

ONE RUMOR AT TOKIO

Bombardment of Port Arthur of Which the People There Didn't Know.

SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN FICTION

Makarov Reports the Capture of a Jap Vessel—Estimate of the Forces at the Front.

London, April 2.—A dispatch to the Central News from Tokyo says Vice Admiral Togo made another attack on Port Arthur during the night of March 30-31. The dispatch adds that it is understood the attack was for the purpose of taking soundings and ascertaining the effects of the last attempt to bottle up the Russian fleet.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—The Associated Press is officially informed that up to the present the government has received no news to confirm the statement sent by a news agency from Tokyo that the Japanese made another attack on Port Arthur during the night of March 30-31.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—A semi-official dispatch from Port Arthur bearing yesterday's date, says: "Our entire squadron left the harbor March 28, making for the Matsias Islands. At 11 o'clock the cruiser Novik sighted a steamer towing a Chinese junk. She would not stop until the torpedo boat Vrimanly fired two shots. It was the Japanese steamer Hanien Maru, on board which were found ten Japanese and eleven Chinese, various papers, telegrams and maps, and two Whitehead torpedoes. The crew was taken on board our ships, after which the vessel was taken in tow and subsequently sunk. The Novik and accompanying torpedo boats rejoined the squadron, which returned to Port Arthur."

Religious Services and Funerals.

"On March 29 the anniversary of the Russian occupation of Port Arthur was celebrated with a religious service and a military review. On March 30 occurred the funeral of the men killed on board the torpedo boat destroyer Sini during the Japanese attempt to block the port March 27. A large concourse attended the funeral. Grand Duke Boris arrived on the same day, and was given a public welcome. Viceroy Alexieff, accompanied by General Zhilinski, arrived on March 31. All is quiet."

RUSSIA'S FORCE AT THE FRONT

Correspondent Figures It at More Than Twice That of Japan.

Paris, April 2.—The Figaro's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs as follows: "A detailed list of the Russian troops in the Far East was semi-officially communicated to me today (yesterday), and though I am forbidden to betray the secrets of mobilization I am allowed to give the general figures. The list was drawn up on the evening of March 28 by the general staff at Harbin. There were then in Manchuria 170,000 infantry, 17,000 cavalry, and 250 cannon. Of this number 20,000 infantry, 5,000 cavalry and thirty-two cannon have been left off to guard the railway."

"Although the bulk of the troops is concentrated opposite Korea, the strategic front extends 1,000 kilometers, from Vladivostok to New Chwang, on the left bank of the Liao river, the right bank being considered neutral territory. By June 28, 130,000 more infantry, 30,000 cavalry and 250 cannon will have been sent out. It is estimated that the Japanese troops landed do not exceed 80,000, and that 100,000 are waiting until the commissariat is assured before being transported, as it is impossible to feed them in Korea."

SOME ALLEGED WAR FACTS

Correspondents Going to the Front—Inharmonious News from That Point.

London, April 2.—A Tokyo dispatch says that the sixteen newspaper correspondents were permitted to leave for the front yesterday, and the conclusion is that an important battle has taken place, because the conclusion previously was that no correspondents were to be allowed in front until after the first general land engagement.

Another Tokyo dispatch says that the Japanese forces that repulsed the Russians at Chong-Ju have advanced to Yang Chun, forty-five miles west, and driven the Russians out of that latter place after a brief fight. No details are given.

A Seoul report is that the Cosacks are retreating toward Wiju in much distress, having to cut down telegraph poles for fuel and being out of food for their horses, which are rapidly dying.

On the other hand a St. Petersburg "semi-official" dispatch says that in the fight at Chong-Ju the Japanese loss was ten times that of the Russians, according to Korean reports, and that the Japs were so "distracted" that they looted two Red Cross flags in tokens of surrender during the fight. The dispatch also speaks of the fight having been "crowned with victory for the Russian arms."

A dispatch from Paris says: "It is said the Russian forces in the engagement near Kasan on March 27 numbered 500 Cosacks and that the force of the Japanese consisted of about 1,100 infantry and 1,200 cavalry."

RETURNING HEROES WELCOMED

Crews of the Varig and Korsets Lined by Odessa People.

Odessa, April 2.—Expressing the feeling of the whole Russian nation Odessa enthusiastically received the survivors of the gunboat Korsets and the cruiser Varig, destroyed by the Japanese in the battle of Chemulpo. The Russian steamer Malaya with the survivors on board was sighted at 2

p. m., and a salvo from the great guns announced her arrival. A great flotilla went out to meet her and escort her to port, and the cheers afloat and ashore were continuous. All the officers and crews were decorated with crosses of St. George before they went ashore. Where Commander Stepanoff, of the Varig, walked down the gangway he received a blessing from a priest. When the crews marched ashore the police could hardly restrain the people, who finally brushed them aside and almost smothered the heroes with rough and kindly attentions. The day was full of good cheer and festivity to the returned sailors. At the city hall where the official reception took place, the city fathers offered Captain Stepanoff bread and salt upon a silver platter inscribed with the words "The welcome of Odessa to the heroes who astonished the world."

"DELAYED IN TRANSMISSION"

Apparently, This News of a Japanese Naval Defeat.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—The Novik, of Port Arthur, dated March 8, has just arrived here. It contains a telegram from Captain Reitzenstein, commanding the Russian squadron at Vladivostok, referring to the Japanese attack on Vladivostok, from which it appears that his squadron was not only in port when the enemy was expected but that it got up steam, went out and engaged the Japanese, who turned tail, Captain Reitzenstein, according to his telegram to the commander-in-chief, pursuing the Japanese till 5 p. m., when he returned to Vladivostok.

He gives the composition of the Japanese squadron as follows:—the battleship Foji, the armored cruisers Idsumo, Yakumo and Iwate, and the Togo no. 9.

An occasional correspondent of The Novoe Vremya at Vladivostok says he has been informed by an officer that following the bombardment of March 30 Japanese marines landed on the island of Patiatina, thirty miles from Vladivostok, and killed fourteen Russian families. This information was brought by Chinese and is considered unreliable.

Followed a Bad Example.

Rome, April 2.—The apocryphal plot against the life of the pope, which was reported in a London newspaper a few days ago, and promptly ridiculed by the Vatican authorities, has had a sequel in an ill-timed "April fool" story published by an insignificant newspaper here. This story was that two anarchists who intended to make an attempt on the pope's life had been arrested at a door of the Vatican with bombs in their possession. The story was false.

RUSS AND JAP EXPENDING LEAD

Many of the Mikado's Men Killed—Armed Must Be Getting Into Fighting Distance.

London, April 1.—The correspondent of The Daily Telegraph at Seoul reports that there is continuous skirmishing between Ping-Yang and Wiju, and that many Japanese have been killed. St. Petersburg, April 1.—In official circles the action of some of the newspapers here in attempting to revive hostile feeling against the United States on account of the Vicksburg incident (at Chemulpo) is sincerely deprecated. The Associated Press is authorized to announce that the government has nothing to criticize in the action of Commander Marshall in the Vicksburg, at Chemulpo. Moreover it does not sympathize with The Novoe Vremya's editorial of Wednesday pointing to the United States as the real commercial and political foe of Great Britain and Russia.

PETTIGREW A DEMOCRAT

Says That Party Has His Entire Sympathy—Hearst Gets the South Dakota Delegates.

St. Louis, March 31.—At the Democratic state convention the resolutions reaffirm the principles of Democracy, "as enunciated by Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan," and instruct the delegates to the St. Louis convention to support William R. Hearst, "first, last and all the time for the presidential nomination."

One of the features of the convention was an address by ex-Senator Pettigrew, who stated among other things that this, he believed, was the first time he had ever addressed a Democratic convention, but that his entire sympathy was with the Democratic cause.

Girl Who Has Lost Herself.

St. Louis, March 31.—A girl of about 18 years of age is being detained at the emergency hospital because she is unable to remember anything about herself beyond the facts that her name is either Annie Von Kresse or Ruse Von Kresse, and that she was born in New York. She was picked up while wandering around the streets and could not tell the officers where her home has been or anything about herself.

Mrs. Manning to Entertain.

St. Louis, March 31.—Negotiations have been completed whereby Mrs. Daniel Manning, president of the board of lady managers of the World's fair, leased a new three-story brick residence on Berlin avenue during the period of the exposition. She will take possession on April 15 and occupy the house until Dec. 15. The house is large and commodious, and well adapted for extensive entertaining.

Great Day for the Royal Arcanum.

Chicago, April 1.—Last evening the Royal Arcanum held a union meeting in the First Regiment armory and initiated 3,100 members. The day was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the order in Illinois, and 30,000 members attended the initiation.

Strike of Machinists Likely.

Chicago, April 1.—A general strike of the 1,000 machinists on the Santa Fe road from Chicago to California may be called within twenty-four hours, according to T. L. Wilson, forty-five president of the International Association of Machinists.

CITIZENS PUT IN OBJECTIONS

Matter Is Shelved—Crane Steps a Pair Rural Carrier on Her Route—Booster Carries News.

Frankfort, Ind., April 2.—The regular meeting of the school board was an animated affair, a large number of citizens being present to speak their minds during the last few days, namely, the threatened discharge of Professor John J. Mitchell, principal of the high school. U. M. Palmer, one of the members of the board, informed Professor Mitchell a few days ago that his resignation would be acceptable. Professor Mitchell demanded the reason, and peremptorily refused to accede to the implied request.

People Were for the Professor.

The matter became public and the people took Professor Mitchell's side of the case. It was freely charged that the request was a bit of politics, and that the only cause for the board desiring to secure Mitchell's removal was in order to make a place for Professor Frank Smith, at present teacher of mathematics in the high school. Smith is an ardent Republican, and during the recent campaign for nominations for city officers, as alleged, he worked industriously to secure the nomination for mayor of W. A. Tull, president of the school board. Tull did not win.

Expected to Come Up Again.

When the board met more than 100 taxpayers were present, and several warm speeches were made, assuring the board that the people were with Mitchell. The board said that Palmer's action in asking for Professor Mitchell's resignation was unauthorized. Thus the affair ended for the present, but it is said that the controversy will be carried into the forthcoming city election, the citizens being determined to see that Mitchell is not forced out, either now or at some future time.

Rev. Lassie's Election Is Sure.

Owensville, Ind., April 2.—The Owensville schools have closed after a term of six months. Owensville schools gained much notoriety through the superintendent, Rev. T. A. H. Lassie, who whipped a roomful of primary pupils. Miss Bertha Montgomery, the teacher, soon after developed mental trouble. This caused a sensation throughout the country. Superintendent Lassie later issued a card disclaiming all blame for the condition of Miss Montgomery, and the parents of the girl followed with a statement severely criticizing Lassie. The condition of the girl is much improved. Professor Lassie will have charge of the Owensville school next term.

Fair Substitute Rural Mail Carrier Has an Adventure While Performing Her Duties.

Shelbyville, Ind., April 2.—While Miss Pearl Lane, a substitute carrier on a rural route from Morrisstown, was driving by the Muth farm her horse was stopped suddenly. She was sorting out letters and papers, and did not look up to see why the animal had come to a halt, but commanded it to move on. The animal did not obey, and the carrier saw a man holding the animal by the bridle.

All he said was: "I am McKinley's own brother. Have you got your dinner with you?" Miss Lane said she had nothing to eat with her. The man loosened his hold on the horse and went on. Miss Lane usually carries a revolver when going over the route, but had left it at home on this trip.

Fatal Trick of Natural Gas.

Carmel, Ind., April 2.—Calvin Bond, 72 years old, was fatally injured, and Roscoe Mann, and Davis seriously hurt by an explosion of natural gas which wrecked a two-story business block here. A grocery store on the first floor of the building was filled with gas from a defective main. The gas was ignited by a heated stove. The roof was blown into the air and the building collapsed. None was killed.

Hoisting Engineers Must Submit.

Brazil, Ind., April 2.—The miners of the local coal field have decided they will not resume work until the hoisting engineers abandon their union and become part of the mine workers' union. A meeting between the miners and the engineers will be held here tonight, when it is believed the engineers will yield rather than precipitate a strike.

Nearly Always on Hand.

Bloomington, Ind., April 2.—William F. Browning has written to Chairman Goodrich, of the Republican state committee, accepting an invitation extended to men who attended the first state convention. Browning is in his 79th year, and with two or three exceptions, has attended every state Republican convention in Indiana.

Lull Occurs in the Fighting Again—United States Flag to Fly at New Chwang—War Notes.

London, March 31.—A correspondent of The Times at New Chwang, cabling yesterday, says: "The Russian police have apologized and have re-bolstered the United States flag over the correspondents' mess."

St. Petersburg, March 31.—The Novoe Vremya has executed a face-about strongly supporting the idea of a Russo-British understanding, in an editorial entitled "The Blindness of England," in which the paper argues that the success of Japan would be more injurious to Great Britain than to any other European nation, and points to the United States as the common rival of both. It describes Japan as "America's sharp shooter," and says: "Remember what nation, in the person of the commander of one of its men-of-war at Chemulpo, refused to join in the collective protest of the other foreign commanders before the Japanese destroyed the Varig and the Korietz. Remember whose flag alone among all did not take on board the crews of our perishing ships. To the honor of England, the ally of Japan, it was not her representative, but the commander of an American ship."

Would Make the Pacific Our Pond.

"The Americans wish to convert the Pacific into an American Mediterranean. Would that be to the advantage of England? Does England not understand in her blind policy and hatred toward Russia that she is turning this ocean into an American Mediterranean? Sooner or later the European countries will recognize that America is their mutual enemy. Why should not Russia and England, in view of their possessions outside of Europe, combine?"

Russia Does Not Want India.

"Some one will do England a great service by warning her of the economic Sedan which will be effected by the Japanese and Americans. Russian and English interests do not clash. Russia does not want India, but only access to the open sea from Vladivostok and Port Arthur."

SUMMARY OF THE WAR NEWS

United States Flag Flying Again at New Chwang—No More Fighting.

London, March 31.—The latest news from the Far East says nothing of any more fighting, but gives a few more details of recent engagements. An interesting fact from New Chwang is that the Russians, in view of a vigorous protest from the United States consul there, have decided to permit the flying of the United States flag on buildings belonging to United States citizens. The British flag will also be unmolested.

The Russians continue to allege that the Japanese had forty killed at the battle of Chong-Ju—which is identical with the fight reported yesterday by the Japs as having taken place at "Tyronjru"—and that their wounded were more numerous. On the other hand the Japanese official report gives five Japs killed, one being a lieutenant, and a captain and twelve others wounded. The Japs agree pretty well with the Russian official report as to the casualties on the Russian side.

Admiral Togo's official report of the sixth attack on Port Arthur does not differ materially from the one printed in these dispatches, except that it would appear that the Japs were particularly successful in blocking Port Arthur, the channel between the sunken ships being very narrow. The ships seem to have been taken right into the channel before they were sunk.

The captain of the Han Hei, a Japanese merchantman, reports at Chefoo that his ship was captured by a Russian squadron and sunk, and two others alone escaping capture.

According to a St. Petersburg dispatch it is not denied in Russian official quarters that Captain Reitzenstein's Vladivostok squadron has returned to port, but the officials ignore the statement that the squadron has captured any Japanese warships or trading vessels.

Reporting the death of Commander Hirose, who took in one of the blockading ships, Admiral Togo says: "Commander Hirose, after causing his men to take to the boats and not finding Sugino [who had been killed by the torpedo that sank his ship] searched through the ship three times for him. Finding his ship gradually going down Commander Hirose was compelled to give up the search and enter a boat. As he was rowing away under the enemy's hot fire a shell struck him on the head. His head and part of his body was blown away. Only a piece of flesh in the boat was all that remained of the brave officer's body."

Flax Hackle Is a Veteran.

Clay City, Ind., April 1.—N. M. Cromwell, near Middlebury, has in his possession a flax hackle used in Germany two centuries ago, which was brought to this country three-quarters of a century ago by Mrs. Cromwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Toole.

CALAMITY IMPENDING

Bursting of a Reservoir at Celina, O., Threatens an Awful Disaster.

RESIDENTS NOTIFIED OF PERIL

Have to Move to Safe Places—Renascence of the Trouble in Central Indiana.

Celina, O., April 2.—The apprehension that has been felt regarding the banks of the Grand reservoir has increased. The water continues rising, but the greatest danger is believed to exist on account of the high wind that has been blowing since sundown and is continually getting stronger. The gale is from the west, and is driving the water against the east bank around St. Mary's, where the bank has already been weakened. A very large force is at work trying to save the locks at the bulkhead. St. Mary's is at the east end of the reservoir, and Celina at the west end.

People Have Been Warned.

Flood signals have been given out not only around the reservoir but also to people along the canal to be ready to vacate. The St. Mary's river has broken its record, doing much damage to the railroads and other property. A very large force of men is also at work on the dam on the Celina side of the reservoir. The exodus of people from the reservoir district is very large, on account of the high winds which make the waters surge along the banks. These people know that if there is a break at any point a great calamity will follow.

Notified to Vacate at Once.

The superintendent of the canal has notified the people occupying houses on the south side of the Lake Erie and Western railway in this city to vacate at once. The railroads also have very large forces of men bracing their culverts against the dashing waters. Besides the gangs of workmen hundreds are engaged as watchmen and patrolmen, ready to give warning in case of a break. The residents of the reservoir district as well as the railway and the canal officials are more apprehensive over the high winds than over the high waters.

Family in a Bad Situation.

Lima, O., April 2.—Flood conditions here are the worst in years. The water is over all the best elevated parts of the town. A family named Stewart, on South Pine street, was driven to the second story, and later Mrs. Stewart shouted to a rescuing party that a daughter had just died from pneumonia, that the husband was near death with consumption, and that two other children were ill with pneumonia. Preparations were at once made to assist them, though to do so was incurring danger, and the rescue was finally effected.

OTHER POINTS IN OHIO

Crestline Water-Soaked for the Second Time in a Month.

Crestline, O., April 2.—All the lower districts in Crestline and vicinity are under water, and for the second time within a month the town has suffered great damage. Portions of 100 houses are under water. At Moorhead's livery stable all the horses were drowned when rescued. Dozens of barns and outbuildings were taken from their foundations.

Bucyrus, O., April 2.—At records for thirty years have been broken here by the high water in the Sandusky river. The northern part of the city is cut off, and buildings along the bottoms have been swept away. A break in the gas main left the houses dark and fireless. The water is receding.

Troy, O., April 2.—The Miami river has reached a higher stage than ever known before. The levee above the state dam has broken under the heavy strain, and the water came rushing down upon the city without a moment's warning. That section of Troy known as "Nineveh" was soon inundated, and the water stands from four to six feet deep in streets.

RETURN OF THE AFFLICTION

Central Indiana Is Again in the Grasp of the Ragging Waters.

Indianapolis, April 2.—While the flood situation throughout southwestern Indiana is considerably improved the heavy rains of Thursday and Thursday night have almost duplicated the flood stages of last week throughout central Indiana. White river near this city has risen thirteen feet above the low water mark, and is still rising. Manufacturing interests and many homes in the river district are menaced. At Portland only three or four business houses are above water, and at Delphi the Wabash railroad is washed away in two places. The suburbs of Alexandria are threatened by the high water and the inhabitants have abandoned their homes. Rockville is isolated. At Marion, Muncie and Newcastle, the situation is almost as bad as last week.

The crest of the flood in the southwestern part of the state has moved almost to the Ohio, and it is believed that the rivers will now carry off the waters, which cover several hundred thousand acres of valuable farm land, without further damage. Hundreds of refugees from the inundated districts have been brought to Evansville on a special train sent out by the Southern Railroad company.

At Marion, as the result of a rain torrent, the Mississippi river is rapidly rising. Water is pouring through breaks in the levee and East Marion is covered with water to a depth of six feet. Many homes are badly damaged.

Vincennes, Ind., April 2.—Great distress prevails in this section because of the high water. Appeals for help come from Russellville, Ill., where the grocery stores and markets are without provisions. A steamboat will be sent from here to their relief. The families of James and Leonard Jordan were brought here in an emaciated condition. They had been afloat in a skiff for three days without food. It is reported here that Jacob Kellums and Mrs.

ance Christy have been drowned by the water in their houses.

Two Men Lose Their Lives.

Ottawa, O., April 2.—The flood situation here is serious, the Blanchard river being out of its banks. The people in the lower sections of the town have left their homes. A. C. McAdow, a liveryman of Ottawa, and Frank Wamocke, of Ottaville, were drowned at Kaila, nine miles south of here, while trying to drive across a fill to a bridge.
