Neighborhood Notes and Gossip.

*****
Remington Notes.
*****

Married, at the residence of Robert W. Irwin, south-east of Remington on Thursday, May 27th, Mr. Levi Whitmoyer of Noblesville, Ind., and Miss Celia Irwin, daughter of Mr. Robert W. Irwin, Rev. W. R. Mikels officiating. Mr. Whitmoyer is a well-to-do farmer living near Noblesville. The bride has been teaching school in Carpenter township for several years past, and is one of our most excellent young ladies. The best wishes of this entire community are extended to the happy couple; may prosperity always attend them.

In our last we mentioned that in our opinion a wedding was on the tapis, and we are now at liberty to chronicle the event which occurred at the residence in Remington of Mrs. Emery. The high contracting parties being Mrs. Emery and Mr. Jasper Guy both of Remington. The wedding occurred at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday May 27, and the ceremony was solemnized by Rev. S. V. McKee of the Presbyterian church. The happy couple set out on their wedding tour, and will visit friends and relatives while they are away. May peace, joy and happiness forever be their lot.

Remington will give an illuminated bicycle parade and entertainment on the evening of Saturday, June 6th. Everybody with his or her bicycle is cordially invited to be present and participate in this entertainment, which, at present, promises to be a grand affair. Goodland, Wolcott and Fowler will be well represented here on that occasion, and Rensselaer with her many wheels and splendid riders should certainly avail herself of this opportunity to exhibit what she can do in this line. There will be several prizes given to winners in this parade, and the immense crowd which is anticipated will be present will be entertained besides the parade with an excellent display of fire works, which will be exhibited from the roof of D. W. Green's stone and brick building, corner of Ohio and Railroad streets. It is said there will be about $100 in fire works exploded on this occasion. Let everybody come and partake of this amusement.

Decoration day was properly observed here last Saturday. It was said that there was a greater concourse of people here and participating than on any former like occasion. There was probably three thousand people in town that day and most went with the procession to the cemetery, which was led by our band immediately followed by the old soldiers and they by the Sunday school children of this town and township, all of whom carried a small flag, and large flags and appropriate banners were interspersed all along the line. The weather was quite threatening and after the decorating services at the cemetery the audience was dismissed to meet at Exchange Hall where many of them did, and listened attentively for about three quarters of an hour to an able address delivered by Capt. Ralph W. Marshall of Rensselaer, Ind. After this address the large crowd dispersed to their various homes "knowing that it was good that they had been there."

We see it reported in several different papers that Horace E. James formerly of the Rensselaer Republican now of Hammond, Ind., is a candidate for the nomination by the democrats of the 10th district for representative in congress. Oh no, Horace we hardly think the democratic party will so far forget itself, as to do anything so foolish as that. We rather guess not, especially the democrats of Jasper county. And say, would it not be an exhibition of "immense gall" to ask the support of democrats of Jasper county.

It is now said that the well drillers have succeeded in obtaining a sufficient amount of good pure water for our contemplated water works system, and that they will at once put in a pump in order to test the quality and supply. It is to be hoped that there is a sufficient supply, as drilling is a rather expensive luxury at $1.75 per foot.

Ed Maxwell's dray team ran away last Friday morning but they did no damage aside from breaking the coupling pole, and spoiling the horses.

FORESMAN.

These items were received too late for publication last week.

Jack Mathers is plowing up his wheat. Some kind of a fly killed most of it so he will put corn in its place.

Frank Foresman of Goodland came out Wednesday on a new bike.

James Shaeffer's girls have new wheels. Business is rushing at the elevator, corn, oats and hay.

Mr. Timmons and family of Sheldon, Ill., visited with A. M. Clark of this place Sunday.

J. Shaeffer went to Logansport Wednesday.

Sam Sampson was called to Lockport, Ill., by the death of his brother a few days since.

J. B. Foresman and wife passed through here Wednesday going home, having been to Brook visiting Mrs. E. E. Hess. Ed Denniston is laid up with a mashed hand. Injured it in a box car while unloading ties.

The Ladies of this place cleared $18.00 at the festival last week.

Bert Linton is working in Ed Dinniston's place on the section.

Later Items.

Weather clear and cold. Crops look fine.

Mark Foresman and wife of Goodland visited with father and mother Foresman Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dobbin's baby died Saturday evening. It will be buried in Battle Ground, Ind.

C. E. and J. O. Sunderland and families ate strawberries and cream with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hess at Brook Sunday.

George Conn of Brook passed through here Monday.

How about a new school house this fall. We need one and should have it as the old one is not fit to send children to in the winter.

First new hay of the season at Fred Foresman's.

Chas. Mather of Joliet, Ill., came down to the farm the first of the week.

Frank Foresman came out from Goodland on his wheel Tuesday.

James Shaeffer drove over to Rensselaer Tuesday.

Fred Foresman went to Goodland Tuesday to pick cherries; picked 3/4 of a bushel and gave out.

GOVERNMENT BANKS.

The British Government Has Millions On Deposit.

One of the greatest bankers in the world is the British government. As a bank it holds nearly $500,000,000 in postoffice deposits payable practically on call, and pays interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum to its depositors. Last year the deposits increased $50,000,000.—The Philadelphia Press.

Why can not the government of the United States have postal savings banks as well as the government of England? Are we inferior in intelligence? No. Why is it then? The answer is plain: This nation is ruled by the money-lending class—called national bankers.—Ex.

What is really needed is the repeal of the national banking laws, a complete knockout of every national bank of issue in the United States. They are positively of no benefit whatever to the people and are a positive hindrance to the promulgation of good and safe government.

After disposing of them there should be established, as a medium of exchange between the government proper and the people as a whole, at every county seat and in all cities of over 20,000 inhabitants, a government bank of deposit. There could the people who wished to deposit money for safe keeping make loans direct to the government and receive therefor a government certificate of deposit, representing sums from one dollar up to thousands or more. There would never be any run on or any suspension of banks under such a system; every depositor would know that his money was absolutely safe from loss by speculating clerks or officials, and perhaps, a result which would be worth more than all, the government would no longer be in the hands of a money power, for the government itself would be the money power, and the governmental finances would no longer be held at the mercy of 2 per cent of the country's population.

Pages could be covered with reasons why national banks should be abolished and government banks established, but to it all, the dyed-in-the-wool democrat or republican, of the rank and file, while admitting readily enough that "politics are rotten to the core," and that one party is as bad as the other, will reply that the idea may be a good one but it can never be established, as it is "not popular." Not popular with whom? Why, with these self-same 2 per cent and their hangers-on, numbering, perhaps, 30 per cent of the entire population. Can it never be established? Why, if the 70 per cent of interested people should will it, the change could be accomplished before the first of February next.

It is a sad admission of serfdom and the ownership of his soul by others, when any man declares that any reform can not be established in this, the country, where "every man is a sovereign."—St. Louis Evening Journal.

The democratic party can endorse free silver and nominate a free silver candidate if Wall street will allow it, but all the brass band buncombe, and all the money of Wall street can't wipe out its past record on the silver question. Do you catch the point?

In order to save the democratic party from utter dissolution, which would result in the disintegration of the republican party to some extent, Wall street has evidently decided to allow the democratic party to adopt a free silver platform and nominate a free silver candidate. Their main object in this is to coax the populists back into the democratic party, but it takes something more than a silver bait to catch intelligent populists—they have got further along than that.

Robinson Brothers Lumber Co.

HERE is but one valid reason for expecting liberal patronage from the public, which is that we give as great, or greater, value for the money as can be had elsewhere, either in Rensselaer, competing towns or in Chicago. Failing to do this we do not deserve the trade.
