Wm. Bennet and family have moved from their place in Barkley township to town, sharing a portion of J. C. Chilcote's residence on Weston street.

It is surprising what a "wee bit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill. A. F. Long.

Mr. Joseph H. Saylor and Miss Lydia B. Weurthner of Newton township were united in marriage at the residence of Rev. B. F. Ferguson. Friday afternoon March 5th. Love laughs at even the terror of hangman's day, or adds to its realism.

Frank M. Hanley shipped an extra fine lot of horses out of here last Friday. All heavy drafters, weighing from 1,400 to 1,770 the largest. This one only five years old is good for a much greater weight. He was raised by John Ryan of Gillam township.

J. B. Clemons, a former townsman, now of Shelby, was on our streets Saturday. J. B. will be very much impressed with the success of McKinley's administration if he succeeds in landing the Shelby postoffice, otherwise—well, all great men sometimes make mistakes.

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation seems especially adapted to this disease. It acts quickly thus preventing serious complications and bad effects in which this disease often leaves the patient. A. F. Long.

Merchants were not elated with their Saturday trade. Not only were there but few people in town but what were persistently refused to exchange their pockets full of good old dollars for goods at least until the McKinley times have caused a few more "marked down" announcements.

They are so small that the most sensitive persons take them, they are so effective that the most obstinate cases of constipation, headache and torpid liver yield to them. That is why DeWitt's Little Early Risers are known as the famous little pills. A. F. Long.

George E. Murray of Ellis & Murray is now sole owner of the well known property between the Odd Fellow's Temple and the Citizens Bank on which the Spitzer building stands. Mr. Murray already held a half interest buying the other half from William B. Austin. Improvements are not announced as yet.

Since the last issue of the PILOT was mailed our time has been largely absorbed by enterprising undertakers, showing us their new spring styles in ascension wardrobes, and good bye accessories in general. The cause assigned for these ante-mortem precautions is the precedent established by the county coronor of holding inquests and then encompassing the silent victims in old style habiliments regardless of whether in life such are the selections they would have made. Our order is placed subject to the pleasure of the Hon. Park Wright, who is to turn us over to the firm presenting our written order.

We have held our forms twelve hours hoping for our patents to arrive but in vain, hence we are obliged to come to our readers with only four pages this week.

On entering one of the leading business places of Rensselaer, Monday morning we observed the manager adjusting his business to the new conditions. Marking down goods fifty cents on the dollar. This is the first positive evidence of McKinley confidence, and the resulting prosperity. The merchant is confident now, he cannot sell his goods at a profit and is adding the prosperity which was to accompany confidence. Which being a minus quantity reduces the price. They are here just as promised but not the kind he was looking for.

Quite an effort was made before the county commissioners last week Wednesday by the trustee of Marion township to have the line between Union and Marion changed so as to throw Burk's bridge into Union. A chunk of 160 acres would have to be taken out of the northeast corner of Marion, making an ugly jog, and diverting the boundary from its natural line. The line was established in its present place about a year ago after a careful canvass of the facts before the commissioners by attorneys pro and con. The petition presented Wednesday had been kept a profound secret from the people of Union and was signed by only 35 voters of Marion. The board very properly ignored the petition.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The more people agree with us the more use we generally have for their opinions.
Some women seem to think they can influence a man in about the same way they shoo chickens.
As soon as a girl gets married all the other women watch her to see how soon she will begin to age.
When a girl has been told that she has a spiritual face she begins to try to put on a dreamy, rapt expression.
A woman never feels the real joy of shopping till she has pussed another woman's hair at a bargain counter.
A girl will give a man a silver flask with a monogram on it for a Christmas present and then get mad if he uses it.—New York Press.

THE ARCHER.

There are those who sit in splendor, throned amidst the fruits of toil.
Taken from the hand of labor, without price, as lawful spoil.
From all such I turn in sadness, and my tearful eyes behold,
Those who waste this wealth and splendor, dying now from want and cold;
Those to whom the earth in gladness yields her wealth and treasures grand,
Starving, dying, for the values made with their own willing hands.
Hearts that feel, and hands that labor, most do elevate the race,
Founding cities, building railroads, giving trade and commerce space.
Hearts that feel for human sorrow, hands that open for the poor.
Most do brighten every morning, most the ending of the day,
To all such "The Archer" cometh with a kind assuring smile.
Bidding every soul that loveth justice to be firm awhile.
For the day when mammons triumph seems to him the most assured
Comes the whispered note of warning not to be misunderstood.

Millions now are all in motion, like the troubled ocean's breast,
Forming into bands of Brothers, to relieve their sore distress,
And it is to aid the movement for the mustering of the clans
That "The Archer" comes among you, and with wide extended hands
Both to help, and to exhort you to be firm and true and brave
'Till the hosts of mammon scatter, 'till he calls no man his slave.
When the soil we love and cherish yields to labor all her store
Then our mission will be ended and our struggles all be o'er.
—W. P. SMITH.

Legislature Adjourns.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 8.—The LXth general assembly adjourned sine die at 8 o'clock to-night. Only one bill, that restricting the powers of township trustees, was passed to day. The governor sent to the senate four vetoes, all of which were sustained. The bills to which he objected were one legalizing the action of county commissioners in making settlements with county treasurers under the fee law of 1879, a bill changing the practice with to contesting wills, and a bill making some changes in the ditch laws. The house sustained the veto of the bill establishing the state board of pharmacy, sent in last Saturday. The session resulted in putting 157 new laws on the statute books.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill. was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at F. B. Meyer's drug store. William Michaels is now the champion shot since his recent practice on a very large gray wolf if he did have to shoot three times. This wolf hunt has resulted in some bad feeling on account of so many wire fences being cut, but this is of small consequence in the amount of poultry these animals have destroyed. There have been four in the neighborhood of Walter Porter's this winter.

Notice to stockholders of the Farmers' Scale Co. of Foresman and vicinity are requested to meet at the Raymond school house March 18, 1897. Business that must be attended to, all are requested to be present. By order of the president.

SOLD HIS WIFE.

A Missourian Parts With the Partner of His Woes For the Sum of $15.

The right and title to a woman were sold at Chillicothe, Mo., recently for $15. C. E. Demitt selling his wife for that amount to Robert Winston of Carrollton. Winston and Demitt are friends, and the latter says he knew his wife would live with Winston, but would not live with him.

The Demitts are from Albany, and Mrs. Demitt has a divorce case pending there. Winston is also suing for a divorce at Carrollton, and it was stated that one of the terms of the sale was that Demitt should not appear against his wife when the case comes to trial. Winston and his cheaply purchased treasure left on a trip to Illinois, and Demitt accompanied them to the depot, bidding them a friendly goodbye. Shortly after their departure he was arrested for attempting to pass a counterfeit bill.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
