

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS.

MAPPENINGS ØF A WEEK.

THE WALLACE
Machine and Foundry Co.

LAFAYETTE,
INDIANA
•
SECOND AND MECHANIC
STREETS

MANUFACTURERS
OF
Structural Iron Work.
Engines, Boilers,
Shafting, Pulleys,
Hangers and Brass and Iron Castings of Every Description

John Essen was over from Brook Saturday.

Henry Welsh drove over from Remington Saturday.

George Besse of Remington made a business visit to the county seat Saturday.

For first-class windmills and water tanks call on Judson H. Perkins.

A. L. Willis can do your bicycle repairing. Shop in Nowels block.

Go to the Rensselaer planing mill for water tanks or cisterns. Prices the lowest.

J. J. Fredrick and daughter of Medaryville were guests at Charles Hershman's Monday night on their way to Chicago.

Mrs. C. E. Hershman has received her fall stock of millinery, consisting of walking hats, sailors, and Tam o' Shanters. Her prices are always below all competitors.

Positively, going to quit the clothing business. All goods are going at cost at The Model.

E. M. Parcels guarantees satisfaction on all laundry; new neck bands and re-pairs free. Sends every Wednesday.

See Boys long Pant Suits from $2.00 upward. LOUIS WILDBERG Manager.

Rev. and Mrs. Paradis arrived home last Friday and he preached as usual in the Presbyterian church last Sunday.

Oscar Phegley has rented Henry Eglebach's farm south of town, and will move on to the same this fall. He has commenced plowing for wheat. Mr. Eglebach has rented the large stock farm of Milt Wasson south-east of town, and will take possession Oct. 1st.

Miss Iva Washburn is attending the Wheaton (Ill.) College, receiving instruction in music, delsarte and elocution. She will remain a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Washburn and Miss Eva Washburn, left today by carriage for Berrien county, Mich. They will visit at South Bend on their return. They expect to return in two weeks.

Preaching at Sayler school house Sunday, Sept. 13, at 3:00 p.m., by F. L. Austin.

The Ideal does not want to be slighted come and see what I can do for you LOUIS WILDBERG, Mgr.

W. W. Wilson, secretary of the I. O. O. F. met the home lodge Monday evening. He reports a flattering increase in the membership of Foresters in this state.

Isaac Leopold of Wolcott was at the parental home on Sunday, nursing a swollen neck.

Mrs. Anna Tuteur has returned from a visit with mother and sisters in Peoria, Ill.

Mr. Erihart, the cement man, is laying a pavement on front street in front of Judge Haley's residence.

Mrs. Simon Leopold is visiting her sister at Peoria, Ill.

Farmers are hauling their old oats to market.

The Farmers Institute at Parr last Monday was a grand success.

A full house at Brushwood school house listened attentively to the silver talk by David Shields and others Monday night.

Carpenters are complaining of a lack of employment.

B. S. Fendig has added poultry and eggs to his line of business. He always pays the highest market price in cash. Place opposite the Macever house.

Harry Curry is spending his vacation in Paoli, Ind.

Editor Marshal has new cement walks in front of his residence.

"Wake up little Jacob, day is breaking," so said DeWitt's Little Early Risers to the man who had taken them to arouse his sluggish liver. A. F. Long.

Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A. F. Long.

New England Supper.

The Wallace Shows were fully up to expectation, being a clean and meritorious exhibition in every particular. The management reported Rensselaer the best show town so far visited in Indiana.

Attorney J. K. Stinson of Hammond was in Rensselaer yesterday.

James W. McEwen attended the Presbytery at Monticello this week.

Elmer Hughes has bought a restaurant at Rensselaer and moved to that city this week to take charge of the business. He is an industrious and honest young man and has many friends here who will wish him success in his enterprise.—Monticello Herald.

About forty of our young people indulged in a circus party last Friday night, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McCoy. After the circus they had a banquet at the Nowels House as a grand finale. Mr. Frank Hardy of Remington and Mr. L. S. Nold of Chicago were among the number.

Mrs. W. H. Beaver of Milroy township presented the editor's wife with a basket of the most delicious peaches that we have seen this year. The fruit was taken from seedling trees planted by Mrs. Beaver herself.

Fred Hopkins, son of George Hopkins died today. Thursday, Sept. 10, at his home in the east part of town.

Rev. R. Sylvano Morgan pastor of the Christian Church at Valma, will preach next Lord's day on the following themes: "The Great Emancipation" at 10:30, and "The Great Highway of Glory" at 7:30.

Miss Kittie and George Scott are visiting in Ohio.

Labor day last Monday.

J. P. Hammond of Demotte was in town Monday.

Miss Clara Goddard of Morocco, is visiting Stella Parkinson.

Mrs. Lee Glazebrook is seriously sick.

A report of the Parr Farmer's Institute is omitted this week but will appear in the next issue.

Geo. Kessinger, who recently purchased the City Dairy of Marion Adams, is getting the business nicely in hand and supplying his large list of customers with a very excellent quality of milk.

Charles G. Harrington and Elizabeth A. Hilton have been issued license to marry by the county clerk; also James H. Meyers and Mary L. Fisher.

Rensselaer fire department met in the council chamber Wednesday night. Chief Parcels presiding, 23 members present. Some routine business was transacted, and it was reported that Robert Platt, member of the department, was seriously sick, whereupon a motion was made, and adopted, that, if needed, in all such cases, a competent nurse be employed and his services paid for, out of surplus fund of the department.

George E. Vincent and wife were in town today and brought as a souvenir from brother Geo. G. Thompson some of the most perfect samples of potatoes that we have seen this year, real silver beauties, Bryan prolifics, 16 to 1 — sixteen big ones to one little one.

People's Party Primaries. The reports of the people's party primaries given below were omitted from publication last week by mistake.

The following are the delegates selected:

Representative convention to be held at Goodland, Sept. 12, Frank Welsh, U. Iliif; alternates, Willard Pruett, Geo. Brown.

Judicial convention to be held at Goodland, Sept. 12: Howard Burr, Louis Welsh; alternates, Lewis Simmon, James Bulis.

County convention to be held at Rensselaer, Sept. 26: John Kellner, John Gray, Christopher Kuoppsinger, Jr., Geo. Wortley, John Reed, Sr., Ed. Bullis, James Bicknell, Chas. Harris, James Lister; alternates, Jos. Shide, David Garrison, Louis Simmon, John Ulm, Geo. Nicholson, Wellman Michaels, Geo. Kennedy, Wm. Nowels, Morris Besse.

The alternates in each case representing the delegates in the order in which they appear in list above.

The Marion primary selected J. A. McFarland and O. K. Ritchie delegates to Goodland to both judicial and representative conventions.

The delegates to county convention are L. L. Ponson, D. B. Nowels, Horatio Ropp, J. Pierce, Wm. Washburn, Thos. Robinson, Lee Glazebrook. No alternates.

Card of Thanks.

In behalf of our bereaved sister, Mrs. Crosscup, we desire to express thanks to the friends who bestowed their many acts of kindness during the sickness and final loss of her loved baby boy.

ARTHUR H. HOPKINS.

Hopkins.

George N. Dunn of Tefft is in town this week on political business.

"Wake up little Jacob, day is breaking," so said DeWitt's Little Early Risers to the man who had taken them to arouse his sluggish liver. A. F. Long.

Jacob L. Huber has an advertised letter at the Rensselaer postoffice.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Pilot Publishing Company, held at Rensselaer, Saturday, Sept. 5, 1896, the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: D. H. Yeoman, Wm. Washburn, James Pierce, D. B. Nowels, Geo. Besse, A. Stimpson, M. L. Adams. A meeting of the directors is called for Saturday, Sept. 19th, at which all are requested to be present as the subject of leasing the paper to F. D. Craig for another period is to be considered.

Rev. C. E. Voliva has resigned his place as pastor of the Missionary Baptist church here and will go to Louisville, Ky., the last of the month. He will preach as usual next Sunday.

Joe Lakey is at home again.

Horatio Ropp's children have been sick for a few days, but are better now.

In another place in this paper is a call for a non-partisan free silver county convention to be held in Rensselaer, Sept. 24th.

The Presbyterian ladies ask your attendance at their New England supper.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve a genuine New England supper at Hemphill's new livery barn, Wednesday evening, Sept. 16, at 6 o'clock. There will be entertainment in the evening, corn husking, (with red ears) apple paring, music, etc. Admission 10c, supper 20c.

Look out for the red ears at Presbyterian corn shucking, next Wednesday evening. There will be red lips there too.

Miss Mary Meyer is in the city this week buying fall millinery and studying the styles.

obituary.

Alfred N. Crosscup, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Crosscup, died Saturday morning, aged 8 months; funeral Sunday afternoon, at residence of Mrs. Mary E. Hopkins, Rev. Paradis and Dr. Utter officiating. The little one had never been a strong child after an attack of whooping cough when it was about 3 months old, and the last illness was of about ten days duration.

Wanted--Help

There are employed in the Pilot office five very interesting young ladies. The perambulating fortune teller made their acquaintance this week and at the lump price of 60 cents fathomed the mysterious future for them, and they are all happy beyond the power of mere words to express. They are all to be married, and very soon, and it is probable that vacancies will result in this office, and to avoid the serious inconvenience that is sure to follow, the manager is ready to receive applications to fill the vacancies as they are scheduled to occur.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by F. B. Meyer.

Come to the Ideal and see what I can do for you, even if you are not prepared to buy today. No trouble to show goods LOUIS WILDBERG Manager.

Positively, going to quit the clothing business. All goods are going at cost at The Model.

Lots in the Leopold addition adjacent to the court house are the choicest of any in the city.

James H. Chapman loans B. & L. money. Number of payments limited.

Buggies and carriages sold cheaper by C. A. Roberts than elsewhere.

REAL ESTATE.

Edward T. Biggs, Admr. to Alfred Kohler, Mch. 19, nw ne 12-8-9. Adm. D. 8 600.00

Mary Boston to Mina Goepf Aug. 24, nw 5-29-5, sw 32-30-5, 205.45 acre 10,000.00

Lewis E. Nice to John L. and Sarah C. Love, Dec. 21, 1895 nw 23-31-7. 5,600.00

Ered E. Bowman to Robert Parker Nov. 21, 1895, und 1/2 1c, bl 18, Rem. 500.00

Salli P. Hines to Robert Parker Dec. 25, 1895 und 1/2 1c bl 18, Remington 500.00

John J. Foster to Warren Springer Sept. 1, e 1/2 ne 29-31-6, se 20-31-6 1/2 sw 20-31-6, sw nw 21-31-6 w 1/2 sw 21-31-6, se 21-31-6, all 91-28-6, nw 1/2 ne 29-31-6 ne nw 29-31-6, 1,400 acres Q. C. D. 1,000.00

William H. Owens to Myron S. Brown Apr. 4, 1c 12 in nw 19-29-6, 5 acres 500.00

John A. Kent to Swin. May 6, its 3 and 4, bl 13, Fair Oaks, 200.00

Cornelius Abbrini to Wesley King Sept. 5, 1/2 nw 13-32-5, 200.00

William B. Austin to Lurinda Fry Aug. 31, 1895 and 6, bl 8, Fair Oaks 400.00

Leona F. Gummire to S. L. Derby Lumber Co., Aug. 25, ne 4-28-5, 191 acres, e 1/2 se 29-31-6 80 acres, w 1/2 sw 29-31-6, 80 acres 155.00

George N. Dunn of Tefft is in town this week on political business. 14,000.00

The Only Exclusively Shoe Store.

Judge Haley has enlarged his shoe store by building an extention for his repair shop. This enlargement gives him a very nice sales room, and he has received this week a large stock of new goods, which will give him a very complete line of all kinds of shoes for all kinds of people. The judge has no clerks or rent to pay and these are items that enable him to make lower prices than others can do.

Hollister & Hopkins have leased the Monitor Roller Mills for another year refitted the same with some new machinery and are prepared to do all kinds of milling. They thank the public for its liberal patronage in the past and trust to merit a continuance of the same.

Tuesday is children's day at the state fair, and the schools of Indianapolis and surrounding country for many miles are suspended for the day and from 7.00 a.m. until dark drives them home, the large grounds will be a seething, moving mass of happy children, all the guests of the state board. There is no happier day for the ordinary child than the day at the State Fair.

Joe Lakey is at home again.

Horatio Ropp's children have been sick for a few days, but are better now.

In another place in this paper is a call for a non-partisan free silver county convention to be held in Rensselaer, Sept. 24th.

Rev. C. E. Voliva has resigned his place as pastor of the Missionary Baptist church here and will go to Louisville, Ky., the last of the month.

Joe Lakey is at home again.

Horatio Ropp's children have been sick for a few days, but are better now.

In another place in this paper is a call for a non-partisan free silver county convention to be held in Rensselaer, Sept. 24th.

Rev. C. E. Voliva has resigned his place as pastor of the Missionary Baptist church here and will go to Louisville, Ky., the last of the month.

Joe Lakey is at home again.

Horatio Ropp's children have been sick for a few days, but are better now.