Our I's and.... ...Other Eyes.

Our I's are just as strong as they were fifty years ago, when we have cause to use them. But we have less and less cause to praise ourselves, since others do the praising, and we are more than willing for you to see us through other eyes. This is how we look to S. F. Boyce, wholesale and retail druggist, Duluth, Minn., who after a quarter of a century of observation writes:

"I have sold Ayer's Sarsaparilla for more than 25 years, both at wholesale and retail, and have never heard anything but words of praise from my customers; not a single complaint has ever reached me. I believe Ayer's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier, that has been introduced to the general public." This, from a man who has sold thousands of dozens of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, is strong testimony. But it only echoes popular sentiment the world over, which has, "Nothing but words of praise for Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Any doubt about it? Send for "Curebook" It kills doubts and cures doubters. Address J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Brookfield Services will be used again in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening.

A Surprise Party.

On Monday, Sept. 28th, a large surprise party met at the home of Mr. E. Pullins, in Gillam township. The surprise was planned by Mrs. E. Pullins and Miss L. Faris in honor of their mother's, Mrs. W. Faris, fifty-seventh birthday, and their uncle and aunt's, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Prevot, forty-second wedding anniversary. There were fifty-eight persons present and all but four families were related to the parties. At noon the wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Greenway and Mr. and Mrs. Prevot, with condescending grace, repeated the vow they made forty-six years ago. A bountiful dinner was provided to which ample justice was done. After spending a pleasant day the guests left for their homes leaving behind many presents and good wishes.

Overcoat Lost.

Some time ago I loaned my overcoat to one of my friends, whose name I can't now recall, and as the time for its use seems near at hand, I would ask for the return of the garment,
