Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

In Society.

Mrs. Long and Murray opened their homes and lawns to the young people of Rensselaer on Tuesday night, July 14, and their unbounded hospitality was enjoyed by a goodly number.

At 6:30 a most bountiful supper was spread upon the lawns between the homes of the charming hostesses, at which were seated twenty-five couples, who did ample justice to the loads of eatables placed in tempting array before them.

After the repast, canvass was stretched upon the lawns and dancing was indulged in under the light of the new moon, aided materially by the Japanese lanterns, with which the lawns were tastefully decorated. Iced lemonade refreshed the weary; singing and merriment reigned supreme, and "joy was unconfined."

When at last the lads and lassies tore themselves reluctantly from the enchanting scene, each and every one voted it a most delightful affair, and to Mesdames Long and Murray the honors due such charming hostesses.

Those present were:

Misses—Bertha Alter, Susie Parker, Pearl Ridgeway (LaPorte), Blanche Brown (Danville, Ill.), Maude Spitzer, Lynne Kelley, Edyth Kelley (Springfield, O.), Mary Yates, Bertha Nowels, Glen Porter, Nellie Moss, N. VanSmith, Settie Smith, M. B. Purcupile, Nellie Hopkins, Harriett Powell (Washington, D.C.), Blanche Louthier, Frank Maloy, Emma Eger, Mable Mathewson, Martha Robinson, May Robinson, Sadie Leopold, Lillie Fendig, Hattie White, Marie Southers, Madames—Long, Purcupile, Murray.

Messrs—Fred Phillips, Gus Phillips, Ray Thompson, Hallie Flynn, V. Nowels, Guy Haugh (Indianapolis), Louie Wilcox, J. J. Hunt, J. Wilson, Ross Grant, Burt Hopkins, A. H. Hopkins, A. W. Hopkins, George Hopkins, Chas. Chamberlain, Chas. Kelley, Ira Washburn, Robt. Vanatta, Bernard Maloy, Frank Maloy, Chas. Blue, Burt Brenner, Geo. Murray, Dr. Berkley, Dr. Mills.

One of the most delightful entertainments was the "at home" given by Mrs. Grant Warner last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Warner is an adept in the polite art and her guests enjoyed the afternoon raptuously. Her luncheon was delicate and the amusement features charmingly new and unique. Mrs. Robert Randle received the prize, a jelly spoon, for the greatest success in the question contest. The following ladies were present:

Mesdames—Honan, E. D. Rhoades, F. B. Meyer, Long, G. E. Murray, Rinehart (Buffalo), Hardman, N. H. Warner, Craig, G. K. Hollingsworth, Yates, Star, C. G. Spitzer, Misses—Maude Lally (Remington), Martha Robinson, May Robinson.

A number of young people were entertained at the home of Miss Maud Jacks Tuesday evening. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock, after which they enjoyed themselves in playing games until the late hour of twelve o'clock, when they dispersed for their different homes, and all reported a good time.

Condensed Testimony. Chas. B. Hood, Broker and Manufacturer's Agent, Columbus, Ohio, certifies that Dr. King's New Discovery has no equal as a cough remedy. J. D. Brown, Prop. St. James Hotel, Ft. Wayne, Ind., testifies that he was cured of a cough of two years standing, caused by La Grippe, by Dr. King's New Discovery. B. F. Merrill, Baldwinville, Mass., says that he has used and recommended it and never knew it to fail and would rather have it than any doctor, because it always cures. Mrs. Hemming, 222 E. 25th St., Chicago, always keeps it at hand and has no fear of Croup, because it instantly relieves. Free Trials Bottles at F. B. Meyer's Drug Store.

A MORTGAGED MAN. Cleveland Said to Have Disparaged McKinley As a Debtor.

It hardly seems likely, as is reported, that President Cleveland would have spoken disparagingly of Mr. McKinley's presidential qualifications simply on the ground that he was a "mortgaged man." Not that Cleveland is too good or too kind-hearted to indulge even in low criticism of one who fills so large a place in the estimation of the public as Mr. McKinley, but that even he must have sense enough to know that so silly and so spiteful a remark would only have the effect to emphasize the feeling which is now pretty generally entertained concerning his own littleness of heart and mind. It is readily admitted that Mr. Cleveland's feeling toward "mortgaged men" generally are those of contempt, inspired by the reflection on his part that none but men of inferior ability or illy developed business sagacity need to be "mortgaged," and that he might possibly be so dull as to not realize that, since his lack of ordinary business sense has resulted in a blanket mortgage on the nation of which he is the head of $262,000,000, in talking disparagingly about "mortgaged men" he was belittling his own nest. All this is admitted, but it must be remembered that in addition to lowering himself still further in the esteem of the people such remarks might hurt Wall street, since they are so broadly calculated to draw sympathy to Mr. McKinley as to suggest that as their object.

Mr. McKinley is the intended tool of Wall street, and his partner, Mr. Cleveland, wouldn't make remarks about him which might react to his hurt. Cleveland didn't say it.
