Church Notes.

The Presbyterian church will be dedicated on the last Sunday in May. There will be no services in the new building until then. The Rev. Dr. Craig, who is to deliver the dedicatory sermon, could not not give his time until that date.

"America's Youngest Orator," May 12th.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church met last week and made the carpets which they have purchased for the rooms of the new church.

The Rev. S. P. Calvin, of Fowler writes that he is coming the last of this week, to rusticate a few days in the vicinity of Rensselaer. Of course, if he should come he will preach for us, and in that event, the Trinity church people will have the pleasure of hearing an excellent sermon.

Quarterly meeting was held at the M. E. church last Sunday, Rev. Wilson, the presiding elder, officiated.

L. H. Findley announces the following topic for his Sunday morning discourse at the Christian church: "Hindrances to Christianity; evening theme, 'What think you of Christ?'"

The third quarterly meeting of the Rensselaer circuit will be held at Rosebud church the third Saturday and Sunday (16 and 17th) in May. Public cordially invited. OLIVER LOWTHER, Pastor, Methodist Protestant church.

Mr. H. Vincent Moore, will lecture at the opera house next Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League of the M. E. church, on "Her Photograph or the Sovereign Dream of Youth." Mr. Moore is called "America's Youngest Orator," and is said to be talented and entertaining.

Business Men's Meeting.
There will be a meeting at the court house, Monday evening, May 11, at 7 o'clock, of business men and all others interested in the growth and improvement of the city, for the purpose of organizing a Business Men's Association.

S. P. THOMPSON, President, C. W. COEN, Secretary, Preliminary meeting.

A Valuable Prescription.
Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Anna Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a headache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50cents and $1.00. Get bottle at Frank B. Meyers, drug store.

General Van Rensselaer Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet next Thursday, at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. A. F. Long. The paper of the occasion will be presented by Mrs. Val Seib.

Advertised Letters.

Hay For Sale.
The undersigned has two or three tons of good tame hay for sale at his farm six miles south-west of Rensselaer.

W. H. RITCHIE.

It was suggested to us the other day that Remington and Rensselaer ought to be connected by an electric car line. This would be a splendid idea, and the lines might be put in at once. Perhaps we might get some new court house news—by going over and bribing the door-keeper of Commissioners Faris & Martindale's star chamber.—Remington Press.

Try Parrot & Taggart's Lunch Milk Biscuit they are the best.

Remember Moore's lecture Tuesday night.

E. A. Yost, living on the farm of J. P. Overton, left Tuesday morning on a prospecting trip to South Dakota.

One of the employees of the telephone exchange thought he had discovered a new and expeditious way of getting the heavy coils of wire down the stairs of the Nowels block, and Wednesday he tried it. He rolled it to the head of the stairway and then let it go. It left its mark all along the stairs and crashed into the floor below. The young man has come to the conclusion that the "new way" is not a success.

City of Rensselaer.
The municipality has held its first election and as expected the entire Republican ticket was elected. The result shows that 508 votes were cast, 21 of which were defective, 323 republican and 154 democratic, as averaged on the city ticket.

Caught Five Young Wolves.
Bert Welsh, Al Daugherty and Mr. Bullinger caught five young wolves on the farm of Morgan Shields, 2 1/2 miles south of town, Monday morning. They watched an old one go to some grain bins in a field and saw the young wolves come out to meet her. The whelps were about three months old and exceedingly lively, requiring no small exertion to catch them. The boys were paid $15 by the county auditor. The neighbors had seen the young wolves but thought they were dogs.

Medical Attendance for the Poor.
The County Commissioners let the contracts last Wednesday for one year, to the following physicians, at the prices named:

To Dr. E. C. English, Marion township, including Poor Fm. and jail $50.

Edgar L. Cox was married to Miss Jennie Miller at 1942 West Polk street, Chicago, the home of the bride's brother and sister, Monday evening. Mr. Cox is a contracting carpenter here and the bride, a niece of M. F. Chilcote, has been a teacher in the schools here for four years. The bride is in ill health and was advised by her physician to go at once to Colorado. This alarming information caused the nuptials to be hastened by several months. Mrs. Cox left Wednesday for Cannon City, Colo., and her husband returned to his business in Rensselaer. It is expected that as soon as he can arrange his affairs he will join her in the mountains. The young people are both highly esteemed and enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.
