A venerable hardware merchant of Rensselaer recently sold a promissory note of an article of tinware worth fifty cents, for which one dime and four three cent pieces were tendered in payment. The kind-hearted tradesman accepted the change as payment rather than humiliate his fair customer by calling her attention to the error. Inasmuch as the three cent pieces are becoming rare and are no longer coined, it is possible that they will soon be at handsome premium and we would advise the victimized merchant to lay his III coins away and wait for advance in value.

Valparaiso District Ministerial Association.

The Association held its annual meeting at Trinity M. E. Church, beginning Tuesday night, and closing Wednesday night, last week.

A few were detained by sickness or other causes, but the majority of the pastors were present. The presence of several ladies, wives of pastors, added much to the interest of the session.

On Tuesday night the members of the Association were welcomed in fitting terms by County Superintendent Warren. The Rev. Dr. Wilson responded, in his characteristic way, in behalf of the Association. The Rev. Allen Lewis, of Valparaiso, was then introduced, who made an interesting address, giving his views and impressions of the recent General Conference.

Wednesday was occupied with the reading and discussion of papers on subjects previously assigned.

At the evening hour the audience was favored with an entertaining lecture on "The Itinerant Preacher," by the Hon. Mark L. DeMotte, of Valparaiso. After the lecture, thanks to the courtesy of Dr. Wilson, a delightful banquet was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Starr.

A committee reported the following RESOLUTIONS, which were unanimously adopted, as was also a motion that they be offered the city papers for publication:—

1. "That we return to the pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and to the good people of Rensselaer, our sincere thanks for the kind hospitality with which they have received us into their homes, and for their interested attendance on the meetings of our Association."

2. "That we greatly appreciate the patient services of our efficient Secretary and of our Treasurer."

3. "That we thank the Salvation Army for their considerate invitation to use their tent for our services; that we regret our inability to accept the invitation; and that we wish them Good-speed in their work of evangelization."

4. "That we record our special pleasure in, and our high appreciations of, the generous hospitality of our esteemed Presiding Elder and his estimable wife."

5. "That we most heartily thank Col. M. L. DeMotte for his kindness in favoring the Association with his presence, and especially for the most excellent lecture given us this evening."

6. "That we regret the detention of Brothers Mathews and Switzer by reason of sickness in their families, and that we tender them our sympathy and assurance of our prayers for their comfort and for the speedy recovery of the afflicted."

Signed: J. B. Ross, E. P. Bennett, and Allen Lewis, Com. RHO DELTA.
