

The Republican.

THURSDAY, MAY 24, 1879.

CITY AND COUNTY.

The weather is too cold for comfortable fishing.

Miss Clara Heffly of Rochester, is visiting at J. W. Cleveland's.

J. W. Wilfong is putting a two story house in front of his old one.

Albert Cressner has sold his new stand to O. L. Stacy and is going to Indianapolis.

Wm. Schofield, a North township widower, and a Miss Miller, were united in matrimony Sunday.

The Bible Society has just received two hundred new testaments. Call on E. K. Barnhill if you want one.

Twenty-five cents and costs was what E. Q. More said the woman who assaulted another woman must pay.

Read Simon Becker's "ad" in another column. He has been to Chicago and piles of goods are coming in.

At a meeting of the fire department last Monday evening, Andrew H. Korp was elected Chief Engineer.

The "Brick" Pomroy party have elected their Clerk and Marshal in Bourbon. It is the only town in the United States in which that party has a majority.

John D. Chipman, a Michigan City attorney, got drunk and fell off a bridge into a small stream of water near his house Monday, and was drowned in three feet of water.

John C. Kuhn says that he can be beat for Marshal but he will convince every Democrat and Republican that will call on him that he can't be beat making boots and shoes.

Under the new pension act all persons heretofore entitled to a pension, but who for any cause have not filed their applications, may claim and receive pensions for the entire back period.

Remember that the different temperance organizations of the county are requested to meet at Blue Ribbon Hall to-morrow (Friday) at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of organizing and selecting delegates to the State convention.

The Brick Pomroy party polled less than one-eighth of the votes cast at the City election Tuesday. As it is conceded that Marshall county contains one-half of all the Pomroy Greenbackers in the State, it will be seen that it is a party of immense importance.

Sylvester Logan's team became frightened on Michigan street, as he was going home Tuesday evening with his wife and Judge Fuller in the wagon. They broke the neck-yoke, overturned the wagon and getting loose from it ran back through town. None of the occupants were severely hurt.

The Greenbackers worked harder to locate Charles Leonard than any other man on the ticket, alleging that he had thrown their papers out into the street. Leonard's twenty-five majority over Koons and one hundred and seventy-three majority over Smith, the Greenback candidate, was the answer they received.

The I. P. & C. railway will give half fare tickets to all delegates attending the State Temperance convention at Indianapolis. Delegates will be entertained at the B-mey House at $1.50 per day and at the Grand and Bates, at $2 per day. The convention will be held at Masonic Hall, commencing at 9 a. m., May 21.

Tribbey & Bennett have dissolved partnership, and Tribbey assisted by G. W. Eyestone, one of the best and most accommodating clerks will continue the business at the old stand. You can get anything in the line of meats, groceries or provisions of Tom Tribbey, and our boys can tell you whether or not they keep good cigars.

Everybody knows that Plymouth was some bad boys, but nobody knew or believed until recently that there was anyone in town bad enough to pry the window-shutters off of a school house to get to throw stones through the window lights, but we are informed that somebody has been mean enough to do that very act at the third Ward school house.

The Northern convocation of the Protestant Episcopal church, of Indiana, has been in session in this city during the last two days. Quite a number of ministers are present, including Bishop Talbot. The right of confirmation has been administered to a large number, and very interesting meetings and discussions were held yesterday afternoon and evening.

Mr. Uriah Hult, one of the oldest settlers of the county, called on us yesterday to see the buck horn in the board in our office. He informs us that he saw a buck horn hanging on a limb of a tree that grew in the locality where this was found 45 years ago, that two years afterward it had become imbedded in the tree and that he saw it many times afterward before it became entirely concealed by the growth of the tree.

Without any heralding the Quaker evangelists came among us and without any attempt to create excitement they have attracted the largest audiences that ever assembled in Plymouth. For hours Mrs. Frame has held these audiences spell bound by her magic eloquence, and her earnest appeals and apt comparisons, (for she reasons by comparisons) illustrating scriptural truths have caused scores to determine that they will henceforth lead better lives.

Robert Neil was certain Tuesday evening after the votes were counted, that he could have been elected if Logan had not been a candidate, although the fact was staring him in the face that Kuhn had thirty five votes more than were given to Neil and Logan combined, yet Kuhn was beaten.

Henry Stanley, a prominent citizen residing near Tyler City, started to lead a bull from his farm to a place in the vicinity of Argos, Saturday. Just as he reached the outskirts of Plymouth after passing through it, the bull from some cause became enraged and attacked Mr. Stanley, goring him in the region of the abdominal cavity and severely injuring him about the head and shoulders. He was picked up in an insensible condition, his wounds were dressed, and on Sunday he was taken to his home. He still remained unconscious Tuesday, but little hope of recovery is entertained. Mr. Stanley is seventy years old.

The Election.

The election in this city Tuesday was unusually quiet and orderly, and the best of feeling seemed to prevail among all parties. The candidates all worked hard and a full vote was polled. The hardest fight was made on Marshal and Spencer Hogan, by the assistance indirectly of the radical temperance element of the city, was re-elected by twenty-one majority. There were four candidates for Marshal, Spencer A. Hogan, Democrat; John C. Kuhn, R-republican; Robert Neil, Greenback, and Jas. W. Logan, independent. Hogan received 210 votes, Kuhn 183, Neil 48, Logan 106. Not one of the men who voted for Logan would have voted for Hogan under any consideration, and every man who voted for Logan can now see—as the Hogan men all saw before election—that a vote for Logan was a half vote for Hogan. It is said that of the 56 votes given to Logan in the Third ward 46 were Republicans. Republicans will probably lose sometime that they can best support the temperance cause by voting the R-republican ticket. There has never been a time since the organization of the Republican and Democratic parties when a vote for the Democratic ticket was not a vote favorable to the whisky cause. Mr. Kuhn made a splendid run and should feel proud of the vote he received.

The Democrats elected P. O. Jones Mayor by 75 majority over Hess, Republican.

James A. Gilmore, Democrat, beat Shirley, R-republican, 63 votes for Treasurer. For City Clerk Charles R. Leonard comes out 27 votes ahead of Fred Koons, his Democratic opponent. Charles received a majority in every ward in the city. For Assessor, Samuel McDonald, Democrat, is elected by 74 majority.

In the First ward Stegman, Democrat, and Bennett, R-republican, received the same number of votes, and there will have to be another election. In the Second ward A. Reeves made a gallant fight against great odds and came out only twenty-four behind. As the contest was considered entirely hopeless in this ward, and Reeves had the best man in the Democratic party to run against him, he made as good a run as was ever made in Plymouth.

In the Third ward Dwight L. Dickenson, Republican, is elected by six majority over James W. Maxey, Democrat. It will be seen that taking the total vote for Councilmen in the city the Democrats are only eighteen votes ahead of the R-republicans. The Greenback party flattened out completely, only polling about sixty votes. Mr. Bender received one hundred and twenty-one votes, but personally he is popular, and it was confidently believed that he could get a hundred votes more than his ticket. Smith, for clerk on the Greenback ticket received 61 votes, and Neil for Marshal, 48 votes. The Republicans did a splendid day's work and have reason to feel proud of the result. The Democrats can no longer confidently claim a hundred majority in the City of Plymouth, and if Republicans will organize and work together as they should Plymouth will soon be classed among the Republican cities of the State.

Hymenial.

Thursday evening the grand social event of the month took place at the Episcopal church. John R. Losey led to the altar Miss Lou A. Freese and Rev. J. J. Faude pronounced the words that united them in the bonds of wedlock. The reception was a brilliant one, and the list of names of those giving presents is so long that we have not space for it. There was twirling enough to last Mr. Losey and his fair bride a lifetime. There were bed spreads, dresses, glassware, China tea sets, vases, innumerable, napkin rings and napkins, table linen, books, flowers, goblets and rocking ware of all kinds, as splendid rockery set, from the hosts of friends of both. Everybody was happy and it is needless to say that if the good wishes of many friends avail, Mr. and Mrs. Losey will live long and happily together.

Boys, call and see your old friend, John C. Kuhn. He is pegging away in his shop over the post office, and will do any work in his line as cheap as you can get it done elsewhere.

The fastest time on record was made by the man that did not buy his meat of Weber & Kuhn. When his wife told him that he could get nothing to eat until he brought home some of the splendid meat that Albert and Fred always keep,

INWOOD.

BY AQUINO.

C. L. Morris is superintending the business on the Lumber section.

W. G. Morehouse has just returned from Chicago with a mammoth stock of goods.

Weather very cool, and those farmers who have been in such a hurry about planting corn will have to replant I fear.

Mr. Charles Timmins, who was severely injured by a stump-puller falling on him, was last week removed to his home in Bucyrus, Ohio. I am glad to hear he is improving.

Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. H. Wolfert, May 31, Mr. John Henessey to Miss Jane Mathewson. May they live long, prosper and be happy with the wish of "24 pin x."

Last Friday Pres. Bright, Vice Pres. Blaine, and D. Hall, went to Green-lash school house, organized a temperance union there with the following officers: President, Alfred Kirtly; Vice Pres. B. Martindale; Secy Miss Viola Martindale; Treas. Butler McAdams.

WEST TOWNSHIP.

G. M. GRAY.

B. Hilsman has begun work on his new barn.

G. Morlock has purchased an I. X. L. wind-mill.

Died, Maria Boyer, wife of John Boyer, April 27th. Aged 22 years.

Ira Brumbaugh began manufacturing tiling and brick this week.

The cherry, plum and a few peach trees are clothed in fragrant bloom.

N. Kaufman and family left for Kansas last Thursday. He will make the trip in a wagon.

S. Colman has added in the way of improvements to his farm, a small barn and wagon shed.

Dr. Chew left last Saturday for Darke county, Ohio, where he expects to reside in the future.

G. A. Miller has closed his school in North township, and is devoting his time to farming at present.

Married, by Rev. M. Eisenhour, in this township last week, John Wolf and Miss Nancy Freese, also Calvin Kanouse and Miss Jane Phillips.

At the reorganization of the Sabbath school at the Amish church, John Keyser was elected Supt., H. Norris, assistant Supt., V. G. Troyer, Secy., and M. Robin son, Treas.

Elder Kaidley and Rev. W. G. Cook attended the German Baptist conference of Northern Ind., held near New Paris, last week. The next convocation will be in their church in this township.

T. J. Perkins delivered a lecture at the U. B. Sabbath school last Sunday. He seems to be as active at Sunday school work as he is in putting up their famous wind-mill. He expressed himself well pleased with the school.

BOURBON AND BREXES WOODS.

BY WOODS NOT.

Albert Hendricks is very sick with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Suttie has been very sick, but is convalescing.

Wm. Kershaw has changed from Mac-cumber's to Whitaker's mill.

Isaac Korman has left off work at the mill and gone to farming.

The funeral of B. Tripp's child was preached at the red school house Sunday.

Julison Mallot has bought the Pierce-ton mill and is now ready for work, having put the mill in good running order.

The men who took the lamp and singing book from the school house had better bring them back before their names are published.

A mistake occurred in our last communication. It should have been F. Tripp and wife, instead of B. Tripp, as B. Tripp has no wife.

Quite a change in Stringtown; one of the proprietors of the mill and several families have moved away, their places being filled by others.

Extra Close was severely injured a few days ago. The horse attached to the wagon he was driving became frightened, the seat tipped and he was thrown off.

W. B. Macomber's mill caught fire last week, but the force pump and hose, under the direction of Harvey Fisher sent water to the fire and extinguished the flames before much damage was done.

A girl says she will kiss the "Words Boy" if she finds him. She has been talking to him occasionally, but his modesty prevents him from showing by word or look that he writes for the REPUBLICAN.

TYNER CITY.

OCCASIONAL.

Dr. Rickey, of Donelson, has located here.

George Shoemaker has rented the Central House.

Farmers are waiting for warmer weather to plant corn.

E. S. Bissell shipped three car loads of wheat this week.

J. E. Johnson is painting and repairing his store building.

The growing wheat in this locality is badly injured by the recent frosts.

Miss Flora Parker has been engaged to teach a three months term of school.

C. L. Murray and Thomas Tyner have commenced the manufacture of tight barrels.

Esquire Neff is making quite an improvement on his residence, and is fixing things up generally.

Wm. Jarrell proposes to be a granger this summer. He has resigned his position as guard at the prison.

F. Myers and Fred Monroe have gone to Indianapolis where they expect to graduate as scientific business men.

Last Saturday, Henry Stanley, who resides near this place undertook to lead a bull from the farm of Jesse Williams to Argos; and in passing through Plymouth the bull became unmanageable, and severely injured Mr. Stanley. He was brought home Sunday where he still lies in an unconscious condition. But little hope is entertained for his recovery. This is a sad affair, as Mr. Stanley is an old and highly respected citizen.

VIEWERS AFOOT.

BY FLY.

A. B. Lewis has returned to Argos. No misadventures to report this week.

George Hebel was buried at the Argos cemetery last Tuesday week.

Pickler & Bro. have added a new stock to their store in the way of ready made clothing.

We see some persons trying to sell their invitations to the wedding for twenty-five cents each.

A telephone line has been run from the depot to Hartz's barber shop. Hartz & Maxey, proprietors.

W. E. Trebbly has made himself scarce about Argos on account of the pugilistic exercise between him and Zehner.

William Roup is not going to be behind the styles, so he has built a nobby picket fence in front of his residence.

The spire on the Advent church has been repaired and repainted. Painting done by S. O. Becker, of Rochester.

Application has been made for license to sell liquors in Argos by one of Tyner's sons. Temperance folks, bestir yourselves.

Rev. T. H. McKee delivered the best temperance lecture we have heard for some time on Wednesday evening of last week.

The corporation election passed last Monday without unusual occurrence. Having to go away from town before the returns came in, we cannot report this week.

We have heard it said that liquor resists confinement and spreads itself out on a level. Some liquor in this place seems to impart this principle of "spreading out on a level" to some men here who still love the "critter."

Mrs. Time, mother of Mrs. George Matthey died last Sunday morning. The deceased was 73 years old and leaves many relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The remains were interred at Argos cemetery Monday May 21.

Charles Montgomery was married to Miss Josephine Crook, at the residence of Mr. Adam Crook, on last Thursday evening. Ceremony performed by Rev. T. H. McKee. The happy couple took the train the same evening enroute for Toledo, O. Mr. Montgomery's home.

It is feared that Zehner, of Wolf Creek will have to shut down his grist mill of the Argos mill. The fishermen from Argos are taking out the fish from the mill pond that it is lowering the water so that if it is not stopped, it will not be deep enough to swim a tadpole, let alone running a grist mill.

The corporation council passed a dog law some time since prohibiting dogs to run at large between the first of April and November unless muzzled. Well, the ordinance is all right, i. e. it is still stuck up where it was put at first; so are the dogs all right for name of them have yet been "taken in," nor are likely to be, although they seem to have increased considerably, and are still increasing, as well as getting fat and jolly.

Neighborhood Notes.

Columbia City contains a population of 2,201.

The last brick has been laid on the Lagrange Court house.

John S. Joseph, one of the oldest residents of LaPorte county, died last week.

The Standard Times Lagrange never had a more hopeful outlook for development than at present.

The Starke County Enterprise is afraid that Knox will soon be short of girls, as most of them are leaving.

The corner stone of the new college building at Notre Dame was laid Saturday with appropriate ceremonies.

The South Bend Tribune says the Medical profession of that city has received eight accessions during the last six months.

The Valparaiso Messenger has been enlarged to a seven column quarto. It has a Ft. Wayne inside, and is one of the best Democratic papers in this part of the State.

The residence of C. L. Wernitz, at Wakarusa, Elkhart county, was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday morning of last week. Loss, $1,600; insurance, $800, in American, of Chicago.

Elkhart is soon to have another paper-mill. There are four there now running at full heat; one tissue, two wrapping and one writing paper-mill, also one pulp mill, which altogether employ 700 persons.

Capt. Shumate has completed and forwarded to Washington the list of unmarked soldiers' graves in this county. It is the intention to have the tomb-stones furnished by the government, erected on Decoration day.—Lebanon Patriot.

The Rochester Spy says the main street of that city is now used as a race course, for testing the speed of horses. Trials of speed take place every day, and everybody but the Marshal witnesses the fine races. He never sees them because the law does not allow racing.

Dissolution Notice.

The co-partnership heretofore existing between Thomas Tribbey and J. H. Bennett, under the firm name of Tribbey & Bennett, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Thomas Tribbey will continue the business at the old stand, and is authorized to collect all accounts due the firm, and settle all claims against it. All accounts must be settled at once by cash or note, Plymouth, Ind., May 1st, 1879.

THOMAS TRIBBEY.

J. H. BENNETT.

There was considerable difference of opinion among our citizens in regard to who should be city marshal, but everybody conceded that Weber & Kuhn sold the best meat in the city.

Blue Ribbon State Convention.

The second annual convention of the Indiana State Christian Temperance Union (Blue Ribbon) will meet in the temperance hall, 73 E. Market Street, Indianapolis, on Wednesday, the 14th day of May, 1879, at 2 P. M. A two days session will be held. All local unions throughout the state will be entitled to five delegates each. Please correspond with headquarters and we will issue certificates whereby the delegates will receive excursion rates over all the railroads centering in this city; all arrangements to that effect have been made. Business of much importance to the temperance people will be brought before the convention.

JOHN W. RAY, President.

D. B. Ross, Cor. Secretary.

Marshall County Temperance Convention.

The different temperance organizations of the county are requested to meet at the Blue Ribbon hall in Plymouth, Friday May 9th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of county organization. Every organized society will be allowed three delegates. Come and help to roll on the temperance ball.

Good speakers will be present to address the convention, and also the meeting at night.

H. G. TRAYNER.

V. P. State Temperance Society.

JOHN C. KUH, over the postoffice, will make or repair Boots or Shoes for all who favor him with their orders.

Out on the Street.

Tuttle & Hoover have moved their Picture Gallery to the street a few rods west of Blain's drug store, where they invite all their friends and patrons to call on them.

Experience of Years.

The experience of years has not detracted from the acknowledged excellence of the qualities of Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts, but has completely established their hold upon the tastes of all persons who love delicious flavors. They will satisfy the nicest taste.

Exquisite Pleasures.

The most exquisite pleasure is derived from Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes. His Alistia Bouquet, Sweet Cloves, Eucalyptus, and other floral handkerchief odors, are as fragrant and natural as the flowers from which they are made. They are truly delightful.

Remarkable Cure of an Inflamed Tear-duct or Passage of the Eye, Without an Operation.

Mrs. Gibson, who has a large and extensive confectionary and candy store at No. 25 East 42nd street, near the Grand Central Depot, was advised to have a silver tube inserted in the tear passage of her left eye. The enlargement and inflammation were very great. Before submitting to the operation, tried Dr. Giles' Liniment, rubbed in carefully over the inflamed duct. The inflammation disappeared, the passage became clear, and I was, through its power, able to do without a surgical operation. Also took the Liniment internally, a teaspoonful three times a day, in a wine-glass of water. Giles' Pills cures Headache.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, on Argos, on the 1st inst., by Rev. Thos. H. McKee, Mr. George R. Korman, of Toledo, Ohio, to Miss Joseph B. Crook, daughter of Adam Crook, of this county.

The high contracting parties were started upon the journey of life together amid very happy surroundings. A large company of invited guests to cheer with the family were present. The happy bride received many beautiful and valuable presents. Mrs. Crook excels in preparing a capital feed, so all testify. Early in the evening the company broke up, all leaving good wishes for the success of Mr. and Mrs. Korman.

DIED.

Susan Green, wife of Hiram Green and daughter of A. W. and Melinda Corbett. Was born January 1st, 1855, being among the first white children born in Marshall county, residing there until March 8th, 1858, when she was married and moved to the State of Iowa, where she resided most of her time until her death. She was an invalid for the last seven years suffering a great deal from complicated disease, but death finally resulted from necrosis of the stomach, which occurred on the 21st of April, 1879, in Taylorville, Iowa. She was 44 years, 2 months and 21 days old. By her request was brought to Plymouth for burial, where a funeral service was preached by Rev. Thos. H. McKee, on the 23rd inst., and she was interred in the cemetery. The happy bride received many beautiful and valuable presents. Mrs. Crook excels in preparing a capital feed, so all testify. Early in the evening the company broke up, all leaving good wishes for the success of Mr. and Mrs. Korman.

Though you weaned with affliction
Lung and tedious and severe,
Yet the hope of heaven grew brighter
As day by day she shrank from here.

Through the parting love of Jesus,
Thou didst find eternal rest;
And we have a full assurance
Thou art now with the blessed.

ACARID.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of memory, and all the other evils which will cure you, FERRIS' CHALKER. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. LEWIS, Station D, New York City.

The Greatest Remedy Known

Dr. Kline is the Discoverer. For Consumption is certainly the greatest medical remedy ever placed within the reach of suffering humanity. Thousands of once hopeless sufferers, now loudly proclaim their praise for the wonderful discovery to which they owe their lives. IN BANKRUPTCY.

In the matter of Geo. W. Unapah, Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that a second and final meeting of the Creditors of said Unapah, will be held at the office of S. B. Frasier, Banker, at Warsaw, Ind., on the 21st day of May, 1879, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose named in the 27th and 28th sections of the U. S. Bankruptcy Act of March 3rd, 1867.

SAML. RICHEY, Assignee.

Sheriff's Sale.

Pursuant to an order of sale made by the Circuit Court, of Marshall county, Indiana, in judgment of foreclosure in favor of James Livingston and against Frederick Kirtley, and Mrs. L. Smith, trustee, I will offer for sale at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, at the court house door in the city of Plymouth, on between ten and four o'clock, day time, the following real estate, to-wit:

Saturday, May 24, 1879,

The north half (1/2) of the south-west quarter (1/4) of section number seven (7), township number thirty-two (32), range three (3), east, eighty-eight and fifty-nine hundred and thirty-two (88-59) acres more or less, with all appurtenances and improvements. If the rents and profits for seven years or less do not sell for enough to satisfy a judgment of $443.25, with accruing interest and cost, the estate title and interest of the defendants will be sold.

JOHN V. ASTLEY,

Sheriff of Marshall County.

C. H. Reeve, plff's atty.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of an execution issued out of the office of the Clerk of the Marshall Circuit Court, to me directed, on a judgment in favor of James M. Wilbur, and against James Smith, I will offer for sale at
