. Fendig has been nursing a sore hand for several days. It is nothing but a felon. Protracted meetings are in progress at the Christian, Free Will Baptist, and Missionary Baptist churches this week. Blank books, writing material and incidentals, the finest assortment at Meyer's drug store. Mrs. A. Hamilton and daughter Miss Myrtle will spend a few days at Foreman and Wheatfield visiting relatives. A. Hamilton and Harry Thewles are building a house for B. J. Gifford on one of his farms north of town a few miles. Squire Spriggs and Asa Brown, of Walker township, took the 10:57 a. m. train here Tuesday for an extended prospecting tour through Tennessee. They expect to be gone about ten days. Mrs. W. T. Parks has been near death from pneumonia for several days, and is still very low. Miss Bertha Hammond is greatly improved from her condition of last week. Miss Bertha Parsons has recovered from her recent illness. Mrs. Parsons is also in her usual health again. It is reported that Ed Bowman will leave for Colorado shortly to improve his health. The parlor concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. at the home of Rev. Paradis, Wednesday evening of last week, was a very enjoyable affair. Miss Bean of Lafayette, rendered several numbers, and proved herself an artist of rare ability. The music by the Rensselaer orchestra was exceptionally fine and greatly enhanced the pleasure of the evening. This was the second parlor concert given by the Y. P. S. C. E. and both have proved so thoroughly enjoyable that others will probably be given in the near future. Have you anything to sell? List with Lee & Co.

Don't fail to see the new Model '96 Columbias on exhibit at Ferguson's General Supply Store, opposite Nowell's Block. Eleven styles. Popular prices. Address E. J. Wilcox, Agt., Rensselaer, Ind.

Obituary. Again there has been a summons to call from this earthly abode to a heavenly domain one tender in years. Mary Clark, daughter of H. B. and Lillie Clark was born near Attica, Ind., Apr. 23, 1893, died Jan. 26, '96 at the home of Mr. Henry Mackey, Rensselaer, Ind., where she had been making her home. She suffered for several weeks from a complication of diseases until death released her from all pain that she might enter "the home not made with hands." Mary was of a gentle, affectionate disposition whom to know was but to love. While relatives and friends mourn her loss and realize that all which human hands might do could not keep her with them, they are reminded in the language of the poet: "There is a reap where name is death And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between."

The Arena for February. The February Arena is probably the most attractive issue of this great reformatory and progressive review that has yet appeared. In its 176 pages are found notable papers by Forbes Winslow, D. C. L., of the Royal College of Physicians of London, on "Madness as Portrayed by Shakespeare." "The Land of the Noonday Sun," by Justice Walter Clark, LL. D., of the Supreme Bench of North Carolina (profusely illustrated); Justice Clark has visited Mexico under the auspices of The Arena to study our sister republic, and this issue contains the opening paper of a series which will be magnificently illustrated, and which we predict will prove exceedingly interesting to all persons interested in travels and history, as well as social and economic problems. "The Bond and the Dollar," by John Clark Ridpath, LL. D.; the second paper of a most notable series by America's most popular living historian, "Bryant, the Poet and Politician," by Frank B. Sanborn. "Personal Reminiscences of Whittier," by his friend, the Rev. Christopher Coffin Hussey (with full-page half-tone illustration of the old Whittier homestead and portrait of Mr. Hussey). "The Government and the Telegraph Monopoly," by Prof. Frank Parsons of Boston University School of Law, and containing a vast array of indisputable facts of unquestionable value to students of social problems. "A half Century of Progress," by Professor Mary Lowe Dickinson, President of the National Council of Women (with full-page half-tone portrait of Elizabeth Cady Stanton). "Scientific Theosophy," by Prof. Joseph Rodes Buchanan, M. D.; a scholarly discussion of a problem engaging the attention of a large number of the most thoughtful people at the present time. "The Utopia of Sir Thomas More (Part II) by the editor of the Arena; in this issue Mr. Flower concludes his series of papers (so far as the Arena is concerned) on "The Century of Sir Thomas More." "Is Woman Embodied Obstruction?" by Helen Campbell. "A New System of State Warrants," by the Hon. Howard L. Weed, member of the legislature of the state of Washington; a very thoughtful and suggestive contribution, which will prove of special interest to independent thinkers who are interested in financial problems and who desire to restore prosperity to all wealth-creators. The Arena's two serials—"The Valley Path," by Will Allen Dromgoole, and "Between Two Worlds," by Mrs. Calvin Kryder Reifsnider—gain greatly in interest with each succeeding issue. They are widely different in character, but both are striking works—one a story of real life in the mountains of East Tennessee, and the other a most fascinating romance dealing with the higher phases of metaphysical and physical thought, which are so profoundly stirring many of the best minds of our times. The book reviews also are a strong feature of this issue, occupying twenty-seven pages.

No dealer in town is so well qualified to select good shoes as Judge Healy, the veteran shoemaker. Examine his stock.

FARMERS INSTITUTE Will be held at the court house, Feb. 5, 1896. A program has been made out and will be supplied freely. In order to make this institute a success it will be necessary for a united effort on the part of country and town people. We will have need of all the help we can get. This will include all occupations, the invitation being not to farmers alone; ministers, lawyers, doctors, merchants, tradesmen, laboring people of all kinds, are invited to attend and take part. Other counties are making this institute work profitable, why can't we? The speakers engaged to lead, on the subjects named in the program, are highly recommended as thoroughly practical men. We expect to have other subjects discussed by local speakers.

WEDNESDAY PROGRAM. MORNING SESSION 10 to 12 M.
Institute called to order by president. Invocation.....Rev. Paradis Music.....Male Quartette Introductory remarks.....Pres. Strong Report of committees.....Jones Discussion.....John E. Alier and others Farm dairying.....Kelsey Discussion.....Bruce Porter and others L. L. PONSER, Secretary.

THURSDAY PROGRAM. MORNING SESSION 10 to 12 M.
Invocation.....B. F. Ferguson Music.....Male Quartette Pow to utilize corn fodder.....Kelsey Discussion.....John E. Alier and others John Ryan, Wm. M. Hoover and others AFTERNOON SESSION, 1 to 3:30.

Local Events at Mt. Avy. Correspondence of People's Pilot. Weather cooler. Rev. Austin was called away to preach a funeral sermon Friday, but returned this week to continue his meetings. George Royster of Morocco was on our streets the fore part of the week. N. C. Humphrey spent Saturday and Sunday in Rensselaer. L. C. Lyons made a trip to the Hub Saturday. A crokinole party at Miss Gertrude Parks, Tuesday evening, Jan. 28. Supt. W. W. Pfrimmer was among some of his teachers in Jackson township last week. He found the schools in good condition. Rensselaer is howling for a new court house, but does not look at the sad condition of the hitch racks around the square. There are a great many things needed before a court house. The farmers come into town and either have to put their teams in a livery barn or stand their horses on their heads in water and mud. A little time and money would make a great deal more comfort. Even our little town is well supplied with hitching racks. People will leave your town and go where they can secure better accommodations to do their trading.

The Park Enterprise.

To the Editor of the People's Pilot. I understand it is proposed, or at least it has, in certain circles, been hinted at, that as the court house is to be built for the glory and adornment of Rensselaer, that every string should be pulled that can possibly be gotten hold of.

The esthetical and public-spirited of the capital city have long been asking for a city park where those of leisure and cultivated tastes can while away their much spare time amid beautiful flowers and singing birds, "neath shady bowers and upon glassy lakes; so it is now proposed, by some, to buy a plot of ground on the south side of the city (?) and park it. It is said that the dirt excavated for the park lake (and what is a park without a lake) can be sold to the county, for filling on the court house square, for money enough to pay for the ground. Jasper county will never build another court house, never will there be another chance for a court house grab, so argue those who expect to work it for what it is worth. We, up this way, think there is already enough "dirt" about that court house square without buying any more. TIP OF TEFFT.

ARMENIA.

A meeting called in the name of the local Churches, to give formal expression of sympathy for the suffering people of Armenia, and protesting against their further oppression, was held in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Jan. 19, 1896. I. B. Washburn, M. D., in the chair. Five churches were represented. The meeting adopted the following Resolutions:

WHEREAS, The government of the Sultan of Turkey has deprived the Armenian people of their unalienable rights, including life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;

Whereas, He has not only refused to carry out his oft repeated promises to reform the evils from which Armenia has long suffered, but has perfidiously increased its burdens of tyranny and oppression;

Whereas, He is at the present time waging an inhuman warfare against Armenia, permitting, inciting, and encouraging Kurdish savages to plunder the country, burn its towns, and destroy without mercy, and with unparalleled cruelty, all ages, sexes, and conditions; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the resolutions adopted by the great mass meeting at Chickering Hall, New York, in November last, to wit:

"That in our opinion the Sultan of Turkey has forfeited all right to rule over the Armenian people;

"That we respectfully urge our government to make every possible effort to induce the governments of Christendom to rouse themselves from their apathy and put an end to this intolerable state of affairs, which threatens with extermination thousands and thousands of our fellow Christians;

"That we urge upon our government also to do everything in its power to preserve the fruits of American missionary toil;

"That we express our ardent sympathy with the unutterable sufferings of this persecuted race; and,

"That we call upon all the peoples of Christendom to insist that these unutterable sufferings shall cease."

The resolutions offered in the United States senate by Senator Hoar were read and promptly endorsed, to wit, "Resolved, That the Senate will support the president in the most vigorous action he may deem fit to take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey and to obtain redress for injuries committed upon such citizens; and be it,

"Resolved, That the president make known to the government of Turkey the strong feeling of regret and indignation with which the people of America have heard of the injuries inflicted upon persons of the Christian faith in Turkey, and that the American people cannot be expected to view with indifference any repetition or continuance of such wrongs."

Ordered, That a full report of the action taken by this meeting be forwarded to President Cleveland, Senator Hoar, the Indiana senators, our representative in Congress, and to Chairman J. Bleeker Miller, of the executive committee, Armenian Relief Association, 37 Liberty street, New York.

The meeting adjourned to meet again at the call of the chairman.
