

period than six months.

Sec. 4. The license fee herein required shall be paid to the City Treasurer by the applicant for a license, and the Treasurer shall issue a receipt therefor. The City Clerk upon presentation to him of said receipt, shall make out and deliver to the applicant a license to engage in hawking for the period paid for. Said license shall be signed by the Mayor, and attested by the said Clerk, sealed with the seal of the said City, and shall be numbered and registered by the Clerk in a book kept for the purpose of registering licenses; and for his services the Clerk shall receive a fee of One ($1.00) dollar, to be paid by the applicant.

Sec. 5. Any person engaged in Hawking within said City shall exhibit his license so to do to the City Marshall or any of the police of said City, whenever called upon by them or any of them so to do.

Sec. 6. Any license issued under the provision of this ordinance shall authorize hawking only by the person to whom it is issued, and not by his partner, assistant or agent or by any other person.

Sec. 7. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance shall on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding Fifty ($50.00) dollars, and pay the cost of prosecution, and each day's continuance of hawking without a license shall be a separate offense.

Sec. 8. All ordinances or parts of ordinances relating to hawking licenses are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. This ordinance shall be in force from and after its passage and publication according to law.

Ordinance No. 5.

Auction Sales.

An Ordinance to regulate Auction Sales, and to require Auctioneers to take out license.

(Ordained and established June 22, 1896.)

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Rensselaer, Jasper County, Indiana: That no person shall act as auctioneer within said City without taking out a license therefor and otherwise complying with the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 2. The license fee required from every person to act as an auctioneer within said City shall be as follows, viz.:

For one day—Five ($5.00) Dollars.
For one month—Twenty ($20.00) Dollars.
For three months—Forty ($40.00) Dollars.
For six months—Fifty ($50.00) Dollars.
For nine months—Sixty five ($65.00) Dollars.
For twelve months—Seventy five ($75.00) Dollars.

And no license shall be issued except for the periods above mentioned.

Sec. 3. The license fee herein required shall be paid by the applicant for license to the City Treasurer, who shall issue his receipt therefor, and the City Clerk, upon presentation to him of said receipt, shall make out and deliver to the applicant a license to act as an Auctioneer for the period paid for. Said license shall be signed by the Mayor and attested by the City Clerk, sealed with the seal of said City, and shall be numbered and registered by the Clerk in a book kept for the purpose of registering licenses; and for his services the Clerk shall receive a fee of One ($1.00) dollars, to be paid by the applicant.

Sec. 4. The foregoing sections shall not apply to any person selling at auction any property as administrator, executor, receiver, constable or other public officer in the discharge of his legal duties, or selling horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, or other live stock, or of second hand farming implements or second hand household property.

Sec. 5. No person shall give notice, or cause notice to be given of any auction by ringing a bell elsewhere than in front of the place where such auction sale is to take place.

Sec. 6. Any license issued under the provisions of this ordinance shall authorize only the person to whom the same is issued to act as auctioneer, and not his partner, assistant or agent, or any other person.

Sec. 7. Any person violating any provision of this ordinance, shall on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than Five ($5.00) Dollars nor more than One Hundred ($100) Dollars, with costs; and each day that any person acts as auctioneer without license, as herein provided, shall be a separate offense.

Sec. 8. All ordinances and parts of ordinances relating to auctioneers' licenses are hereby repealed.

Sec. 9. This ordinance shall be in force after its passage and publication according to law.

Ordinance No. 6.

Billiard, Pool and Gaming Tables.

An ordinance to regulate billiard, pool and other gaming tables, nine and ten pin alleys, and also other machines and devices for sports, games or amusements kept for hire or pay and repealing all ordinances in conflict therewith. (Ordained and Established June 22nd, 1896.)

Sec. 1. Be it Ordained by the Common Council of the City of Rensselaer, Indiana: That any person or persons owning, keeping, or controlling any billiard, pool, or other gaming tables, nine or ten pin alleys, or other machines or devices for sports, games or amusements kept for hire or pay shall before using, or allowing the same to be used within the corporate limits of the said City of Rensselaer, procure a license therefor, to be issued by the clerk of said City, upon the presentation of the City Treasurer's receipt for the payment of Ten ($10.00) dollars for each table, alley machine or device as aforesaid, owned, kept, controlled or suffered to be used for hire or pay within said City for one year, or Six ($6.00) Dollars for six months, or Five ($5.00) Dollars per day.

Provided, Further: That the City Clerk may charge and receive the sum of Fifty ($50) cents for each of said licenses by him issued.

Sec. 2. Any person convicted of keeping any billiard, pool or other gaming tables, alley or other machine or device as aforesaid, for sports, games or amusements, and allowing the same to be used or kept for hire, or pay without first having procured a license therefor, as herein provided, shall be fined in any sum not less than Five Dollars nor more than Fifty dollars.

Sec. 3. All ordinances and parts of ordinances relating to licenses of billiard and other tables, nine and ten pin alleys, or other machines and devices for sports, games or amusements, kept for hire or pay, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This ordinance shall be in force two weeks from and after its passage and publication in the Revised Ordinances of the City of Rensselaer.

Ordinance No. 7.

Sale of Intoxicating Liquors.

An ordinance regulating the Sale and Traffic in intoxicating liquors. Providing Penalties for its Violation and Declaring an Emergency.

(Ordained and established June 22nd, 1896.)

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Rensselaer, Jasper County, Indiana:

That any male citizen of the state of Indiana, over the age of twenty-one years, desiring to sell intoxicating liquors in said City; or within two miles of the corporate limits thereof, shall make written application to the Common Council of said City therefor, which application shall state the precise location of the premises wherein he desires to sell, and the kind of liquors he expects to sell, and if the person so applying shall satisfy said Council that he has a County license to sell such liquors, and produces the City Treasurer's receipt for Two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars for one year, the Common Council shall order the City Clerk to receive said receipt and issue to said applicant a quietus therefor together with a license for one year, which shall authorize the holder to sell the kind of liquors mentioned in said application for the respective term aforesaid, on the premises described in said application, which premises must in all cases be the same as described in his County license, providing that the City Clerk may charge and receive from said applicant before delivering said license the sum of one (1.00) dollar.

Sec. 2. Any person holding an unexpired license issued to him by the County Board, and an unexpired City or Town license under prior ordinance of the City or Town, may obtain a license under the provision of Sec. 1. of this ordinance by paying to the City Treasurer for the use of said City such proportionate sum or part of two hundred and fifty ($250.00) dollars as the unexpired term bears to the whole, and that the amount that had been previously paid for a license under the prior ordinance should be taken into account and adjusted so that the applicant would receive full credit therefor.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquor in less quantities than a quart, or who shall sell, barter or give away any intoxicating liquors to be drunk on the premises where sold within the City of Rensselaer, or at any point within two miles of the corporate limits thereof, without first having procured a license so to do, as provided in Section 1 and 2 of this ordinance shall upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100.00) dollars for each offense.

Sec. 4. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. Whereas: An emergency exists, this ordinance shall be in force two weeks from and after its passage and publication, in the Revised Ordinances of the City of Rensselaer.

You Will Want Campaign Songs.

The best, the most complete, the greatest variety and the most popular campaign songs are found in the New and Revised Edition of the Alliance and Labor Songster.

Over 85 patriotic political, comic and society songs, with popular and familiar music.

Over 100,000 copies have been sold, and the new edition is better than ever, for the best songs written in the past five years have been added to the former choice collection.

The peculiar charm of this book lies in the fact that you already know the music—familiar tunes that you have sung since childhood, and you do not have to spend half the summer in learning a new tune when you don't like after you get it learned.
