W. D. Sanders has sold his lease and equipment of the Nowels House to Mr. Mitchell H. King of Kosciusko county. The new man is an up-to-date hotel man and will keep the hotel up to its present high standard.

Hon. D. R. Jones, commissioner from the third district, has announced his withdrawal as a candidate for renomination. The move is probably well advised as there is a prevailing sentiment among the people he represents that he has played fast and loose on the court house question.

In the last week's Pilot an error was made in stating that the legal limit for bonding the county to build a new court house was two per cent. The limit is but one per cent. The law which was supposed to admit of a two per cent bond issue was a special act to enable White county to complete a building already begun. And it furthers the opinion of good attorneys that it is a violation of law for the commissioners to begin a structure that cannot be fully paid for by the proceeds of such one per cent indebtedness.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches it at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. A. F. Long, Druggist.

McClure's Magazine for March.
In McClure's Magazine for March is brought to light a speech of 1837 by Abraham Lincoln which the biographers until now, seemingly, have known nothing of, though it contains passages still of the highest interest. For example, of politicians, Lincoln says: "A set of men who have interests aside from the interests of the people, and who, to say the most of them, are taken as a mass, at least one long step removed from honest men. I say this with the greater freedom, because, being a politician myself, none can regard it as personal." There are also an amusingly judicious love proposal of Lincoln's, and some lively reminiscences of him as the leader in a successful manoeuvre to establish the State capital at Springfield and as a young lawyer in that smart, new town. The pictures are numerous, and include four portraits of Lincoln.

From Mrs. T. J. McCoy we learn that the "Daughters of the Revolution" are ready to be organized here, all the preliminaries being arranged. At another time we will publish a list of the members who become enrolled.

Macdonald Oxley; the second paper of Frank Lee Farnell's interesting series on "The Favorite Story-writers for Young People," in which are given portraits of Horatio Alger, Jr., James Otis and Sophie Swett; an article on "Dainty Work for Girls," by Lila Graham Alliger; a bright little story by Helen Corinne Bergen; the conclusion of the two series by Edward S. Ellis and Jeannette H. Walworth; some illustrated poems; two new games; a chat on juvenile literature by the editor; and a number of prize puzzles.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and 1.00 per bottle at Frank B. Meyer's Drug Store.

Condensed Testimony.

Chas. B. Hood, broker and manufacturer's agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James hotel Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 28th St., Chicago, always keeps it hand and has no fear of croup, because it instantly relieves. Free trial bottles at Frank Meyer's drug store.

A Wonderful Institution.

There is an institution in this country whose history of remarkable growth must be of interest to those acquainted with it. Within a few short years it has grown from a very small beginning to one of the first institutions of the land. Selling goods as it does direct from the manufacturer to the consumer on an economic, small profit plan, its business has enlarged until it now occupies one of the largest business blocks in Chicago and employs between 400 and 500 people. Its entire establishment is devoted to out-of-town mail order trade. Its wonderful growth is evidence of its sterling integrity, extraordinary ability and unquestioned financial standing. In fact, we are in receipt of a letter from the National Bank of Illinois, of Chicago, one of the largest and most reliable financial institutions in Chicago, a concern with a capital of $2,000,000.00; also a letter from the National Bank of the Republic, of Chicago, one of the soundest financial institutions in Illinois, with a capital of $1,000,000.00, wherein they say that they are personally acquainted with the stockholders, that the institution is reputable and thoroughly responsible, and that thorough confidence can be had in any representations it makes. In fact we are in receipt of indisputable evidence as to the reliability of this institution, and we feel safe in saying that our readers can place implicit confidence in this house, and that they will receive the same prompt, careful and courteous treatment the members would like to receive were they in your place.

The wonderful facilities of this institution for supplying merchandise at manufacturers' prices is certainly of great interest to all economic buyers.

The firm to which this article refers issues a long list of advertising matter including a mammoth catalogue and many special catalogues, all of which they mail to any one. In fact, they are so thoroughly organized that they make it very easy to do trading with them by mail.

The concern to which this article refers is authorized and incorporated under the laws of the state of Illinois, with a cash capital of $150,000.00, paid in full and is Sears, Roebuck & Co., 173 and 175 Adams street, Chicago, Ill.
