THE PEOPLE'S PILOT.

BY F. D. CRAIG, (Lessee.)

PILOT PUBLISHING CO., (Limited.) Proprietors.

DAVID H. YOMAN, President, WM. WASHBURN, Vice President, LEE E. GLAZE, Sec'y, J. A. McFARLAND Treas.

THE PEOPLE'S PILOT is the official organ of the Jasper and Newton County Alliances, and is published every Thursday at

ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM

Entered as second class matter at the post office in Rensselaer, Ind.

The three cent street car fare bill for Indianapolis passed and is now a law.

What have we to offer capital but perpetual servitude? Remember, "bonds are instruments of bondage, and bondage implies servitude?"

The old park theatre of Indianapolis, the oldest playhouse in the state was totally destroyed by fire Sunday night. It will be rebuilt at once.

Mr. McKinley is starting out as a wonderful party harmonizer, and in consequence every patriot in search of a place is feeling renewed assurance.

A Washington writer, close to the president, states that every surviving member of the 23rd Ohio Infantry, McKinley's old regiment, is a candidate for office.

President McKinley has started in with a new method for dispensing patronage. He will not recognize favorites of any faction, but when factional differences do exist, applicants from those sections must bear the endorsement of both senators and representatives.

Governor Mount refused to sign senate bill No. 21, authorizing the issuance of additional bonds to complete the Jasper county court house. As he did not veto the bill, it of course becomes a law. Evidently the Governor did not think it a very meritorious measure.

Col. Bob Ingersol was held up in Chicago Sunday night while walking to his theatre where an $1,800 audience was in waiting. The stranger demanded some of his cash and in reply was given a right and left hander that knocked him clean out, when Robert proceeded as if nothing had taken place.

When we see announcements that the Association of Methodist Clergymen of the United States, said to number 15,000 in membership, is to hold forth at LaPorte beginning June 15th, the public begins to inquire if this is another trust or combination to perfect methods for enforcing collections on delinquent quarterage.

They say horses are bringing a little more of late, but how many more it takes to lift a $1,000 note from the bank than it did 15 years ago or rather, how many more horses can a $1,000 mortgage raise than it ever could before? Some folks would call this getting more horse into the dollar. A strong healthy horse is nothing compared to a robust healthy, capacious dollar.

When the fierce flames were marching with resistless fury through the heart of Chicago years ago, the terror-stricken people fled in blank despair before the scourge, helplessly bewailing their sad fate. The wisdom of the engineer who saved the threatened city was worth more to Chicago than all the money loaned by syndicates to rebuild the waste places. The lesson of this is that there is other capital than cash. Cash is the most expensive capital we can employ. Let us procure an inventory of all the capital we HAVE and see what cash will be required.

Learn Your Oppressor's Secret.

How many thousands in all parties to-day would jump at the opportunity to take an object lesson requiring forty minutes time in which to see for himself that he has been a blinded slave to an ingeniously divided illusion which loses all its power to deceive when once exposed? And in fact there is no superiority in rank because one of you is labeled Democrat, Republican, Populist or Socialist. You are all warring against each other, forgetting the fact that you are all each others' customers, but lacking the DISTRIBUTIVE FACTOR which combines your self interests with those of each one in the varied ranks of productive enterprise. The populist thinks that money is the sole distributing factor. The socialist that ownership of the tools and land is the vital force to be conquered. The banker has adjusted his methods of business to make one dollar of money accomplish transactions which all others require 25 dollars to effect. And no matter how small the volume of circulating medium is reduced, that one man can continue the faster to roll up his fortunes. He has gained the secret of distributive science and uses money only to transfer his profits. If the very same methods can be utilized by others in effecting transfers and exchanges of the varied fruits of individual toil and genius, is it not the part of wisdom to seek it? It can be found. It has been demonstrated time after time, and comes now as the long sought solution following the ineffectual palliatives of Grange, F. M. B. A., Alliance, trades unions, protective associations, merchantile associations, all of whom have left out the others, which in the economy of nature and business, are necessary to complete success. Why not direct your attention to acquiring that information and get into line with concentrated effort already at work, which by experiment and continued success is demonstrating that the key to escape from present environments has been found, and strange as it may sound, it is not in party politics.

Style in Literature.

It Gives a Flavor of Its Own to Every Sentence an Author Writes.

"Not only is their thought, but their language is so much better than your average language," says "Droch," with reference to standard fiction in the January Ladies Home Journal. "I do not mean," he adds, "simply correctness of speech, but something finer, that is called style. Style has been written about very learnedly by learned men. In its highest development it is the very essence of culture, knowledge and artistic temperament that gives a flavor of its own to every sentence that an author writes. But without entering into the subtleties of style it is surely evident to every reader of average intelligence and sensibility that there is a great difference in the manner of telling a story, for instance. It does not require a subtle mind to feel the difference in the telling of Hawthorne's 'Scarlet Letter' and Hugh Conway's 'Called Back.'"

By common consent Hawthorne is acknowledged the best master of style that America has produced. When you have read one of his stories—no matter how dark the crime that he has studied in it—you never feel that he has dragged down your thoughts. It is not only because he is a great moralist in his stories, but because he is a great master of style also. His language is elevated, poetic, fascinating. It makes the appeal to what is fine in your nature, rather than to what is gross."

Municipal Ownership in Belfast.

Washington, Mar. 9.—The city of Belfast, Ireland, has been making a large profit on the gas works controlled by it. Last year's profit was £67,377, ($386,000). It has been decided to lower the cost to consumers, although the present price is ridiculously low, according to American standards. Hereafter gas will be sold for 60c per 1,000 ft. instead of 66c, and there will be a discount of from 5 to 20 per cent dependent upon the amount consumed; all this, too with coal at $3.09 a ton.

When a dozen of eggs or a pound of high grade butter equal or exceed in value a bushel of corn, as they have for several weeks past, the farmer's wife arises to a position of business import that is alarming to the head of the family, who sees he gets more for a case of eggs than he does for a load of corn. He feels this state of affairs more when he reflects that eggs are practically nearly all profit while his corn is raised at very little, if any profit, if his labor is counted. Alas! has it come to this, that there is more yearly profit in an humble, industrious, neglected fowl than in one of those rich, broad acres? And just notice how the tiller of the soil raises his hand in horror when his good wife asks for a dollar's worth of lumber to shelter her chickens, but notice also that he will buy a whole raft of it to build cribs for corn that brings 16 or 17 cents a bushel. We know it is true on many farms this year the wife's butter, eggs and poultry money has saved the family from real financial embarrassment. This department of the farm is at present attended by the women, the men being busy with other affairs, or perhaps thinking it too trifling a thing for them. It might be a good thing for them to give some time and assistance to these always profitable things. —Democrat Journal, Winnemac.

The big Chicago merchants unite in displaying an elaborate appeal to all the people of the country to unite in diffusing "confidence" throughout the land. A trick as old as confidence games themselves, pledging prosperity conditional on confidence, then appealing to the tribute payers to furnish the confidence. This is an age of "con" men, "con" games, "con" politics, and "con" politicians. It cannot exempt the machinery of any party from partaking in its sham pretension. Confidence! Confidence, and homeless idle victims.

Sharon Items.

Muddy roads. Everything lively and the goose hangs very high.

Plenty of ducks and nimbros are after them now in earnest.

Mr. Isaac Blake has been very sick for some time at his home with pulmonary trouble but is reported as being on the mend.

Mr. Walter Talbert is very low with lung fever at his home three miles south of here.

Mrs. Desbrow an aged lady and son are on the sick list and are unable to be around.

Charles Sigman and Lou Anderson were in Juiyville last week on business.

Will Sigman will fill a farm position for Mr. Ward the coming season.

Joseph Scheurich our whole-souled Joe had the misfortune to cut his hand very badly last week severing an artery.

John Zimmer is shelling the rent corn on the Harris farm under the charge of F. Duvall. Harris being a resident of Ill.

Frank Shafer of Mackinaw, Illinois has rented and moved on the Harris farm south of here, he having leased it for five years.

D. V. Garrison is in Chicago with a car load of hogs and cattle of his own feeding.

There was preaching at the Green school house 4½ miles south of here last Sunday, quite a few from here attending.

John Davis has rented the Littlefield farm and moved his effects to that place last week.

Wilbur Davis has secured a position with D. V. Garrison and will move on his farm in a short time.

A petition is understood to have been circulated for a change in the supervisorship. We certainly need one, a competent man at that. Give us better roads or more boats.

There was a spelling school at the Slaughter school house last Friday night, a number being present from the Wood school. As usual the Slaughter school came out ahead.

Charles Slaughter the new blacksmith is located now in Sharon and can be found at his shop ready to do your work.

George Shoe of Remington has purchased the Robert Parker farm and moved onto his farm last week.

John Havens has moved to the Jones farm 3½ miles northwest of town.

Albert McNeil and wife have moved to the Kendall property.

Quite a number from here were in the county seat doing business last Saturday.

Sigman Bros. have rented the Martini farm and will farm it the coming season.

William Healy was doing business in Remington last week.

Albert Duvall and wife have returned from Virginia and Illinois and are comfortably situated in their new home.

Albert Farmers school closed at Queen City last Friday with a dinner and a general good time. He has given excellent satisfaction and the patrons of the school wish his services the coming year.

There was a social hop at Mirt Chilcotes on the range line last Tuesday night and a general good time is reported.

Jake Zimmer is home from Bloomington, Ill., where he has been visiting his sister. Miss Mary will remain the coming summer with relatives.

We are able this week to give the readers of the Pilot the celebrated McKinley pudding receipt also to fill future orders, which is as follows. Take 3 gallons of confidence, 1 peck of international agreement, 1 quart of gold standard, 7 table spoonsful of prosperity, 2 quarts of sound money, 1 pound of protection. Directions: Boil with 12 months of no work for one hour. Eat while hot and send for the doctor.

Remington Notes.

John Barnett has been on the sick list for the past week or so, being confined to his bed for the greater portion of the time.

The petition to the Board of Town trustees asking for the passage of the curfew ordinance was presented last Friday evening. The petition was signed by about one hundred and fifty interested persons. After some discussion the prayer of the petitioners was granted, and the town attorney was directed to prepare an ordinance to govern in such cases, for presentation at the next regular meeting of the Board of Town trustees.

Interesting meetings were held in the Christian church last Sunday the occasions being devoted to the cause of foreign missions. The Sunday school contributed the day's receipts, amounting to $3.42. The Christian Endeavor Society and the church proper contributed liberally also, so there was no trouble in raising the amount demanded from this church which was 25.00. Sisters Booher and Anderson the latter of Monticello were in attendance at all these meetings and both gave interesting talks. Sister Booher filled the regular Sunday evening appointment. Her discourse on the subject of missions was good. These two estimable ladies organized an auxiliary branch of the women's foreign missionary society here under very flattering auspices, and much good is expected to result therefrom.

James U. Green who has been sick so long does not seem recover so rapidly as his friends would wish. He was however a little better a day or two ago when we last heard from him.

Miss Lizzie Green sister of Ed N. Green of this place is also very sick, at the residence of her brother. She has been very ill for about 3 weeks and does not appear to make any perceptible improvement we hope she soon may recover.

Frank Stoudt the horseman has moved from Monticello back to Remington. He now occupies the Morehead property on North East Railroad street.

Mrs. Casey, a widow and the daughter of John Reed of Jordan township died at Long Cliff asylum near Logansport last week very suddenly. The remains were brought to Remington, and buried in the Catholic cemetery near here on Tuesday of that week.

There is considerable amount of moving in this locality this March. The houses here which were empty the forepart of the winter are nearly all now occupied many of these by persons from the country who find that farming does not pay.

"The Donation Party" which was given here last Thanksgiving by our young people under the auspices of the ladies of the Christian church will by special request be given again on Saturday evening the 13th inst. This play is highly spoken of, by all who formerly saw it, the parts being all admirably rendered. All are invited to attend. You will get the value of your money.

William Warren and his little son of Rensselaer was in Remington last Wednesday, the former on business, while here they paid your correspondent a short visit.

Cleveland is out. McKinley is in. We are glad of the change but what will the Harvest be? For all except those in high places.

Mr. and Mrs. Paine went to Chicago last week. When they returned they brought with them the little six months old daughter of Mr. Paine's adopted sister. The father of the little one died a short time ago and the mother was not expected to live.

Mrs. Hattie Shepherd went to Chicago Monday. She will probably enter a hospital there for treatment.

An early ex-president was elected justice of the peace after retiring from Washington. Cleveland need not begin to let his ambition vault itself on that account, though. The early ex-president referred to was mentally and morally qualified for the office.—Chicago Dispatch.

A co-operative society in Chicago has abolished money. It is only fair to Mr. Cleveland to say that they were greatly assisted by him and his late secretary of the treasury.—Chicago Dispatch.
