The Republican.

THURSDAY, JULY 17th, 1879.

CITY AND COUNTY.

—Book agents abound.

—Threshing has commenced.

—Little Mack is in town this week.

—R. C. Hickman, of Rochester, was in this city yesterday.

—There were twenty-one prisoners in the county jail Monday morning.

Wm. Siders, of Marshall county, Kansas, is visiting the editor of the REPUBLICAN.

—We hear it reported that three cases of sunstroke took place in Warsaw, Monday.

—A strange woman, barefoot, ragged and drunk, was a pitiable sight on our streets Tuesday.

—Two young ladies, daughters of A. C. Elliott, of Rochester, are visiting in Plymouth, this week.

—Do not forget the "Old Settlers' convention at flowing well park, in Plymouth, next Saturday.

—The Methodist Sunday School will hereafter meet on Sunday afternoon at half past two o'clock.

—O. Miner, of Rochester, dropped in on his friends unexpectedly yesterday, on his way to Warsaw.

—Peter Hahn, of Bourbon, made us a pleasant call yesterday, and left us some money on subscription.

—The Walkerton Visitor says the shipments of huckleberries from that place average near a car-load a day.

—Friday was a very warm day, and Dr. Bower's horse, appreciating that fact, gave the doctor a ducking in the river.

—A meeting is requested of all members of St. Thomas parish at the church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion at St. Thomas' church next Sunday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

—Street Supervisor McKague is giving the tramps now in jail a chance to pay their fines by working on the streets.

—Jacob Wile, of LaPorte, was visiting his nephew, M. Allman, and other friends in this city the greater part of last week.

—Q. Hosler, of the Warsaw Republican, passed through this city Tuesday, on his way to join the Northern Michigan editorial excursion.

—The Indianapolis ladies' band, said to be the finest female band in the world, arrived at Maxenkuckee, Tuesday, and will remain a week.

—McKague is doing good work on the streets this hot weather, and our city will not contain so many pools of stagnant water after the next rain.

—Professor Bailey's Normal school in this city will commence Monday. The Professor informs us that the prospect for a large attendance is flattering.

—Prof. Ward started yesterday for Southwest Missouri to see the "lay of the land" in that part of the country. He expects to be gone about five weeks.

—Don't tell anybody that the weather is hot. Some people will probably find it out anyway, and those who do not will be happier than those who do.

—Superintendent Baily requests us to say for the benefit of teachers and others having business with him, that his office is in the Court house with the county surveyor.

—Shows nor hot weather can prevent W. Freese from keeping his subscription paid in advance. He came in Monday, saying, "I want to read nobody's paper but my own."

—We see by the Warsaw papers that J. Stickney Haskell, better known in this vicinity as Brother Haskell, is holding a series of temperance meetings at Warsaw.

—Benoni Griggs, an old citizen of this county, residing a few miles east of town, died Tuesday, and was buried Wednesday. The funeral was preached by J. B. Henry at the Jacoby church.

—It is said that a nice young gentleman, in company with the woman that Matt Cooper called his wife, cleaned off of his clothing a portion of the eggs that were thrown at the "Chicago girl."

—The great temperance camp meeting has commenced at LaPorte. It is expected to last six weeks. The L., P. & C. railway will take passengers from Plymouth to LaPorte and return for $1 35.

—Lemonade and soda water are in demand, but there are still a few persons who prefer something stronger to warm them up, and by means of a heated brain blot out the knowledge of a heated body.

—Eugene P. Rowe, local editor of the Akron, Ohio, Sunday Gazette, was in Plymouth Friday, on his way to visit friends in Laporte county. He thinks Foster has the "inside track" for Governor of Ohio.

—The weather is so warm that farmers have to rest occasionally, and all those that take the REPUBLICAN pass the time pleasantly, while those who do not are absolutely miserable. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

—Business men should recollect that the only place in this county to get note heads, letter heads, bill heads, statements, and all kinds of commercial printing perforated and bound by the Sterling binder is THE REPUBLICAN office. You can save money when you want any kind of commercial printing by calling on us.

—The Peru Herald says John S. Hale and lady, Milton Shirk and lady, John Muhlfield and lady, Lew Fulwiler and a number of other Peruvians are domiciled in their summer quarters at Maxenkuckee.

—The seasonable advice is to keep cool, not only as much so physically as is attainable, but mentally. This is bad weather in which to be fretting and fuming, worrying about business affairs, or indulging in bad temper.

—Prof. Bailey, whom the Democrat reported last week as gone to parts unknown, returned in time to take in the circus. We knew all the time that the Superintendent would be back in time to see the show come in.

—Cal Klinger, becoming disgusted with Plymouth weather, started Tuesday evening in search of the north pole. When last heard from he was in Michigan, and still going north. He expects to be gone about two weeks.

—Read the description of our new jail, that is to be. You will find it on the first page where the story is usually found, and we believe it will be more interesting to tax payers and citizens generally, than a story would be.

—We noticed from our sanctum window, Monday, that several persons went out of Max Ruge's saloon more rapidly than they went in; and somehow they seemed "kinder" doubled up when they reached the sidewalk.

—A Mr. Beatty, living two miles west of Walkerton, fell from a cherry tree, one day last week, and striking the top of a chair, broke it, and one of the rounds entered his thigh to the depth of four inches, causing a very serious wound.

—At the meeting of the N. C. T. U. last Friday evening, the following officers were elected: Pres. James H. Brink; 1st Vice Pres. Miss Etta Harri; 2nd Vice Pres. Miss Flora Cooper; Sec'y. Miss Mattie Morrill; Treas. A. Hawley.

—Mrs. James Stevens is suffering severely from pain caused by an application of medicine to remove a cancer from her upper lip. Dr. Walker, of Chicago, removed a portion of the cancer several weeks since, and it is hoped will now be able to eradicate it entirely.

—Miss Flora Falkenbury brought us nearly a quart of huckleberries Monday, that were as large as cherries. They were grown on the farm of Joel Ranstead, south of Tyner City, and we venture the assertion that larger huckleberries cannot be found anywhere on the green earth.

—Fred Beinreuther, the gentlemanly salesman, who has been with Kloepfer & Bollinger so long, left Tuesday, on an excursion among the lakes, down the St. Lawrence, through Canada, back by Niagra Falls and other places of interest. He expects to be gone two months, and we hope he will return with health much improved.

—Snyder Brothers, at their new warehouse near the L. P. & C. depot, received three hundred bushels of wheat Tuesday, from Simon Becker. The wheat was raised on Burr Oak Flats, and is of excellent quality. This is the first new wheat bought in Plymouth this season, but Albert and Dave will have bought thousands of bushels before our next issue.

—Elmer Dunham and Thad. Gandy engaged in a fight at the Haslanger hotel Tuesday afternoon, and Dunham was badly beaten. Hans Harter, in attempting to aid Dunham, was considerably bruised. We have not been able to learn particulars in regard to the origin of the difficulty, but what seems strangest, all parties concerned are said to be usually peacable.

—The L., P. & C. Railway have put a new passenger train on their road. This train going north will leave Walnut at 5:02 in the evening, Argos, at 5:12; Plymouth, at 5:35; Tyner, at 5:52, and arrive at LaPorte at 6:50. Going south this train will leave Tyner City at 5:06 in the morning, Plymouth, 5:27; Argos, 5:47 and Walnut at 6 o'clock. Tickets to LaPorte and return for $1 35.

—Major Cooper, "the reformed lawyer," who travels with a woman that he calls his wife, and tells the "boys" that she is a "d—d nice Chicago girl," got so drunk Thursday that he could not make the temperance speech promised in the evening. He was arrested show day, and plead guilty to being drunk and disorderly, was fined and sent to jail. Plymouth does not want any more such reformers. Newspapers should pass him around. No more worthless "cuse" lives than "Major Cooper.

—A. S. Ditman, postmaster, of Washington Heights, Illinois, manufacturer of and dealer in boots and shoes, also dealer in stationery, cigars, notions, etc., and general news agent for this beautiful suburb of Chicago, learned his trade with John Paul, of this city, and left here fifteen years ago. He called on us show day, and informed us that he was surprised at the wonderful change since he left here. Mr. Ditman is visiting friends and relatives in this and adjoining counties.

—The South Bend Tribune says Trustee Jackson, Jacob Klingle, John Rohrer and several other citizens of South Bend, believing that missionary work was needed at the "Stamping ground" near Walkerton, in this county went down on Sunday to inaugurate the work. Their driver got drunk, and believing that he knew more than the rest of the crowd, ignored their knowledge of roads, and as a consequence they did not get to the scene of their labors until late. Then they were compelled to confine all their efforts to reclaiming the driver. This proved a hopeless task, and they abandoned him to his fate, footed it to Walkerton and hired Jack Miller to take them home. Hatch, the livery man, and owner of the horses, went down Monday to look after his team and driver.

—Through the kindness of John S. Bender, of this place, we were shown copies of the Shanghai Courier of May 20, and 21, 1879, two daily papers printed in China, in the English language, giving a full account of the ovation to General and Mrs. Grant while at the city of Shanghai; also the public reception given them at the residence of the Hon. D. H. Bailey, consul general of the United States at that city. Mr. Bender informs us that Mr. Bailey was a passenger with him on the steamship Cuba during his trip from Liverpool to New York in December, 1874, and proved him to be an affable, courteous gentleman, an eminent scholar and jurist, a friend to the Chinaman, and an American of the true type, whose love of country and patriotism is only intensified by his absence from home. He is evidently the right man in the right place. The Courier is a six-column folio, filled with editorials, news and advertisements, and is very much like an American paper, though its columns are wider than those of the average American newspaper.

—Taken altogether the immense crowd that came to town to see the "big show" Monday, was as quiet and orderly as so large a crowd usually is, and to the casual observer there seemed but little disorder; yet the usual number of tramps were in town and a party of fifteen or twenty got into a free fight near the P. F. W. & C. depot. Ten of them were arrested and brought before his honor, Mayor Jones, who fined seven of them five dollars each and in default of payment they were sent to jail. They are now working on the streets under the direction of the supervisor. The other three were discharged. George Jones, a blind man, got blind drunk, disorderly, obscene and vulgar, was taken to jail and brought before his honor the Mayor, Tuesday morning. He was released on his promise to leave the town forever. Henry Platt, drunk and disorderly as he has been many times before, was sent to jail. Several boys from town and country were not quite so smart as they supposed they were, and were made to understand that while this is a free country, there are certain things that men and boys must refrain from doing, because community in general has certain rights that must be respected. A young lady from near Inwood was arrested, but there was no proof that she had done anything wrong and the Mayor discharged her. We suppose this is the girl referred to by our Inwood correspondent, and in justice to her we would say that the Mayor thinks she was guilty of nothing indecent, or in anywise wrong; though she may have been a little indiscreet and got in bad company.

The Walking and Shooting Contest Saturday.

The managers of the enterprise certainly made a mistake by giving their grand walking match and shooting tournament the Saturday before the circus. The show was the first of the season, and the average Hoosier, like the average of mankind in other places, would rather see a circus and menagerie combined than any other entertainment that can be given. Harvest was was not over, they could not attend both, and consequently the Walking Match Association and Shooting Club lost money, the gate fees not being sufficient to pay the prizes given; but the entertainment was a good one. The walking commenced at 2:15 p. m. The entries for the four hour race, were Stanton, of Valparaiso; White, of Valparaiso; Martindale of Walkerton; and Suydam, of South Bend. Stanton won the first prize, $50.00, making 22¼ miles in four hours to 19¼ miles made by White and 19 by Martindale. Suydam retired from the contest at the end of the fifteenth mile. Stanton walked the first five miles in 48 min. 7sec., White in 51 min. 12 sec., Martindale in 55 min. 15 sec. and Suydam in 51 min 12 sec, White was allowed to walk under protest, some of the contestants declaring their ability to prove that he was a resident of Chicago; and we understand that the judges decided that he was not a resident of the State and gave the second premium of $25 00 to Martindale, the deaf mute of Walkerton. As Suydam did not complete the race the association retained the third premium.

The "go as you please" five mile race was won by Frank Lamson, time 48 minutes, James Johnson, second; A. Short, third.

The shooting contest resulted as follows: Plymouth club, No. 1; B. Linkenhelt, 10; L. G. Capron, 8; Dr. Burket, 9; J. R. Losey, 10; total 37.

Second Plymouth club, M. C. Funk, 10; Thomas Hupp, 10; J. Sheely, 9; A. Everly, 8; total 37.

1st South Bend club; J. Johnson, 10; J. Strayer, 8; L. Cassidy, 9; D. Blyler, 10; total 37.

Second South Bend club; W. Warner, 9; A. Litzenberger, 8; S. Strayer, 10; W. Ritter, 7; total 34.

Third Plymouth club; Montgomery, 7; Shakes, 7; Hoglan, 8; C. Hoham, 8; total 30.

The first and second Plymouth clubs and the first South Bend club, having broke an equal number of balls; each man was required to shoot at five balls, or each club of four at twenty balls. The first Plymouth club broke 19 balls, the first South Bend club, 18 balls and the second Plymouth club 18 balls. The first prize, $20, was awarded to Plymouth club No. 1. Second prize, $10, South Bend club, No. 1. Third prize, $5, Plymouth club, No. 2. Linkenhelt, Burket, Losey, Funk and Hupp, of Plymouth, broke every ball at which they fired, or 15 balls each. Johnson and Blyler, of South Bend, accomplished the same feat. The Plymouth club has been organized but a few months and their skill is certainly remarkable.

The New Railraad—Where Shall it be Located?

EDITOR REPUBLICAN—

I wish to say to the people of this vicinity that if the railroad appropriation in Union township in aid of the Chicago and Atlantic railway company should be carried, one half per cent. will be payable in 1881 and one half in 1882. Providing said road is permanently located before the June term of Commissioners Court 1880, we have it from a reliable source that the narrow gague road communication between Huntington and Toledo, via. Delphus, Ohio, will be completed during this summer. The work westward to Rochester will be contracted early this fall. From Rochester, west to Chicago, two lines are under consideration, one by Maxinkuckee lake, through Starke county, and the other farther south. The adoption of one of those lines will depend upon the enterprising spirit of the people and the local aid given in favor of the respective routes.

We are indebted to Dr. Durr for the above railroad item.

Mr. Isaac Hall was sunstruck last Monday.

Harvest is nearly done and the threshing machines have commenced work.

Mr. Milo Johnson got his arm nearly half cut off last Monday, while feeding a threshing machine at the widow Lewis's. The man who was cutting bands struck at the wire band with a hatchet just as Johnson reached for the bundle.

A good many of our citizens attended the show last Monday, at Plymouth, and it is reported that one of our extremely nice young ladies now boards at Hotel de Astley for conduct unbecoming a South sea Islander and out of doors at that. Her paramour also boards at the same house. For the sake of the soiled dove's mother we suppress names.

Corn is somewhat damaged by the heavy rains.

Harvest was delayed by the heavy rains, and many who owned reapers had to use cradles to save the grain.

Several persons in this vicinity take no paper, and do not know how much they are losing by not taking THE REPUBLICAN, which gives the news not only of Marshall county but the entire world.

A fight occurred at Shively's saw mill between Shively and a man who had purchased the mill. The man had gone out to harvest, and Shively took possession and attempted to put him out when he returned, but found it too big a job, and got the worst of the fight. After getting up Shively seized a gas pipe and swore he would kill his antagonist, but the antagonist kept out of his reach, and as the gas pipe would not shoot he received no injury.
