LANDIS & RICKETS, Publisher of the Journal.

Delphi, Ind., March 30, 1896.—Without hesitation I can recommend the Hibernian Dramatic Club as an organization that is above the standard of ordinary home talent troupes; especially in the pretty Irish Comedy Drama, the Colleen Bawn, which they presented here on March 17th.

R. W. ISHERWOOD, Publisher of the Times.

Delphi, Ind., March 30, 1896.—The Hibernian Dramatic Club is composed of talent far above the average home production and I can recommend them without the least hesitation. Their "Colleen Bawn," presented here March 17th drew the largest audience in the opera house this season.

A Goodlander Missing.
Frank Conway, the contractor, who, with his family, has been living at Frog Level, La., the past year, mysteriously disappeared a few weeks ago. Conway has been engaged in building several miles of railroad grade at a point about twenty miles from Shreveport, and his family was with him until about five weeks ago, when Conway so mysteriously disappeared, since which time Mrs. Conway has returned to the farm near Goodland and is making every possible effort to discover the whereabouts of Conway. It seems that when the railroad contract was completed a few weeks ago, Frank announced his intention of going to Shreveport to see a man who owed him $600, and with $200 in his pocket left the camp at Frog Level. He was traced to Shreveport, but beyond that nothing can be heard from him, and it is greatly feared that he met with foul play.

Mr. Conway owns a farm about a mile northwest of Goodland, and was the contractor for the construction of Newton and Union gravel streets. He is a shrewd business man and an individual pretty well calculated to take care of himself. Goodland Herald.

Rensselaer's Chinaman.
Rensselaer's Chinese laundryman was arrested and brought before Judge Wiley last week, arraigned on a charge of assault and battery, and received a sentence of ten days in the county jail and a fine of $20.

The trouble that led to the arrest grew out of the visit to the Celestial's place of business on Front street of young Herman Churchill. Soon after Churchill left the laundry to see about a horse that he was getting shod at a nearby blacksmith shop, the Chinaman followed and accused Herman of taking a couple of handkerchiefs. Churchill stoutly denied the alleged theft. At this the Chinaman came toward him in a menacing manner with a large knife in his hand and made a thrust at him. Churchill threw up his hand to ward of the intended stab and received a severe cut that made a deep gash across the knuckles. Churchill run and succeeded in getting away from the belligerent Chinaman and swore out a warrant for his arrest.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores, it is magical in its effect. Always cures piles. A. Long, Druggist.
