Decoration Day Exercises.

No former occasion has been observed more satisfactorily than that of last Saturday. The day was pleasant though threatening rain and the attendance was large. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. deserve great credit for the pains taken in preparing for the event.

It was headed by the Citizens Band, and was composed of detachment of old soldiers with guns and flag, school children, Odd Fellows, Daughters of Rebekah, Knights of Pythias, Masons, St. Joseph's College Band, St. Joseph's College Military Battalion, Woman's Relief Corps, Grand Army Republic, Citizens.

After many months of anxious waiting the fine new church was dedicated last Sunday, an overflow congregation being in attendance. The debt of $1500 was raised and the formal dedication performed in the evening.

C. C. Starr and family were called Sunday night to the death bed of his step-father, Amos White of Buck Creek in Tippecanoe county. He was nearly 81 years old. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, Rev. B. Wilson Smith officiating.
